Haen,1990 Avery Index to Architectural Periodicals, 1995 Avery Library,1997-02 The Architectural Models of Theodore Conrad Teresa Fankhänel,2021-06-17 Based on the recent discovery of his fully preserved private archive models photos letters business files and drawings this book tells the story of Theodore Conrad 1910 1994 the most prominent and prolific architectural model maker of the 20th century Conrad s innovative models were instrumental in the design and realization of many icons of American Modernism from the Rockefeller Center to Lever House and the Seagram Building He revolutionized the production of architectural models and became a model making entrepreneur in his own right Yet despite his success and the well known buildings he helped to create until now little has been known about Conrad s work and his impact on 20th century architectural history With exclusive access to Conrad s archive as well as that of model photographer Louis Checkman both of which have lain undiscovered in private storage for decades this book examines Conrad s work and legacy accompanied by case studies of his major commissions and full color photographs of his works Set against the backdrop of the surge in model making in the 1950s and 1960s which Jane Jacobs called The Miniature Boom it explores how Conrad s models prompt broader scholarly questions about the nature of authorship in architecture the importance of craftsmanship and about the translation of architectural ideas between different media The book ultimately presents an alternative history of American modern architecture highlighting the often overlooked influence of architectural models and their makers Arts & Humanities Citation Index ,1992 Progressive Architecture ,1989 Museums in the German Art World from the End of the Old Regime to the Rise of Modernism James J. Sheehan,2000 The first study of its kind this book will appeal to historians museum professionals and anyone interested in the relationship between art politics and culture BOOK JACKET Frankfurt In Your Pocket , Mediated Messages Véronique Patteeuw,Léa-Catherine Szacka,2018-06-14 Mediated Messages presents a collection of original writing exploring the role played by the media in the development of postmodern architecture in the 1970s and 80s The book's twelve chapters and case studies examine a range of contemporary periodicals and exhibitions to explore their role in the postmodern This focus on mediation as a key feature of architectural post modernism and the recognition that post modernism grew out of developments in the media opens up the possibility of an important new account of post modernism distinct from existing narratives Accompanied by a contextualizing introduction the essays are arranged across four thematic sections covering images international postmodernisms high and low culture and postmodern architects as theorists and present a range of case studies with a genuinely international scope Altogether this work makes a substantial contribution to the historical account of architectural postmodernism and will be of great interest to researchers in postmodernism as well as those examining the role of the media in architectural history

Contemporary Architects
Ann Lee Morgan, Colin Naylor, 1987 To strengthen the contemporary focus of this volume we have added about forty architects and have deleted some whose activity ceased before World War II In making these decisions we have been assisted by an Advisory Board As in the first volume we have continued to define the word architect very broadly so as to include planners theorists structural engineers and landscape architects whose work seems to be central to the enterprise of creating habitable spaces in our day Editor's note SOM Journal, 2003
