Return To Source invites Black people around the world to reconnect with their lost heritage and find healing self love and transformation This book is an empowering call to journey home to a new way of looking after yourself A new way that is in fact the old way Globally Africans and Diasporans are rediscovering that even while navigating an oppressive and often unsafe world we are called to make space for healing not just for ourselves but also for loved ones Ancestors and descendants Our path to liberation includes a commitment to nurturing our personal and community growth by making wellness a priority In this powerful book Araba Ofori Acquah will help you to embark on a spiritual emotional and for some physical journey back to the Motherland back to your heritage back to yourself back to source unlock your potential with the power of an African centred approach to wellness incorporate the three seeds of African wellness music and movement Mother Earth and magick into your routine demystify and undo the demonisation of African beliefs rituals and practices create a path to healing that feels most authentic to you Discover how to live well in accordance with African traditions and find power healing and alignment through your Return to Source

The Return to Source Jeff Ilschner, 2021-06-28 Your success is not by what you have and own or what you are involved with in your social life Your success is by what you are doing here with the spiritual life through the physical presence It s not about where you re at with what you have It s about where you re at with who you are then you will have everything that you need Do not sell your life for some simple minded success Reality is an illusion that must be recognized and overcome in order to make it out Humans must reach a deeper point on focusing past the beliefs of what they think and know as being true We live in a reality where people believe that truth is found from the media of an Internet revolution and that is far from accurate Humans accept the world from the reality in which they are presented The only way to see the truth in the right form is from within The soul is what makes a person human and the soul holds true that the physical mind can barely comprehend You have to be spiritually developed outside of society for your mind to be evolved in processing and handling the path of light through your soul It is through the soul that you discover and become conscious of understanding the deepest truths People who strictly live in the world will never come to know their souls The soul is the only way to true wisdom and eternal life Do you want to become less of who you are or do you want to become more than what you were led to believe that you are Humans must always live in the light of who they are outside of this world Otherwise they re just living a baseless existence following under the guidance of wickedness to an impending eternal death

OpenGL Shading Language Randi J. United States of America V. Wortman, 1963 A Cambodian Odyssey Kurt Volkert, T. Jeff Williams, 2001 This is a question that still bluntly assaults every reporter and cameraman covering war anywhere in the world When to stop Where to stop Ever to stop We lived with that challenge all during the war yet so many of us felt invulnerable was it innocence arrogance the intoxication of war We were objective reporters weren't we not combat soldiers We gave ourselves exemptions from death We armored ourselves with naiveté In all this book is a tribute to all slain journalists who brought the war to your living room some caught in a firefight some shot out of the sky some who vanished some executed Yet even while the shooting was going on there was a war about the war about whether the United States had misread history and the dying and killing was all a waste Those post mortems would come later too late to end the killing
