Reveurs Du Desert Aborigines Dasutral:

The Dead Do Not Die Sven Lindqvist, 2014-06-03 Sven Lindqvist is one of our most original writers on race colonialism and genocide and his signature approach uniting travelogues with powerful acts of historical excavation renders his books devastating and unforgettable Now for the first time Lindqvist's most beloved works are available in one beautiful and affordable volume with a new introduction by Adam Hochschild The Dead Do Not Die includes the full unabridged text of Exterminate All the Brutes called a book of stunning range and near genius by David Levering Lewis In this work Lindqvist uses Joseph Conrad's Heart of Darkness as a point of departure for a haunting tour through the colonial past retracing the steps of Europeans in Africa from the late eighteenth century onward and thus exposing the roots of genocide via his own journey through the Saharan desert The full text of Terra Nullius is also included for which Lindqvist traveled 7 000 miles through Australia in search of the lands the British had claimed as their own because it was inhabited by lower races the native Aborigines nearly nine tenths of whom were annihilated by whites The shocking story of how no man's land became the province of the white man was called the most original work on Australia and its treatment of Aborigines I have ever read marvelous by Phillip Knightley author of Australia

Car Cultures Daniel Miller, 2020-05-26 Anyone who assumes that a car is simply a means to get from point A to point B or who even thinks that they know what a car is should read this book Profoundly shaped by culture the car gives rise to a wide range of emotions from guilt about the environment in the UK to aboriginal concerns with car corpses to struggles to keep the creatures alive with everything but the proper spare parts in West Africa Cars and their landscapes prove central to human life from its most intimate to the widest sense of global crisis and are capable of inspiring epic passions From road rage in Western Europe to the struggles of cab driving in Africa to the emergence of Black identity in the US this book examines the essential humanity of the car which includes the jealousies gender differences fears and moralities that cars give rise to Firmly grounded in detailed ethnographic and historical scholarship this is the first book to provide an informed sense of cars as one of the most familiar and significant forms of material culture The Guattari Effect Eric Alliez, Andrew Goffey, 2011-06-30 The Guattari Effect brings together internationally renowned experts on the work of the French psychoanalyst philosopher and political activist Félix Guattari with philosophers psychoanalysts sociologists anthropologists and artists who have been influenced by Guattari's thought Best known for his collaborative work with Gilles Deleuze Guattari's own writings are still a relatively unmined resource in continental philosophy Many of his books have not yet been translated into English Yet his influence has been considerable and far reaching This book explores the full spectrum of Guattari's work reassessing its contemporary significance and giving due weight to his highly innovative contributions to a variety of fields including linguistics economics pragmatics ecology aesthetics and media theory Readers grappling with the ideas of contemporary continental philosophers such as Badiou Žižek and Rancière will at last be able to see Guattari as the extraordinary philosopher Deleuze claimed him to be with his distinctive radical ideas about the epoch of global deterritorialization we live in today forged within the practical contexts of revolutionary politics and the materialist critique of psychoanalysis

Experimental Film and Anthropology Arnd Schneider, Caterina Pasqualino, 2020-05-12 Experimental Film and Anthropology urges a new dialogue between two seemingly separate fields The book explores the practical and theoretical challenges arising from experimental film for anthropology and vice versa through a number of contact zones trance emotions and the senses materiality and time non narrative content and montage Experimental film and cinema are understood in this book as broad inclusive categories covering many technical formats and historical traditions to investigate the potential for new common practices An international range of renowned anthropologists film scholars and experimental film makers engage in vibrant discussion and offer important new insights for all students and scholars involved in producing their own films This is indispensable reading for students and scholars in a range of disciplines including anthropology visual anthropology visual culture and film and media studies Australian Aboriginal Studies, 2005

A World of Relationships Sylvie Poirier, 2005-01-01 Drawing on her three years of field work in the Balgo Hills during the 1980s and on recent ethnographic literature Poirier anthropology U Laval Quebec explains dialectical aspects of Australian Aboriginal social and cosmological realities She focuses on the relations among the ancestral order the land and human and non human agencies Ann

Indigenising Anthropology with Guattari and Deleuze Barbara Glowczewski, 2019-09-27 This collection of essays charts the intellectual trajectory of Barbara Glowczewski an anthropologist who has worked with the Warlpiri people of Australia since 1979 Inspired by the art and struggles of different Indigenous people and other discriminated groups especially women she delivers a radical anthropology Australian National Bibliography, 1978

Pacific Answers to Western Hegemony Jürg Wassmann, 2020-09-02 The destruction of local identity through the relentless encroachment of a McDonaldized cultural imperialism is a global phenomenon Yet the reactions of Pacific peoples to this Western hegemony are diverse and encourage the creation of independent cultural identities through sports and games political mediations tourism media and filmmaking and the struggles for land rights and titles particularly in Australia This book based on extensive fieldwork addresses a subject of great immediacy to peoples of the Pacific Island nations It fills an important gap in existing ethnographic literature on the region and confidently navigates what had previously been considered uncharted even unchartable waters that wide sea between the classic ethnography of Oceania and contemporary anthropology's theoretical concerns with global relations and transnational cultures Its breadth rigour and timely contribution to post colonial politics in Oceania are certain to ensure that this book will provide an enduring contribution to the field

People and Things Monique Jeudy-Ballini,Bernard Juillerat,2002 This book is a collection of eleven essays each of which analyzes one or more forms of gift giving exchange or ritual use of objects in societies of Polynesia Melanesia and Australia As considered in these essays objects used in exchange relationships have the capacity to mediate individual relationships and relationships among groups as well as relationships between men and spirits By objects authors Jeudy Ballini and Juillerat mean both the utilitarian and the religious including shell currency animals plants sacred drinks even enemy heads or imaginary goods These objects may serve as compensation for services rendered or for women received in marriage indeed the object of exchange may be another woman An object may also be kept in reserve as a precious relic or capitalized as ceremonial gift Elsewhere the object of exchange may be received from a god or presented as an offering to spirits of the dead In every case it is the incarnation of an identity individual or collective Contributors to the volume include Francoise Douaire Marsaudon Serge Tcherkezoff Barbara Glowczewski Barker Marika Moisseeff Brigitte Derlon Maurice Godelier Piere Lemonnier Stephane Breton Alban Bensa and the editors An excellent collection of essays Local ethnographic cases are enriched with comparative and historical materials The essays offer important new ways to understand relationships between people and objects in rich ethnographic detail ANTHROPOS 2003 People and Things offers a wealth of provocative case materials The Contemporary Pacific T he collection does an excellent job in demonstrating the important contribution of French anthropology to an understanding of gift exchange objects and persons The Australian Journal of Anthropology 16 2 2005

The Changing South Pacific Serge Tcherkézoff,Françoise Douaire-Marsaudon,2008-12-01 The texts collected in this volume take an anthropological approach to the variety of contemporary societal problems which confront the peoples of the contemporary South Pacific religious revival the sociology of relations between local groups regions and nation States the problem of culture areas the place of democracy in the transition of States founded on sacred chiefdoms the role of ceremonial exchanges in a market economy and so forth Each chapter presents a society seen from a specific point of view but always with reference to the issue of collective identity and its confrontation with history and change The collection thus invites the reader to understand how the inhabitants of these societies seek to affirm both an individual identity and a sense of belonging to the contemporary world In doing so it informs the reader about the contemporary realities experienced by the inhabitants of the South Pacific with a view to contributing to an intercultural dialogue between the reader and these inhabitants
