Revenge Of The Apple Venganza De La Manzana:

Revenge of the Apple Alicia Partnoy, 1999-03-01 In a prison cell in Latin America a woman is trying to remember every single poem she has ever written begins Alicia Partnoy in the introduction to Revenge of the Apple her collection of intimately powerful poems written before her disappearance in Argentina in prison and in exile in the United States Her wrists no longer bound she is now free to dance around this nine by six cell to wash her hands and enjoy the privilege of her own toilet and to read the messages scratched into the walls with the bottom edges of toothpaste tubes Most importantly her captors have given her a precious pen and a brand new notebook Revenge of the apple Alicia Partnoy, 1992

Of Captivity and Resistance Sharmila Purkayastha, 2023-09-21 Of Captivity and Resistance offers a historical and political study of women's experiences of dissent and detention in postcolonial India Primarily focusing on the Naxalite movement 1967-75 and on the pan Indian period of Emergency 1975-77 the study traces women's political participation in revolutionary movements and in dissident politics and attends to their experiences of torture and incarceration Simultaneously by drawing on the varied histories of women's incarceration before and after the long seventies the book provides an expanded terrain for evaluating the gendered dimensions of radical politics and of testimonial literature on carceral state violence and impunity The analysis focuses on women's transformation from marginal political participants to resistant detainees By studying the linkages between radical politics captivity and resistance the book offers a widened account of women's political participation contributes to contemporary debates on political incarceration and strengthens the resistant history of rights and of dissenting literature in India and in the Global South Displaced Memories M. Edurne Portela, 2009 Displaced Memories analyzes the representation of traumatic memories political imprisonment torture survival and exile in the literary works of Alicia Kozameh Alicia Partnoy and Nora Strejilevich survivors of Argentina's Dirty War 1976-1983 Beginning with an examination of the history of Argentina's last dictatorship the conditions that led the authors to exile and the contexts in which the texts were published Portela provides the theoretical tools for the understanding of narratives of trauma and displacement caused by political violence The author proposes a theory that critiques post structuralist paradigms of trauma which present trauma as an unclaimed experience impossible to apprehend as she argues for an analysis of the symbolic uses of language presenting trauma as a claimed experience that can be brought into representation and therefore create the conditions of possibility for working through language research from English Profile and the Cambridge Learner Corpus Prepare to sections develop writing and speaking skills A Student s Book and Online Workbook is also available separately Mothers Under Fire: Mothering in Conflict Areas Tatjana Takseva,2015-07-01 Mothers Under Fire Mothering in Conflict Areas examines the experiences of women mothering in conflict areas The aim of this collection is to engage with the nature and meaning of motherhood and mothering during times of war and or in zones experiencing the threat of war The essays in the collection reflect diverse disciplinary perspectives through which scholars and field practitioners reveal how conflict shapes mothering practices One of the unique contributions of the collection is that it highlights not only the particular difficulties mothers face in various geographic locations where conflict has been prevalent but also the ways in which mothers display agency to challenge and negotiate the circumstances that oppress them The collection raises awareness of the needs of women and children in areas affected by military and or political violence worldwide and provides a basis for developing multiple policy frameworks aimed at improving existing systems of support in local contexts Kristen P Williams Clark University The Jewish Diaspora in Latin America and the Caribbean Kristin Ruggiero,2010-04-07 Provides a view of Jewish experiences through history literature painting anthropology poetry sociology and politics This title explores and celebrates what it means to have and live memories of an individual and a collective Jewishness and reveals the historical fragments of the Jewish experience in Latin America and the Caribbean Disappearing Acts Diana Taylor,1997 Taylor uses performance theory to explore how public spectacle both builds and dismantles a sense of national and gender identity Here nation is understood as a product of communal imaginings that are rehearsed written and staged and spectacle is the desiring machine at work in those imaginings Taylor argue that the founding scenario of Argentineness stages the struggle for national identity as a battle between men fought on over and through the feminine body of the Motherland She shows how the military s representations of itself as the model of national authenticity established the parameters of the conflict in the 70s and 80s feminized the enemy and positioned the public limiting its ability to respond Historical Dictionary of the Dirty Wars David Kohut,Olga Vilella,2016-11-16 The Historical Dictionary of the Dirty Wars coversthe period 1954 1990 in South America when authoritarian regimes waged war on subversion both real and imagined The term dirty war guerra sucia though originally associated with the military dictatorship in Argentina from 1976 to 1983 has since been applied to neighboring dictatorships in Paraguay 1954 1989 Brazil 1964 1985 Bolivia 1971 1981 Uruguay 1973 1985 and Chile 1973 1990 Although the concept is by no means peculiar to Latin America the term has become a byword for state sponsored repression anywhere in the world these regimes were among its most notorious practitioners In the mid 1970s they joined forces along with Ecuador and Peru to create Operation Condor a top secret network of military dictatorships that kidnapped tortured and disappeared one another s political opponents Their death squads operated both nationally and internationally sometimes beyond the region This third edition of Historical Dictionary of the Dirty Wars contains a chronology an introduction

appendixes and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 400 cross referenced entries on the countries themselves guerrilla and political movements that provoked though by no means exonerated governmental reaction leading guerrilla human rights military and political figures local regional and international human rights organizations expressions of cultural resistance art film literature music and theater and artistic figures filmmakers novelists and playwrights whose works attempted to represent or resist the period of repression This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about the dirty wars of South America

