Revisioning The Church Ecclesial Freedom In The New Paradigm:

Revisioning the Church Peter Crafts Hodgson, 1988 This book embraces a wide spectrum of contemporary movements filters them through the biblical record and produces a model of the church that can make an impact and last for a long time It is excellent for scholars pastors and congregational study Carl S Dudley McCormick Theological Seminary Chicago Illinois

Ecclesiology and Postmodernity Gerard Mannion, 2017-01-13 What in the world is postmodernity Is it the dominant reality today If it is what does it mean to be a church in a postmodern world It seems that the church had a difficult time coming to terms with a modern world an era ruled by the claims of scientific certainty Having done so more or less it is now confronted by the claims of postmodernity which seem to reverse the whole equation to say that certainty and objectivity are chimeras What is truth Pilate asked and postmodernity at least as caricatured by its opponents responds There s no such thing Gerard Mannion in Ecclesiology and Postmodernity addresses the situation of the church in a postmodern world The fundamental changes in human society and culture wrought by the twentieth century require the church to consider its response in the twenty first century What is the church s moral Vision how does its practice look what is the nature of its aspiration toward holiness in our times Mannion believes that since Vatican II the Catholic Church has been in a kind of limbo awaiting a Vision of its own life for the future Rather than focusing on specific controversies Mannion offers concrete suggestions about how the church can create a better harmony between its own self understanding its ecclesiological Vision and its day to day life its ecclesial practice Gerard Mannion PhD educated at King s College Cambridge University and New College Oxford University is Associate Professor of Ecclesiology and Ethics in the Department of Theology and Religious Studies at Liverpool Hope University UK He is also the director of Church In Our Times Centre for the Study of Contemporary Ecclesiology co director of the Applied Ethics Initiative at Liverpool Hope co chair of the AAR American Academy of Religion Ecclesiological Investigations Program Unit and co ordinator of the Ecclesiological Investigations International Research Network Mannion is the author of Schopenhauer Religion and Morality and co editor of Readings in Church Authority Gifts and Challenges for Contemporary Catholicism both published by Ashgate in 2003 and co editor of the forthcoming volumes The Routledge Companion to the Christian Church and Catholic Social Justice Theological and Practical Explorations

