given at the International Conference on Administrative Justice held in Bristol in 1997 Forty years after the publication of the Franks Committee report on Tribunals and Inquiries the conference reflected on developments since then and sought to provoke debate about how the future might unfold Participants included policy makers tribunal chairs and ombudsmen other decision takers as well as academics a formidable combination of expertise in the operation of the administrative justice system Among the themes addressed in the papers are the following the effect of the changing nature of the state on current institutions human rights and administrative justice the relationship between decision taking reviews of decisions and the adjudication of appeals and the overview of administrative justice taking into account lessons from abroad The new millenium provides an opportunity for the reappraisal of the British system of administrative justice this volume presents an indispenable repository of the ideas needed to understand how that system should develop over the coming years

Encountering Freud Paul Roazen, 2011-12-31 In this volume Paul Roazen examines different national responses to Freud and the beginnings of psychoanalysis He examines Freud s work in the contexts of law society and class as well as other forms of psychology Encountering Freud includes a brilliant essay on Freud and the question of psychoanalysis contribution to radical thought in contrast to the conservative tradition Roazen takes up the extravagant claims of Marcuse and Reich and sees the risks of then overglamorization of the beginnings of psychoanalysis as a profession Roazen views the legacies of Harry Stack Sullivan Helene Deutsch and Erik H Erikson as less rich because their work conformed to the social status quo He sees Freud s inability to avoid an ambiguous outcome as a lack of concern with normality and a refusal to own up to the wide variety of psychological solutions he found both therapeutically tolerable and humanly desirable Roazen concludes with a series of explorations on the dichotomies Freud left behind clinical discoveries versus philosophical standpoints the relationship of normality to nihilism and a defense of a therapeutic setting based on trained specialists versus a therapeutic approach encouraging self expression This is a volume that utilizes a sharp focus on Freud and his followers and dissenters to explore the question of political psychology at one end and psych history at the other end of analysis