After Exile Amy K. Kaminsky, 1999 Can an exiled writer ever really go home again What of the writers of Argentina Uruguay and Chile whose status as exiles in the 1970s and 1980s largely defined their identities and subject matter After Exile takes a critical look at these writers at the effect of exile on their work and at the complexities of homecoming a fraught possibility when democracy was restored to each of these countries Both famous and lesser known writers people this story of dislocation and relocation among them Jose Donoso Ana Vasquez Luisa Valenzuela Cristina Peri Rossi and Mario Benedetti In their work and their predicament Amy K Kaminsky considers the representation of both physical uprootedness and national identity or more precisely an individual's identity as a national subject Here national identity is not the double abstraction of identity and nation but a person's sense of being and belonging that derives from memories and experiences of a particular place Because language is crucial to this connection Kaminsky explores the linguistic isolation miscommunication and multilingualism that mark late exile and post exile writing She also examines how gender difference affects the themes and rhetoric of exile how for example traditional projections of femininity such as the idea of a mother country are used to allegorize exile Describing exile as a process sometimes of acculturation sometimes of alienation this work fosters a new understanding of how writers live and work in relation to space and place particularly the place called home

Taking Risks Julie Shayne, 2014-01-01 Explores activist scholarship in relation to feminist and social movements in the Americas Taking Risks offers a creative interdisciplinary approach to narrating the stories of activist scholarship by women The essays are based on the textual analysis of interviews oral histories ethnography video storytelling and theater The contributors come from many disciplinary backgrounds including theater history literature sociology feminist studies and cultural studies The topics range from the underground library movement in Cuba femicide in Ju rez community radio in Venezuela video archives in Colombia exiled feminists in Canada memory activism in Argentina sex worker activists in Brazil rural feminists in Nicaragua to domestic violence organizations for Latina immigrants in Texas Each essay addresses two themes telling stories and taking risks The authors understand women activists across the Americas as storytellers who along with the authors themselves work to fill the Latin American and Caribbean studies archives with histories of resistance In addition to sharing the activists stories the contributors weave in discussions of scholarly risk taking to speak to the challenges and importance of elevating the storytellers and their histories Julie Shayne took a risk with this book and the result is impressive By challenging the activism research divide that US academics so often sustain the authors in this collection challenge epistemological as well as national race class age and gender boundaries Taking Risks is a must read for researchers and students alike Amy Lind editor of Development Sexual Rights and Global Governance

Negative Emotions and Transitional Justice Mihaela Mihai, 2016-03-22 Vehement resentment and indignation are pervasive in societies emerging from dictatorship or civil conflict How can institutions channel these emotions without undermining the prospects for democracy Emphasizing the need to recognize and constructively engage negative public emotions Mihaela Mihai contributes theoretically and practically to the growing field of transitional justice Drawing on an extensive philosophical literature and case studies of democratic transitions in South Africa South America and Eastern Europe her book rescues negative emotions from their bad reputation and highlights the obstacles and the opportunities such emotions create for democracy By valorizing negative emotions either through the judicial review of transitional justice bills or the criminal trials of victimizers institutions realize the value of respect and concern for all while contributing to a culture that is hospitable to democracy

Third World Women's Literatures Barbara Fister, 1995-09-14 This reference volume serves as a companion to Third World women's literatures in English and in English translation by presenting entries on works writers and themes Entries are chosen to present a balance of well known writers and emerging ones contemporary as well as historical writers and representative selections of genres literary styles and themes What plays have been written by women in the developing world What books have been written by Sri Lankan or Brazilian women Which works address themes of feminism or exile or politics in the Third World These are the types of questions that can now be answered through Fister's companion to Third World women's literatures in English and English translation Organized alphabetically this reference volume presents entries on works writers and themes Entries are chosen to present a balance of well known writers and emerging ones contemporary as well as historical writers and representative selections of genres literary styles and themes By providing information about and leads to works by and about Third World women an important and largely marginalized literature Fister has created a unique reference tool that will help teachers scholars and librarians both public and academic expand their definitions of the literary making the voices of Third World women available in the same format in which many companions to Western literature do An important book for all public and college level libraries
