Soviet and Post-Soviet Sexualities Richard C.M. Mole, 2019-01-23 Despite Soviet Russia having been one of the first major powers to decriminalise homosexual acts between men attitudes towards lesbian gay bisexual and transgender LGBT people in contemporary Russia and the other post Soviet states have become increasingly hostile with the introduction of laws restricting their rights and an increase in homophobic violence This book explores how this situation has come about It discusses how meanings attached to non heteronormative sexualities have been constructed for specific socio political purposes by elites in line with Marxist Leninist or nationalist thought explores how attitudes to non normative sexualities developed historically and examines the current situation in the post Soviet space including Russia Transcaucasia Central Asia and the Baltic States The book provides a wealth of detail on this understudied subject and assesses how LGBT subjects are responding to this state of affairs

Alternative Development Cathrine Brun, Piers Blaikie, 2016-03-23 This book brings together a collection of essays that discuss alternative development and its relevance for local global processes of marginalization and change in the Global South Alternative development questions who the producers of development knowledges and practices are and aims at decentring development and geographical knowledge from the Anglo American centre and the Global North It involves resistance to dominant political economic processes in order to further the possibilities for non exploitative and just forms of development By discussing how to unravel marginalization and voice change through alternative methods actors and concepts the book provides useful guidance on understanding the relationship between theory and practice The main strength of the book is that it calls for a central role for alternative development in the current development discourse most notably related to justice rights globalization forced migration conflict and climate change The book provides new ways of engaging with alternative development thinking and making development alternatives relevant

Migrant Citizenship from Below K. Shinozaki, 2015-05-06 Migrant Citizenship from Below explores the dynamic local and transnational lives of Filipina and Filipino migrant domestic workers living in Schenberg Germany Shinozaki examines their irregular migrant citizenship status from above which is produced by complex interactions between Germany's welfare care and migration regimes and the Philippines gendered politics of overseas employment Despite the predominant representation of these workers as invisible these spatially immobile migrants maintain sustained transnational engagements through parenting and religious practices Shinozaki studies the reverse gendered process of international reproductive labor migration in which women traveled first and were later joined by men Despite their structural vulnerability participant observations and biographical interviews with the migrants demonstrate that they enact and negotiate migrant citizenship in the workplace transnational households religious practices and through accessing health provisions

Human Security and Empowerment in Asia Mely Caballero-Anthony, Yoichi Mine, Sachiko Ishikawa, 2023-10-26 In the context of the COVID 19 pandemic this edited volume revisits the framework of human security and development It examines the protection empowerment nexus as applied to various vulnerable groups and populations affected by the pandemic While the conventional human security literature has focused on top down protection this book offers new perspectives on human security by exploring bottom up empowerment from both theoretical and practical perspectives It also encourages readers to rethink the agency of vulnerable people in addressing the challenges posed by the pandemic Through eight case studies from Southeast Asia and Japan the contributors to this book demonstrate the importance of empowerment in achieving human security They focus on the responses of vulnerable groups and communities to multiple threats to their lives livelihoods and dignity The chapters discuss key human security concerns such as poverty the environment food forced migration gender health aging peace and justice all of which have been compounded and exacerbated by the COVID 19 pandemic An essential resource for students and scholars of human security in the aftermath of COVID 19 and its wider impacts The Open Access version of this book available at www.taylorfrancis.com has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license Funded by JICA Ogata Sadako Research Institute for Peace and Development

The Feminist Economics of Trade Irene van Staveren, Diane Elson, Caren Grown, Nilufer Cagatay, 2012-08-06 Unravelling the complex relationship between gender inequality and trade this is the first book to combine the tools of economic and gender analysis to examine the relationship between international trade and gender relations It brings together fourteen contributions from a variety of economic perspectives including structuralist institutionalist neoclassical and Post Keynesian by a range of authors including Lourdes Bener a William Darity Marzia Fontana and Mariama Williams to demonstrate what feminist economics has contributed to the analysis of international trade through theoretical modelling econometric analysis and policy oriented contributions It includes evidence from industrialized semi industrialized and agrarian economies using country case studies and cross country analysis Arguing that trade expansion and reduction of gender inequality can be combined but only if an appropriate mix and sequence of trade and other economic policies is implemented this book is key reading for all students of international economics gender and cultural studies and politics and international relations amongst other disciplines Feminist

