Return Of The Benedictines To London A History Of Ealing Abbey From 1896 To Independence:

The Return of the Benedictines to London Rene Kollar, 1989 Encyclopedia of Monasticism William M.

Johnston, 2013-12-04 The two volume Encyclopedia of Monasticism describes the monastic traditions of both Christianity and Buddhism with more than 600 entries on important monastic figures of all periods and places surveys of countries and localities and topical essays covering a wide range of issues e g art behavior economics liturgy politics theology and scholarship Coverage encompasses not only geography and history worldwide but also the contemporary dilemmas of monastic life Recent upheavals in certain countries are highlighted Korea Russia Sri Lanka etc Topical essays subtitled Christian Perspectives and Buddhist Perspectives explore in imaginative fashion comparisons and contrasts between Christian and Buddhist monasticism Encyclopedia of Monasticism also includes more than 500 color and black and white illustrations covering all aspects of monastic life art and architecture

A Foreign and Wicked Institution? Rene Kollar, 2011-03-22 Many in Victorian England harbored deep suspicion of convent life In addition to looking at anti Catholicism and the fear of both Anglican and Catholic sisterhoods that were established during the nineteenth century this work explores the prejudice that existed against women in Victorian England who joined sisterhoods and worked in orphanages and in education and were committed to social work among the urban poor Women according to some of these critics should remain passive in matters of religion Nuns however did play an important role in many areas of life in nineteenth century England and faced hostility from many who felt threatened and challenged by members of female religious orders The accomplishments of the nineteenth century nuns and the opposition they overcame should serve as both an example and encouragement to all men and women committed to the Gospel

Thomas Verner Moore Benedict Neenan, 2000 Thomas Verner Moore 1877 1969 priest author teacher and practical psychiatrist was one of the first advocates of modern psychology among Roman Catholics in the United States In this fascinating biography Benedict Neenan brings to life this man of staggering accomplishments and recounts the many twists and turns he took in the search for his professional and spiritual development Skillfully intertwining the dramatic interaction between Moore s intense activism and his deeply felt need for contemplation and asceticism Neenan points out the many paradoxes and tensions of his rich and eventful life For example Moore started out in his adult religious life as a member of one of the most progressive and distinctly American religious communities the Paulists and ended it as a member of one of the most traditional orders the Carthusians Besides detailing the life of this accomplished man this work offers a glimpse into American Catholic life American social life in the first half of the twentieth century

A Nun, a Convent, and the German Occupation of Belgium Rene Kollar, 2016-12-15 World War I has been recorded from many points of view correspondent poet politician and soldier Comments from a nun living in a foreign country during the hostilities however can provide new insights Isoline Jones was born in 1876 in England and attended the boarding school at Tildonk Belgium run by the Ursuline sisters She eventually converted to Roman

Catholicism from Anglicanism and made her perpetual vows in 1907 as a member of the Ursuline community Her religious name was Mother Marie Georgine In August 1914 German forces invaded Belgium and occupied the convent and school and her impressions of the war years are preserved in a series of letters written in the form of a diary The siege of Antwerp the plight of refugees interaction with the German soldiers and the hectic daily life of the convent were recorded by Mother Marie Georgine Events occurring throughout Belgium did not escape her attention and she did not avoid describing the brutality of war Although sections of her diary have appeared in print this is the first publication of Mother Marie Georgine s entire diary Her impressions of World War I offer new perspectives on this tragic event Legitimizing Scientific Knowledge Francis Remedios,2003-01-01 The first book to provide an in depth examination of Steve Fuller s politically oriented social epistemology Legitimizing Scientific Knowledge compares Fuller s social epistemology with other interest oriented and truth oriented social epistemologies The result is a carefully argued in depth analysis of the work of a groundbreaking philosopher of science The American Benedictine Review ,1999 The Journal of Medieval and Early Modern Studies ,1996

Historical Dictionary of London Kenneth John Panton,2001 Panton details London s growth from its foundation in Roman times to its modern place as one of the world s preeminent financial commercial and cultural capitals Entries cover general themes such as immigration housing street markets and health care as well as specific topics including individual historic buildings financial institutions museums transport modes major city center hotels and West End theaters Significant contributors to the city s government such as the legendary Dick Whittington also receive attention along with immigrant groups and major events such as the Great Fire the Great Plague the development of the subway system and the growth of the Stock Exchange In addition a chronology details major events there are lists of Lord Mayors and leading local government officials and a table outlines population growth over the last two hundred years Appendices contain borough council contact information and world wide web addresses which provide access to additional information through the Internet Annual Bibliography of British and Irish History ,1992 Searching for Raymond Rene Kollar,2000-09-26 Rene Kollar takes as his focus the uneasy relationship between the Anglican Church and Spiritualism following World War I A church committee was appointed to study the claims of Spiritualism in relation to the Christian Faith and though the results were in some respects favorable to Spiritualism the report was not made public until 1979 Searching for Raymond explores the rise in Spiritualism s popularity after the trauma of war as Anglicans failed to find comfort in the traditional teachings of their church At the same time the book provides a thoroughly researched portrait of the indelible connection between religious faith and bereavement between the two world wars Cardinal Herbert Vaughan Robert J. O'Neil,1997 The first published biography of Cardinal Vaughan was a two volume work by his cousin John Snead Cox then editor of The Tablet In his Preface Snead Cox described his aim as to write an absolutely candid book describing the man as he was in his strengths and in his weaknesses with his gifts and his limitations Fr Robert O Neil shares that aim but writes with the advantages of a more objective focus provided by the near century that has elapsed since Vaughan's death in 1903 a large amount of new material that has come to light and his own life in the missionary Congregation founded by Vaughan Extensively researched drawing on family and other archives not previously accessible authoritative and at the same time highly readable this will stand as the definitive biography of a controversial and important figure for many decades to come The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells, 1992 Arts & Humanities Citation Index, 1992 Revue d'histoire ecclésiastique, 1991 Each vol includes an annual bibliography 1915-20 consist of bibliography only Whitaker's Books in Print, 1998 Abbot Aelred Carlyle, Caldey Island, and the Anglo-Catholic Revival in England Rene Kollar, 1995 Oxford Dictionary of National Biography: Cappe-Chancellor Henry Colin Gray Matthew, Brian Harrison, 2004 55 000 biographies of people who shaped the history of the British Isles and beyond from the earliest times to the year 2002 The Catholic Who's who & Yearbook Sir Francis Cowley Burnand, 1952 The English Benedictines, 1540-1688 David Lunn, 1980
