The Jaguar's Heart The Jaguar's Heart,2023-06-05 Based on a true story The Jaguar s Heart brings to life the first encounter of Maya and European in the 16th century It tells the story of Gonzalo Guerrero a Spanish sailor shipwrecked on the coast of Yucatan in 1511 between Columbus discovery of the Americas and Cortez conquest of Mexico Maya lords enslave Guerrero and his fellow castaways but he eventually gains his freedom Encountering Ix Chan Can the beautiful younger sister of the Maya lord Nachan Can Guerrero chooses to remain among her people and win her love Guerrero earns renown in a war against Nachan Can s enemies and finally Ix Chan Can s hand After they have two children the only other still living castaway the clergyman Jeronimo de Aguilar brings word of Cortez landing Guerrero refuses to rejoin his countrymen cleaving to his family But with Aguilar as interpreter Cortez conquers the Aztecs and the Spaniards inevitably return to impose their rule and religion on the Maya Nachan Can now demands that Guerrero fight and at last accepting that he must do so to protect his family Guerrero tragically stakes his life for his adoptive people against ever mounting odds The Jaguar s Heart reveals the struggle of a man caught between cultures and conflicting loyalties at a pivotal moment in the history of the Americas It is a book with the captivating setting of Gary Jennings Aztec and its sequels yet which reveals the humanity of both Spaniard and Indian and with the compelling theme of W Michael Gear and Kathleen O Neal Gear s Contact The Battle for America series The Oma Sagas: The Return Rob Vadurro,2011 The Oma are a gentle intelligent clan of the early Pleistocene era who have discovered a system of manipulating organic material to cut combine grow shrink and mutate plant and animal tissues into whatever form is desired Flight becomes their most enticing goal Eventually they develop a craft large enough they can all live within The body of this vessel is based on a cicada They configure it to include a respiration system food producers waste treatment photosynthesis energy gatherers and a propulsion system capable of near light speed in the vacuum of space Threatened by extinction from a large tribe of mythically obsessed fanatics the Oma escape into the sky and soon discover the stars naked in the eternal night of space Their legends tell them that the stars are the souls of their departed loved ones and they embark on a voyage to see if this is so They travel for forty years to the center of the Galaxy and back through globular clusters open gobs of stars gaseous nebulae the giant black hole at the Galaxy's center and even a visit to a young earthlike planet Recording their voyage on chameleon skins they retrace their journey back to Earth of the present day now 114 000 years in their future Come join them as they discover humanity in the 21st century future Return To Lemuria Richard Gradner,2014-10-21 When small time enforcer Billy Bayer betrays his mob boss he expects revenge what he gets is far stranger Captured by the secretive descendants of the ancient Lemurian civilization Billy is thrust into a hidden world that claims responsibility for every major event in human history Imprisoned and re educated Billy awakens a dormant power within himself an extrasensory gift the Lemurians have guarded for millennia But with knowledge comes rebellion As Billy begins to question their sinister ideals he forms a crew of unlikely allies to sabotage the very organisation that gave him his power Yet one question looms can a man rewrite a 12 000 year old prophecy that foretells doom for mankind The answer lies deep in the Brazilian Amazon where renegade anthropologist Dr David Steel and the embattled FUNAI Foundation race to protect indigenous tribe and perhaps unlock humanity's only chance of survival Lunabea.com's Videogame Guides of 2008 Allison Schubert, Cats and Cathedrals Patrick Boniface,2006-03 The Raw and the Cooked Claude Lévi-Strauss,1983-03-15 In anthropological terms the concept of the raw versus the cooked has long been associated with the dichotomy between the natural world and the world of human culture In a broad based empirical study of native mythologies Claude Lévi Strauss proposes a structural and thematic link between the opposition of the raw and the cooked in mythological thought and man's attempt to establish a balanced relationship between natural and cultural forces Lévi Strauss postulates that the raw-cooked axis is characteristic of all human culture with elements falling along the raw side of the axis being those of natural origin and those on the cooked side being of cultural origin i.e products of human creation Symbolically cooking marks the transition from nature to culture by means of which the human state can be defined in accordance with all its attributes In mythological thought the cooking of food is in effect a form of mediation between nature and society between life and death and between heaven and earth The cook in turn can be viewed as a cultural agent whose function is to mediate the conjunction of the raw product and the human consumer the operation of which has the effect of making sure the natural is at once cooked and socialized similarities and differences do humans see between themselves and animals Why do people commonly make metaphorical comparisons between human beings or social groups and animals and to what degree are people's attitudes and beliefs about animals parallel to or contingent upon their attitudes and beliefs about human beings and human society This collection of articles considers these issues The issues are basic in any study of totemism or human and animal relationships and they have been discussed in anthropological literature since the time of Lewis Henry Morgan's work on Iroquois social organization The contributors to this anthology have not limited themselves to the notion that clans and moieties are the only sources and objects of metaphorical comparisons between humans and animals They suggest a shift in perspective that has metaphorical comparisons generated by conceived similarities and differences between animals and particular types of human beings Some examples of this include macaw fledglings as adolescents pumas as fully initiated men and foxes as young married men With this shift of emphasis a significantly different analytic focus in the study of human animal relations is produced

This phenomenologically oriented ethnography focuses on experiential aspects of Yanomami shamanism including shamanistic activities in the context of cultural change The author interweaves ethnographic material with theoretical components of a holographic principle or the idea that the part is equal to the whole which is embedded in the nature of the Yanomami macrocosm human dwelling multiple soul components and shamans relationships with embodied spirit helpers This book fills an important gap in the regional study of Yanomami people and on a broader scale enriches understanding of this ancient phenomenon by focusing on the consciousness involved in shamanism through firsthand experiential involvement

Rethinking Zapotec Time David Tavárez, 2022-02-08 2023 Best Subsequent Book Native American and Indigenous Studies Association 2023 Honorable Mention Best Book in the Social Sciences Latin American Studies Association Mexico Section 2022 Marysa Navarro Best Book Prize New England Council of Latin American Studies As the first exhaustive translation and analysis of an extraordinary Zapotec calendar and ritual song corpus seized in New Spain in 1704 this book expands our understanding of Mesoamerican history cosmology and culture In 1702 after the brutal suppression of a Zapotec revolt the bishop of Oaxaca proclaimed an amnesty for idolatry in exchange for collective confessions To evade conflict

Northern Zapotec communities denounced ritual specialists and surrendered sacred songs and 102 divinatory manuals which preserve cosmological accounts exchanges with divine beings and protocols of pre Columbian origin that strongly resemble sections of the Codex Borgia These texts were sent to Spain as evidence of failed Dominican evangelization efforts and there they remained in oblivion until the 1960s In this book David Tav rez dives deep into this formidable archive of ritual and divinatory manuals the largest calendar corpus in the colonial Americas and emerges with a rich understanding of Indigenous social and cultural history Mesoamerican theories of cosmos and time and Zapotec ancestor worship Drawing on his knowledge of Zapotec and Nahuatl two decades of archival research and a decade of fieldwork Tav rez dissects Mesoamerican calendars as well as Native resistance and accommodation to the colonial conquest of time while also addressing entangled transatlantic histories and shining new light on texts still connected to contemporary observances in Zapotec communities