A Reader in Ecclesiology Bryan P. Stone, 2016-03-16 This Reader presents a diverse and ecumenical cross section of ecclesiological statements from across the twenty centuries of the church s existence It builds on the foundations of early Christian writings illustrates significant medieval reformation and modern developments and provides a representative look at the robust attention to ecclesiology that characterizes the contemporary period This collection of readings offers an impressive overview of the multiple ways Christians have understood the church to be both the body of Christ and at the same time an imperfect social and historical institution constantly subject to change and reflective of the cultures in which it is found This comprehensive survey of historical ecclesiologies is helpful in pointing readers to the remarkable number of images and metaphors that Christians have relied upon in describing the church and to the various tensions that have characterized reflection on the church as both united and diverse community and institution visible and invisible triumphant and militant global and local one and many Students clergy and all interested in Christianity and the church will find this collection an invaluable resource Koinonia and the Quest for an Ecumenical Ecclesiology Lorelei F. Fuchs, 2008 The word koinonia has gained prominence in recent ecumenical discussions In this original and substantial work Lorelei Fuchs proposes the theological idea of koinonia commonly translated as communion or fellowship as the key to moving fractured churches toward a future unity Fuchs challenges churches to move beyond mere dialogue and to apply ecumenical insights at the local level She begins by relating the exegetical meaning of koinonia to its ecumenical meaning tracing the place of koinonia both within the churches and between the churches She then examines the concept of koinonia in the extensive and fruitful dialogues that have taken place between Lutherans Anglicans and Roman Catholics finally articulating a symbolic competence for communionality that provides a rich and workable way forward for church unity at all levels Encompassing the latest in ecumenical thought Koinonia and the Quest for an Ecumenical Ecclesiology provides a broad thoughtful framework for realizing Christ's prayer that all may be one so that the world may believe Pastoral Care in Context John Patton, 2005-02-18 An expert in the field of pastoral care John Patton demonstrates that pastoral care is a ministry of the church He focuses on the community of faith as an authorizer and source of care and upon the relationship between the pastor and a caring community Patton identifies and compares three paradigms of pastoral care the classical the clinical pastoral and the communal contextual This third paradigm emphasizes the caring community and the various contexts for care rather than focusing on pastoral care as the work of the ordained pastor The Arts of Ministry Christie Cozad Neuger, 1996-01-01 Offering the most relevant effective and transformative approaches to ministry as it develops a feminist and womanist practical theology this book brings together the best in feminist and womanist scholarship that deals with the work of ministry in a one volume format Summer Sermons, Winter Thoughts Peter C. Hodgson, 2018-05-31 The summer sermons have been delivered in the Presbyterian Church of Eagles Mere Pennsylvania over a period of fifteen years When someone first arrives in Eagles Mere for the summer people ask how their winter has been winter meaning the whole time that has elapsed since the previous summer In the author's case winter means Nashville Tennessee where he has lived since 1965 when he joined the faculty of Vanderbilt Divinity School retiring after thirty eight years Winter Thoughts consists of autobiographical reflections on three topics lives theologies and politics The lives are those of Peter and Eva Hodgson The longest section Theologies describes the various influences and directions the author's work has taken in systematic and historical theology Politics reflects on the decline of the liberal democratic consensus The whole is loosely held together by an underlying question How is God efficaciously present in history without violating the fabric of history Reformed Reader George Stroup, 2002-02-01 This volume demonstrates a central conviction of the Reformed tradition that theology must honor the historic witness of the church as catholic while being faithful to the new tasks of the present day church It offers selections from Reformed theology creeds confessions and church documents of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries

The Story That Chooses Us George R. Hunsberger, 2015-04-09 Over the course of several decades missiologist George Hunsberger has written numerous essays on crucial themes for the church's recovery of its missional identity and practice The Story That Chooses Us brings these essays together for the first time The book as a whole presents a composite sense of the missional identity and faithful witness to which the church is called in contemporary Western society Hunsberger engages with well known missiologist Lesslie Newbigin throughout his work as he carefully discerns biblical and theological roots for a contemporary vision of missional theology The recurring themes in Hunsberger's essays provide both theological mooring and practical guidance for churches following Christ on the missional path

Winds of the Spirit Peter Crafts Hodgson, 1994-01-01 Contextual theology postmodernism and theology

The Community of the Weak Hans-Peter Geiser, 2013-03-28 Social postmodernism and systematic theology can be considered the new pair in some of the most creative discussions on the future of theological method on a global scale Both in the academy and in the public square as well as in the manifold local and pastoral moments of ministry and community social activism the social the postmodern and the theological intermingle in engaging and border crossing ways The Community of the Weak presents a new kind of jazzy fundamental theology with a postmodern touch using jazz as a metaphor writing ethnographically messy texts out of the personal windows of lived experiences combining fragments of autobiography with theological reconstruction A comparative perspective on North American and European developments in contemporary systematic theology serves as a hermeneutical horizon to juxtapose two continents in their very different contexts The author proposes a systematic and fundamental theology that is more jazzy global and narrative deeply embedded in pastoral ministry to tell its postmodern story

