Though Avon erases all of his memories from Nancy's mind she feels restlessness all the time like something is missing from her life. Feeling sorry and guilty at her sister's plight, Lisa starts to distance herself from Avon. While Sophia again breaks free from the prison, Mr Johnson and others start to fear for the safety of the girls. But when Avon's company's annual event comes along, they throw caution to the wind as Geena plans their event site in the middle of a forest. With others pairing among themselves, Geena pairs Avon and Nancy in a team to take part in the event. As the pair of them navigates through the trees and bushes, Nancy loses her balance and hurts her knees. Left with no other option, Avon lifts her on his back as the two of them continue with their task. After walking for a fair distance, they hear Geena, Lisa, and the rest of the group screaming with fear. Nancy asks Avon to hurry up when Avon sits her atop a giant to go and look for himself. Sophia comes out of the blue and greets Nancy while Nancy fears for her life. Sophia reveals to her that Avon is the one whom she loves, who is also the masked man that saves her time, and again Nancy finds Avon killing other goons. Once he comes back, she slaps him hard across the face as she demands him to give her memories back. Once the event gets over and all of them return home, Nancy locks herself inside her room. She is upset and angry with Avon for what he has done to her. After everyone fails, Mr Johnson manages to convince Nancy for a discussion where he reveals to her how much Avon loves her. Nancy realizes her mistake and goes to Avon's place to work everything out between them. Even Lisa sacrifices her feelings to permit her to go and get her love. With much difficulty and twisted methods, Nancy gets Avon to confess his love for her as the two pledge to support each other for the rest of their lives. While everything is looking nice and rosy, Nancy receives a letter by post that even surprises her. As she reads the content, her hands and knees start to go weak. She frantically tries to make her way out, but Avon stops her and asks for tagging along with her. Left with no other option, Nancy agrees to take him as they head for the bank. While Avon stays back trying to find a suitable spot to park, Nancy walks into the bank and makes her way to the fifth floor. As soon as she slides her cards to open the locker, a few portals open up. Though Avon fights off most of them, a chain comes through the portal which wraps around his leg and drags him inside it, closing the portal behind him. Nancy spots another version of herself running towards her to stop her to open the locker. As the gravity of her mistakes set in, another Nancy starts blaming herself for not fixing up everything again.
