Revealing Difference The Fiction Of Isabelle De Charriere:

Revealing Difference Jenene J. Allison, 1995 In fact her originality extends far beyond this scale Charriere's novels not only work with literary conventions they work on these conventions For example the figure of the heroine plotted according to a standard plot line serves at a more complex level to undermine the image of woman embedded in the heroine Most telling are heroines plotted in the context of the French Revolution they reflect the repressive image of woman that would emerge from the combination of republican ideology with the growing emphasis on maternalism Surprisingly modern in this regard these novels confirm recent interpretations of the gendering of the social sphere after the Revolution The Nobleman and Other Romances Isabelle de Charriere, 2012-03-27 The only available English translation of writings by an Enlightenment era Dutch aristocrat writer composer and woman Born Dutch noble and free spirited Isabelle de Charriere also known as Belle de Zuylen was an enlightened woman whose writings not unlike Jane Austen's tackled the intricacies of high society particularly in matters of love Published when she was only twenty two The Nobleman is a Persuasion like tale whose heroine challenges her stodgy father in order to marry a man of unassuming ancestry But Charriere did not confine herself to simple marriage plots and country courtships Another story Eagonlette and Suggestina is a thinly veiled critique of Marie Antoinette cleverly disguised as a fairy tale The Nobleman and Other Romances will delight fans of Jane Austen and Enlightenment era French literature For more than seventy years Penguin has been the leading publisher of classic literature in the English speaking world With more than 1 700 titles Penguin Classics represents a global bookshelf of the best works throughout history and across genres and disciplines Readers trust the series to provide authoritative texts enhanced by introductions and notes by distinguished scholars and contemporary authors as well as up to date translations by award winning translators Subverting the Family Romance Charlotte Daniels, 2000 Drawing on Habermas and Freud as well as historians of the family Daniels takes up the case of three women novelists each writing at a key moment in the parallel development of the novel genre and the modern family She demonstrates that these writers confronted with ever more reified exclusion from public life and relegated to narrowly defined domestic roles intervened in and subverted the process in their novels Daniels shows that women writers used the novel first to imagine different social rules that might define alternative kinship systems Graffigny and later to find and create loopholes within a firmly entrenched system of official and unofficial law Charriere and Sand Spanning a crucial period in the emergence of modernity this interdisciplinary study addresses problems in French literary and social history gender studies and the history of mentalities BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved Intellectual Tacking Jacqueline Letzter, 2023-07-10 Isabelle de Charriere Belle van Zuylen has been known primarily as a novelist who experimented with narrative techniques to express her concern about the oppression of women in her society Most scholarship has focused on only a small part of her work her pre revolutionary novels This is one of the first synthetic studies of Charriere's entire oeuvre and it turns its attention to Charrière's overlooked contribution as an intellectual in the eighteenth century debate over education. In addition, Letzter analyzes the rhetorical and discursive strategies Charrière employed to insert herself in this debate, a debate from which she was excluded because she was a woman and she was not French. Letzter's model for this analysis is the rhetorical figure of tacking, a nautical term used by Charrière herself in order to describe her tactics for intellectual engagement within the gendered environment of revolutionary debate. Letzter demonstrates Charrière's contribution as an important intellectual of the Revolution and of the post-revolutionary period whose significance resided in her ability to express her ambivalence toward the theories and ideologies that ceaselessly imposed themselves on women.

Through the Reading Glass Suellen Diaconoff, 2012-02-01 2005 CHOICE Outstanding Academic Title. Through the Reading Glass explores the practices and protocols that surrounded women's reading in eighteenth-century France. Looking at texts as various as fairy tales, memoirs, historical romances, short stories, love letters, novels, and the pages of the new female periodical press, Suellen Diaconoff shows how a reading culture, one in which books, sex, and acts of reading were richly and evocatively intertwined, was constructed for and by women. Diaconoff proposes that the underlying discourse of virtue found in women's work was both an empowering strategy intended to create new kinds of responsible and not merely responsive readers and an integral part of the conviction that domestic reading does not have to be trivial.

Individuation and Attachment in the Works of Isabelle de Charrière Jelka Samsom, 2005. The novels published by Isabelle de Charrière before the French Revolution offer a perceptive account of the psychology and the social climate of the late eighteenth century. The anti-Freudian psychoanalysis of the neurologist and psychiatrist Heinz Kohut (1913-81) is used in this study as a means of developing an awareness of the position of the fictional characters. Feminist and Freudian readings of Charrière's novels of the 1780s have stressed the closed deterministic atmosphere of contemporary society; this new study emphasises what can be called the modern side of the novels: patriarchal society and individual needs confront each other and allow the relationships to be seen in a new light. By means of Kohut's notion of self-object, a rich insight is gained into the complex relationships described by Isabelle de Charrière.

Boswell's Enlightenment Robert Zaretsky, 2015-03-23. Throughout his life, James Boswell struggled to fashion a clear account of himself, but try as he might, he could not reconcile the truths of his era with those of his religious upbringing. Few periods better crystallize this turmoil than 1763-1765, the years of his Grand Tour and the focus of Robert Zaretsky's thrilling intellectual adventure.

Beyond Contractual Morality Julia Simon, 2001. Beyond Contractual Morality looks at current debates over the meaning of liberalism by reexamining their roots in eighteenth-century texts which demonstrate the historical intertwining of political, legal, and moral problems in their extension of social contract theory into various realms of public and private lives. Writers such as Rousseau, Voltaire, Sade, and Montesquieu are discussed. In light of contemporary debates over liberalism and informed by the problems of contemporary democratic pluralistic culture, Beyond Contractual Morality reexamines the roots of these current discussions in eighteenth century texts Enlightenment texts demonstrate the historical intertwining of political legal and moral problems in their extension of social contract theory into various realms of private and public life Specifically these texts point to an over reliance on the notion of contract to resolve ethical dilemmas A range of issues and authors is discussed including the historical development of social contract theory from Hobbes to Rousseau conflicting conceptions of education in Rousseau s writings the rise of professional ethics the concept of tolerance as discussed by Montesquieu Voltaire and Rousseau the divide between the public and private realms in the writings of Charriere and Sade Beyond Contractual Morality concludes with a reemphasis on the contemporary context of debate and proposes a defense of a revised version of liberalism that can take account of positive duties without sacrificing individual autonomy Julia Simon is Associate Professor of French at the Pennsylvania State University Literate Women and the French Revolution of 1789 ,1994 Flat