Perspectives on Politics Chris Corrin, 2014-07-10 Feminist Perspectives on Politics considers how feminist perspectives have considerably broadened the scope of what is considered political Themes and issues covered range from nineteenth century debates around women s equality and liberation to twentieth century arguments and activities towards gaining a more nuanced understanding of women s differences and diversity Difference remains a key term in contemporary feminisms and the author examines debates engendered from women s liberation politics to open up discussion of Black feminisms lesbian politics and disabled feminist agendas Formal political participation and the impact of women s movement politics are assessed in global comparisons as are the debates surrounding discourses on development and transnational politics and the influence of women at local national and international levels The book will be essential reading for students at all levels across the fields of Politics Women s Studies Sociology History Cultural Studies Political Economy and Development Studies more generally such as in studies concerned with anti racism gender social policy and the history of ideas within educational institutions local government and voluntary organisations Gender, Sexuality and Social Justice Silke Heumann, Camilo

Antillón Najlis, 2023-11-27 This book addresses the intersections of gender sexuality and social justice in relation to dominant development and policy discourses and interventions Bringing together young scholars from Latin America Africa and Asia the book challenges dominant assumptions on sexuality in development discourse policy and practice and proposes alternative approaches Reflecting on both the global north and the global south this book investigates key social justice issues from teenage pregnancy child marriage discourses sexual empowerment to sexual diversity female imprisonment and sexuality militarism and sexuality anti trafficking policies and processes of racialization and othering in the context of migration Overall the book challenges binary constructs and argues for an intersectional perspective on gender and sexual diversity as a problem of structural inequality that interacts with other systems of inequality based on race age class and geopolitics This book will be of interest to social scientists and activists as well as development scholars and practitioners engaging with questions of gender sexuality and social justice Gender and Lifecycles Caroline Sweetman, 2000 This book links gender issues to the life courses of women and men Writers here call for development policy and practice to recognise this vast contribution and enforce the rights of women of all ages to an equal share of development outcomes

Governing the Female Body Lori Reed, Paula Saukko, 2012-02-01 Drawing on Foucault's notion of governmentality this collection explores relations between the intimate governance of bodies and political governance. The contributors offer empirically grounded yet theoretically sophisticated case studies showing how gendered racialized and socioeconomic agendas structure medical and scientific practices. Developing and utilizing a poststructuralist feminist framework the chapters investigate emerging gendered discourses and practices around health such as breast cancer charities lifestyle genetic testing new reproductive technologies and the development and marketing of various psychotropic and hormonal drugs. This will be a key reader for anyone interested in the social implications of cutting edge medical technologies.

Central Eurasia in Global Politics Mehdi Amineh, Henk W. Houweling, 2005-05-01 This anthology brings together studies of post colonial post Cold War Central Eurasia. This part of the world is in transition from Soviet institutions to independent statehood nation building resistance against state expansion cultural change and the release of market forces. The theoretical framework of the study is called critical geopolitics. The objective of the work is to better comprehend the nature of the post colonial Great Game. Part I studies US power projection activity in the region. America is extending its World War II trans-oceanic defense perimeter into the fossil fuel rich area between integrating Europe recovering Russia and industrializing China. Part II details various aspects of state nation building and socio-cultural and economic change in the region. Part III studies interactions between outsiders neighbors and Central Asian Republics. Conflict and cooperation in the Caspian region is studied in part IV with Aral Sea and Azerbaijan as cases. This is the revised edition of the book that was published under the same title in 2004.

Citizenship and Statelessness in Sri Lanka Valli Kanapathipillai, 2009 Citizenship and Statelessness in Sri Lanka analyses the context of the agreement between the Sri Lankan and Indian government that led to the loss of citizenship of Indian Tamil estate workers in Sri Lanka. Kanapathipillai broadens the focus of scholarship in this area by examining the economic political and ideological issues that had a bearing on policy decisions.

Resistance in Everyday Life Nandita Chaudhary, Pernille Hviid, Giuseppina

Marsico, Jakob Waag Villadsen, 2017-07-10 This book is about resistance in everyday life illustrated through empirical contexts from different parts of the world Resistance is a widespread phenomenon in biological social and psychological domains of human cultural development Yet it is not well articulated in the academic literature and when it is resistance is most often considered counter productive Simple evaluations of resistance as positive or negative are avoided in this volume instead it is conceptualised as a vital process for human development and well being While resistance is usually treated as an extraordinary occurrence the focus here is on everyday resistance as an intentional process where new meaning constructions emerge in thinking feeling acting or simply living with others Resistance is thus conceived as a meaning making activity that operates at the intersection of personal and collective systems The contributors deal with strategies for handling dissent by individuals or groups specifically dissent through resistance Resistance can be a location of intense personal interpersonal and cultural negotiation and that is the primary reason for interest in this phenomenon Ordinary life events contain innumerable instances of agency and resistance This volume discusses their manifestations and it is therefore of interest for academics and researchers of cultural psychology cultural studies anthropology sociology and human development Tracking Gender Equity Under Economic Reforms Swapna Mukhopadhyay, Ratna M. Sudarshan, 2003 Contributed articles on women employees in economic development process in South Asia
