The Farewell Discourses in Practice John Vincent,2019-08-26 Practice Interpretation takes the everyday social conditions of people as they are described in the Bible and looks at emerging issues that confront today s interpreters in daily life This volume in the Practice Interpretation series deals with the Farewell Discourses of Jesus in the Gospel of John The key element and dynamic in the Johannine practice reflections in this volume is that John s Gospel sometimes explicitly often implicitly sets forth a continuing Jesus style practice by Jesus followers in the gospel time in the longer term behaviour of early Christian communities and in contemporary Christian disciples and communities today Each contributor indicates this at work in very different contexts and happenings The contributors are Leslie Francis David Blatherwick Sarah Pullin David McLoughlin Ian Wallis Nirmal Fernando John Vincent and Alan Saxby

Psychological Perspectives on Religious Education Leslie J. Francis,2020-02-03 In this monograph Leslie J Francis reviews and assesses the contributions made by the individual differences tradition of psychology over the past 50 years to research in religious education In this context religious education is conceived broadly to embrace what takes place in schools within religious communities and within households across the age span Topics include the centrality of the attitudinal dimension of religion the place of personality in the individual differences tradition sex as a core individual difference in religion the consequences of individual differences in religious affect the role of church schools and the role of the family in religious nurture the factors that account for individual differences in attitude toward religious diversity the relevance of the individual differences tradition for adult religious education the implications of the individual differences tradition for biblical hermeneutics and discipleship learning

Canadian Prairie Mennonite Ministers' Use of Scripture Donald Stoesz,2018-02-16 A chance discovery of a log book of sermons by grand uncle and Evangelical Mennonite Mission Conference minister Cornelius G Stoesz led Donald Stoesz on a fifteen year odyssey in which he identified four hundred and fifty seven Scripture texts used by seventeen Mennonite ministers in Canada over the course of one hundred years 1874 1977 The extensive yet selective use of the Lutheran lectionary by these ministers illuminates an aspect of Mennonite church life that has seldom been recognized Known as the Anweisung der Lieder and located at the front of the German language hymnbook Gesangbuch this lectionary was in use by Mennonite congregations in the 18th and 19th centuries in Prussia and Russia Stoesz details Scripture usage and arranges sermon texts according to method of selection and topic Included in this analysis are biographies of three pastors and several translated sermons from 1 Peter The Living Church ,1994-07 This United Church of Ours Ralph Milton,2000 Except for Bibles and hymnbooks no other book has been read and appreciated by as many United Church people From what to wear and where to sit at church to theology and ethics Ralph Milton covers it all with his signature easygoing style Updated with new statistics and expanded to reflect a church that is reconciling the past and celebrating the future this third edition is both informative and revealing and just in time for The United Churchs 75th Anniversary celebrations If you think you already know the church you will be surprised at what you have taken for granted If you are just beginning your faith journey this book provides an opportunity to discover the rich inclusive community that is The United Church of Canada The new in bound 12 session study guide contains tips for starting a study group discussion questions and preaching ideas for pastors Introducing Christian Ministry Leadership William D. M. Carrell,2022-10-17 The demand for integrity genuine spirituality exemplary character and competent skills among ministry leaders has never been greater This book introduces students and beginning practitioners to the theological and practical elements that make for healthy leadership and leaders in Christian ministry How ministry leaders understand who God is and who they themselves are governs every aspect of their work and well being and how they understand the nature of the church and their role as ministry leaders forms their sense of purpose and identity This book is written from the perspective of ministry leadership in Christian traditions with congregational polity but there is much that applies to ministry leadership in all Christian traditions The text introduces terms ideas and skills foundational for getting started in ministry leadership and for more advanced study in each area Most importantly the book integrates biblical historical and theological reflection with the description of practical skills demonstrating how students themselves can think theologically about ministry leadership Thinking clearly about context calling and character provides the perspective from which to understand the essential practices of ministry leadership and to conduct them with integrity Making Your Way to the Pulpit Jerrilee Parker Lewallen,William Hoover Hethcock,2010-10-15 This volume deals with the varied forms of shame reflected in biblical theological psychological and anthropological sources Although traditional theology and church practice concentrate on providing forgiveness for shameful behavior recent scholarship has discovered the crucial relevance of social shame evoked by mental status adversity slavery abuse illness grief and defeat Anthropologists sociologists and psychologists have discovered that unresolved social shame is related to racial and social prejudice to bullying crime genocide narcissism post traumatic stress and other forms of toxic behavior Eleven leaders in this research participated in a conference on The

Shame Factor sponsored by St Mark s United Methodist Church in Lincoln NE in October 2010 Their essays explore the impact and the transformation of shame in a variety of arenas comprising in this volume a unique and innovative resource for contemporary religion therapy ethics and social analysis Guidelines Worship Cokesbury,2016-11-15 The worship ministry of the local church is often the first if not only entry point for people seeking to establish a relationship with God in a Christian community The ways in which we worship and honor God set a tone for the overall ministry of the church This Guideline is designed to help implement and guide the work of the ministry area This is one of the twenty six Guidelines for Leading Your Congregation 2017 2020 that cover church leadership areas including Church Council and Small Membership Church the administrative areas of Finance and Trustees and ministry areas focused on nurture outreach and witness including Worship Evangelism Stewardship Christian Education age level ministries Communications and more
