

REFUSAL OF THE RETURN

- Having found enlightenment, the hero may not want to return to the ordinary world to share his wisdom
- “the boon may redound to the community, the nation...Even Gautama Buddha, after his triumph, doubted whether the message of realization could be communicated”(Campbell 156).

Return From Enlightenment:

Love's Return Gail M. Boldt, Paula M. Salvio, 2012-11-12 The idea that teachers love children is often taken for granted in education Rarely is the idea of love itself examined Bringing together the work of educators curriculum theorists and clinical psychoanalysts and drawing upon autobiographical and narrative case studies this groundbreaking collection examines the collision of love and learning including the ways in which such intersections are provoked repressed and denied Contributors turn to psychoanalysis to explore questions of love in all of its varying permutations ambivalence sexuality hatred desire projection and loss in order to demonstrate how the social ramifications of such work is critical to the ways teachers are currently being prepared for life in the classroom

Abel, 2023-01-31 Unlocking a vital understanding of how literary studies and media studies overlap and are bound together A synthetic history of new media reception in modern and contemporary Japan The New Real positions mimesis at the heart of the media concept Considering both mimicry and representation as the core functions of mediation and remediation Jonathan E Abel offers a new model for media studies while explaining the deep and ongoing imbrication of Japan in the history of new media From stereoscopy in the late nineteenth century to emoji at the dawn of the twenty first Abel presents a pioneering history of new media reception in Japan across the analog and digital divide He argues that there are two realities created by new media one marketed to us through advertising that proclaims better faster and higher resolution connections to the real and the other experienced by users whose daily lives and behaviors are subtly transformed by the presence and penetration of the content carried through new media Intervening in contemporary conversations about virtuality copyright copycat violence and social media each chapter unfolds with a focus on a single medium or technology including 3D photographs the phonograph television videogames and emoji By highlighting the tendency of the mediated to copy the world and the world to copy the mediated The New Real provides a new path for analysis of media culture and their function in the world Religion and the Struggle for European Union Brent F. Nelsen, James L. Guth, 2015-05-01 In Religion and the Struggle for European Union Brent F Nelsen and James L Guth delve into the powerful role of religion in shaping European attitudes on politics political integration and the national and continental identities of its leaders and citizens Nelsen and Guth contend that for centuries Catholicism promoted the universality of the Church and the essential unity of Christendom Protestantism by contrast esteemed particularity and feared Catholic dominance These differing visions of Europe have influenced the process of postwar integration in profound ways Nelsen and Guth compare the Catholic view of Europe as a single cultural entity best governed as a unified polity against traditional Protestant estrangement from continental culture and its preference for pragmatic cooperation over the sacrifice of sovereignty As the authors show this deep cultural divide rooted in the struggles of the Reformation resists the ongoing secularization of the continent Unless addressed it threatens decades of hard won gains in security and prosperity Farsighted and rich with data Religion and the Struggle for European Union offers a pragmatic way forward in the EU's attempts to solve its social economic and political crises

Revolutionary Threads Bobby Sullivan, 2021-05-26 An American Rastafarian offers a vibrant examination of American and African history with an anti colonial patina engaging Kirkus Reviews Revolutionary Threads offers an American Rasta's retelling of episodes in American history with an anticolonial thrust accented by Bobby Sullivan's own personal experiences The book ties together various subjects while returning each time to the culture of Rastafari social justice movements and cooperative economics From how we perceive history in general America's precolonial past and global capitalism's early development and the resistance to it to political prisoners and a celebration of religious tolerance the book approaches North America with an African centric perspective Sullivan dispels the oversimplification of our perceptions of Rastafari as well as other cultures in the age of the Internet where the loudest voices are often the most extreme and divisive Revolutionary Threads aims to serve as a unifying agent for our all too connected global village and for the resistance to the consolidation of global capital and all its excesses A post hardcore rock star community activist and social justice intellectual offers an alternative look at countercolonial history through the lens of the Rastafari movement Kirkus Reviews Outlining his philosophical influences and backpacking through history and criss crossing continental borders Sullivan puts his enlightenment journey and way of life which includes activism for social justice prison outreach and cooperative economics on paper The Gleaner Jamaica Sullivan meticulously sources his work throughout whether providing a Howard Zinn like take on the settlement of America by Africans predating Columbus or in discussing political prisoners like Marilyn Buck an engaging lively well thought book which provides a picture of Rastafarianism in action for punks and beyond Razorcake