The Lord Is the Spirit John A. Studebaker Jr., 2008-01-01 Although the doctrine and work of the Holy Spirit is no longer being ignored in theology as was often the case in centuries past the authority of the Spirit remains essentially undefined The need for such a definition however is urgent Some dangerous trends in the contemporary understanding of the Spirit have developed trends that can only be exposed through careful exegesis of Scripture and theological clarification Indeed some contemporary models often leave us with a nonauthoritative Spirit predisposed toward universalism experientialism or panentheism This work will attempt to show that the nature of the Holy Spirit's authority can be clearly defined through biblical and systematic theology When we investigate the Spirit's place within the pattern of divine authority as specified in Scripture we discover that the Holy Spirit indeed possesses a unique authority as divine Person Christ's Executor Teacher and Governor of the Church Such a work will be helpful for both the theologian and the pastor First definitions of the Spirit's authority will be developed through historical exegetical and theological analysis Then these definitions will be applied to specific church practices including hermeneutics church structure and guidance and Christian spirituality A response will also be given to those practical theologies that are subtly diminishing the Spirit's authority in relation to the contemporary church

The Power to Speak Rebecca S. Chopp, 2002-11-22 In a calm sustained style the author breaks new ground in the ongoing feminist theological pilgrimage one that will make traditionalists squirm and liberationists cheer Choice In The Power to Speak Rebecca Chopp offers an exhilarating defense of feminist theology as proclamation and good news for all Arguing for a critique and transformation of language subjectivity and politics this thoughtful engaged book opens new directions in feminist thought Elizabeth Fox Genovese A provocative treatment of feminist theology's deepest potential to transform the discipline through language WATERwheel Rebecca Chopp is developing an original theological position Her interpretation of Christian faith and Christian theology as having to do primarily with emancipatory transformation breaks through the individualistic pietism of modern liberalism as well as the provincialism of many of the liberation theologies

Gordon D Kaufman Ecclesiology for a Digital Church Heidi A Campbell, John Dyer, 2022-02-04 What are the ecclesiological challenges and opportunities raised by technology How have developments related to the COVID 19 global health crisis impacted churches forcing a swift move to mediated and online worship And how will this change the shape churches of theological and programmatic choices for years to come Drawing together a diverse group of theologians and media scholars this volume considers the key theological question churches and religious leaders need to engage with as they look towards long term strategies involving church life and technology Weaving the New Creation James W.

Fowler, 2001-02-20 The Solidarity of Others in a Divided World Anselm Kyongsuk Min, 2004-02-03 Using the paradigm of solidarity of others as the central theme of theology this book shows that it is possible to renew the doctrine of the Holy Spirit as the Spirit of solidarity and recapture the potential of the body of Christ as embodiment of this solidarity Living in the Margins Terry A. Veling, 2002-11-12 A gifted theologian sheds light on the meaning and value of intentional faith communities in the margins of parish life Go Preach! Brian K. Blount, 1998 Connecting the apocalyptic message of Mark's Gospel to principles and programs of socio cultural transformation in the life of the Black church today Blount begins his study of Mark by examining the social significance of Jesus proclamation of the coming Kingdom of God Through Jesus God's future power broke through to the human present This experience of the Kingdom empowered the disciples to Go preach the Kingdom message in word and deed to finish the story that Mark's narration about Jesus began Blount compares the situation of today's Black church to the situation in which the Gospel arose and explores the implications of apocalyptic theology for the pastoral mission of the Black church He demonstrates the value of a sociolinguistic approach to the scripture both in interpreting the text in its original context and in unpacking its meaning for today Confessing the Faith Douglas John Hall, This bold work culminates Hall's three volume contextual theology the first to take the measure of Christian belief and doctrine explicitly in light of North American cultural and historical experience Hall is deeply critical of North American culture but also of sidelined Christian churches that struggle to gain dominance within it We must stop thinking of the reduction of Christendom as a tragedy he says The disestablishment that the churches reluctantly enjoy can enable them to develop genuine community uncompromised theology and honest engagement with the larger culture To a failed culture and a struggling church Hall shows the radical implications of a theology of the cross for the shape and practice of church preaching ministry ethics and eschatology Hall s frank and prophetic volume is the trilogy s most practical and the most sustained probe to date of Christian life in a post Christian context Chalice Introduction to Disciples Theology Peter Heltzel,2008
