Return of the Monstrous-Feminine Barbara Creed, 2022-07-27 This follow up to the classic text of The Monstrous Feminine analyses those contemporary films which explore social justice issues such as women's equality, violence against women, queer relationships, race, and the plight of the planet and its multi-species. Examining a new movement termed by Creed as Feminist New Wave Cinema, The Return of the Monstrous Feminine explores a significant change that has occurred over the past two decades in the representation of the monstrous feminine in visual discourse. The Monstrous Feminine is a figure in revolt on a journey through the dark night of abjection. Taking particular interest in women directors who create the figure of the Monstrous Feminine in cinema that foregrounds everyday horrors in addition to classic horror, Creed looks at a range of diverse films including The Babadook, A Girl Walks Home Alone at Night, Nomadland, Carol, Raw, Revenge, and the television series The Handmaid's Tale. These films center on different forms of revolt, from inner revolt to social, supernatural, and violent revolt, which appear in Feminist New Wave Cinema. These relate in the main to the emergence of a range of social protest movements that have gathered momentum in the new millennium and given voice to new theoretical and critical discourses. These include third and fourth wave feminism, the MeToo movement, queer theory, race theory, the critique of anthropocentrism, and human-animal theory. These theoretical discourses have played a key role in influencing Feminist New Wave Cinema, whose films are distinctive, stylish, and diverse. This is an essential companion to the original classic text and is ideal for students in Gender and Media, Gender and Horror, Gender and Film, and Feminist Film theory courses.

Failed Justice Richard D. Sparkman, 2011-10-24 True Crime Law Current Affairs Political Science and Government Provocation Sparkman uses thought-provoking cases to illustrate the failures of a trial system we revere only because we have been told it is the best in the world, a system we have been too arrogant to question. Charley I won't leave any witnesses next time. Charley stated after being sentenced to ten years for the rape of three women. He subsequently pulled just over two years. Dwayne I asked Dwayne when he would stop committing crimes. He smiled his warm smile and replied, "When I'm dead." Myth: America has the greatest and fairest legal system conceived by the mind of man. Truth: America has a trial system that cannot control crime and has legal services that are too complex and too expensive. More Truth: We have a large legal profession, criminal defense lawyers who labor to return drunk drivers to our streets, burglars to our homes, and child molesters to our neighborhoods Revelation It works We have the highest crime rate in the world with no apparent remedy other than surrendering our rights and building a police state Solution Scrap our trial system and build a new one effecting the most fundamental change in American government since 1789 Read Failed Justice then send it to our leaders

Return Engagement Kay Robbins, 1983

Criminalizing Sex Stuart P. Green, 2020

In the late 20th century the law of sexual offenses began to reflect a striking divergence On the one hand it became significantly more punitive in its approach to nonconsensual sexual conduct as in the case of rape and sexual assault On the other hand it became more permissive in how it dealt with putatively consensual sex such as sodomy adultery and adult pornography This book explores the conceptual and normative implications of this divergence In doing so it assumes that the proper role of criminal law in a liberal state is to protect individuals in their right not to be subjected to sexual contact against their will while also safeguarding their right to engage in private consensual sexual conduct in which they do wish to participate Although consistent in the abstract these dual aims frequently come into conflict in practice as is explored in the context of a wide range of offenses
