The Dare Susan Kearney,2005-07-10 DORA WANTS TO MAKE LOVE Specifically Dora wants to make love with the handsome Rystani warrior pilot Zical But since Dora is a computer albeit a sentient computer she cannot experience touch taste and true desire Dora s logic functions refuse to accept this so she uses the advanced technology of the 24th century to build herself a body specifically crafted to appeal to Zical and downloads her computer brain into it But Dora s sassy attitude makes her too different from the women of Zical s culture He s attracted to Dora but he won t make love to her And while it would be easy for Dora to adapt to his desires she likes being smart and funny she s becoming good at being human When Zical accidentally summons the ancient machines that protect the galaxy from invasion Dora s mission is to intercept them and bring them back to the galaxy s rim Fortunately for Dora this puts her and Zical into very close quarters for a very long time But much has changed and as Dora learns more about human emotions and what they mean she realizes that she doesn t just want to make love with Zical she wants to love him And be loved in return

Bodies Gillian Bennett,2009-09-18 Because they are so often told as news contemporary legends force us to reevaluate life as we know it They confront us with macabre fantastic horrific or hilarious characters and events that seem to come straight out of myths and folktales but are presented as present day events The difficulty is that it is not at all easy to decide whether these often disturbing stories should be treated as reliable or dismissed as fantasy The legends explored in this book are some of the most bizarre gruesome and politically sensitive stories in the contemporary legend canon At any moment a body may be invaded by noxious creatures deliberately infected with deadly disease or raided to provide donor organs for sick foreigners These are winter s tales the stuff of nightmares In this book Gillian Bennett traces the cultural history of six legends well known in Europe and America from medieval times to the present day Appearing in broadsides ballads myths ancient and modern legends novels plays films television shows and stories told in the oral tradition these legends are not just silly tales which can be dismissed as trivial and untrue They reveal much about the concerns and fears of everyday life and demonstrate the limits of knowledge and power in the modern world

Tuamaka Joan Metge, Hon Sir Edward Taihakurei Durie, 2013-11-01 From the point of view of a renowned anthropologist this invaluable volume narrates the history of a multicultural New Zealand in which both Maori and non Maori individuals cohabitate Arguing that the Treaty of Waitangi of 1840 signed by the indigenous Maori and the British established a foundation from which New Zealanders could grow and prosper this account demonstrates how two cultures met disputed and dealt with diversity In addition this unique record analyzes the country s languages and myths and explores how they have influenced New Zealand society Moving and engaging this record covers six decades of enlightening field work

From Gift to Commodity Hildegard Hoeller, 2012 In this rich interdisciplinary study Hildegard Hoeller argues that nineteenth century American culture was driven by and deeply occupied with the tension between gift and market exchange Rooting her analysis in the period s fiction she shows how American novelists from Hannah Foster to Frank Norris grappled with the role of the gift based on trust social bonds and faith in an increasingly capitalist culture based on self interest market transactions and economic reason Placing the notion of sacrifice at the center of her discussion Hoeller taps into the poignant discourse of modes of exchange revealing central tensions of American fiction and culture Courtesan Diane Haeger, 2006-07-25 Amid the disapproving gossip of the Court a royal romance defies all obstacles The Court of France is full of lust intrigue and bawdy bon temps a different world from the quiet country life Diane de Poitiers led with her elderly husband Now a widow the elegant Diane is called back to Court where the King s obvious interest marks her as an enemy to the King s favourite Anne d Heilly The Court is soon electrified by rumors of their confrontations As Anne calls on her most venomous tricks to drive Diane away Diane finds an ally in the one member of Court with no allegiance to the King s mistress his teenage second son Henri Neglected by his father and disliked by his brothers Prince Henri expects little from his life But as his friendship with Diane deepens into infatuation and then a romance that scandalizes the Court the Prince begins to discover hope for a future with Diane But fate and his father have other plans for Henri including a political marriage with Catherine de Medici Despite daunting obstacles Henri s devotion to Diane never wanes their passion becomes one of the Godbout,Alain C. Caille,1998-10-21 The anthropologist Marcel Mauss in his famous exploration of the gift in primitive and archaic societies showed that the essential aspect of the exchange of presents involved the establishment of a social tie that bound the parties together above and beyond any material value of the objects exchanged He argued that these intangible mutual debts constituted the social fabric Godbout and Caill show that contrary to the modern assumption that societies function on the basis of market exchange and the pursuit of self interest the gift still constitutes the foundation of our social fabric The authors describe the gift not as an object but as a social connection perhaps the most important social connection because it creates a sense of obligation to respond in kind They examine the gift in a broad range of cases such as blood and organ donation volunteer work the bonds between friends couples and family Santa Claus the interaction between performers and their audience and the relation of the artist to society Written in an engaging manner The World of the Gift will appeal to anyone who is interested in how the world really operates Sermons Or Homilies, Appointed to be Read in Churches in the Time of Queen Elizabeth ... Church of England,1840 Certain sermons or homilies appointed to be read in Churches in the

This volume provides a thorough introduction to the major classic and modern writings dealing with religious sacrifice. Collected here are twenty five influential selections each with a brief introduction addressing the overall framework and assumptions of its author. As they present different theories and examples of sacrifice these selections also discuss important concepts in religious studies such as the origin of religion, totemism, magic, symbolism, violence, structuralism, and ritual performance. Students of comparative religion, ritual studies, the history of religions, the anthropology of religion, and theories of religion will particularly value the historical organization and thematic analyses presented in this collection.

Women and Gift Exchange in Eighteenth-Century Fiction Linda Zionkowski, 2016-05-26 This book analyzes why the most influential novelists of the long eighteenth century centered their narratives on the theory and practice of gift exchange Throughout this period fundamental shifts in economic theories regarding the sources of individual and national wealth along with transformations in the practices of personal and institutional charity profoundly altered cultural understandings of the gift s rationale purpose and function Drawing on materials such as sermons conduct books works of political philosophy and tracts on social reform Zionkowski challenges the idea that capitalist discourse was the dominant influence on the development of prose fiction Instead by shifting attention to the gift system as it was imagined and enacted in the formative years of the novel the volume offers an innovative understanding of how the economy of obligation shaped writers portrayals of class and gender identity property and community Through theoretically informed readings of Richardson s Clarissa and Sir Charles Grandison Burney s Cecilia and The Wanderer and Austen s Mansfield Park and Emma the book foregrounds the issues of donation reciprocity indebtedness and gratitude as it investigates the conflicts between the market and moral economies and analyzes women s position at the center of these conflicts As this study reveals the exchanges that eighteenth century fiction prescribed for women confirm the continuing power and importance of gift transactions in the midst of an increasingly commercial culture The volume will be essential reading for scholars of the eighteenth century novel economic literary criticism women and gender studies and book history
