Nunn,1992-01-01 The quarter century from 1964 to 1989 was the time of the generals the most clearly defined era of military rule and influence in the history of Latin America The effects of this rule were most evident in Argentina Brazil Peru and Chile where French and German style military professionalism developed into professional militarism Frederick M Nunn shows that the mentality of Latin American generals is typical of a worldwide military ethos but that its application is unique in the context of individual countries In detailing the pervasiveness of this ethos worldwide Nunn enables a better understanding of the willingness of Latin American military leaders to intervene in government and of their activities once in power      Boletim bibliográfico da Bibliotheca Nacional do Rio de Janeiro ,1918      Yesterday's Soldiers Frederick M. Nunn,1983-01-01 Between 1980 and World War II South America experienced the unsettling first stages of modernization During this half century of economic political and social change the armies of Argentina Brazil Chile and Peru underwent a process of professionalization as European military missions transformed their officer corps into copies of French and German officialdom In so doing European officers inculcated their ideals and values thought and self perception their professionalism in countries historically vulnerable to militarism Based mainly on a comprehensive examination of European and South American military literature this study describes the significant contribution of European military professionalism to South American professional militarism Nunn not only details the workings of the French missions in Brazil and Peru and the German missions in Argentina and Chile but gives great emphasis to the themes and topics that most concerned the European mentors and their overseas disciples He demonstrates convincingly that much of their professional literature was based on a yearning for an idealized past discontent with an unsatisfactory present and apprehension about a future that might threaten the most cherished of traditional officer corps principles and aims The study ends with World War II yet is makes an important contribution to our understanding of South American history since 1940 The military organizations of the four countries considered here confronted what they perceived to be the major problems of their modernizing nations with solutions learned from their European teachers Since 1940 they have resorted to golpes de estado most notably the post 1964 institutional golpes in order to impose forcibly some of those same solutions Thus despite increased U S influence many of the programs implemented by military regimes in the latter half of this century bear the indelible stamp of yesterday s soldiers      Homenagem da Revista militar brasileira ao duque de Caxias ,1935      Journal of the United States Artillery ,1902      Urban Space and National Identity in Early Twentieth Century

Soldiers of the Pátria Frank D. McCann,2004 This book provides an authoritative history of the Brazilian army from the army s overthrow of the monarchy in 1889 to its support of the coup that established Brazil s first civilian dictatorship in 1937 The period between these two events laid the political foundations of modern Brazil a period in which the army served as the core institution of an expanding and modernizing Brazilian state The book is based on detailed research in Brazilian British American and French archives and on numerous interviews with surviving military and civilian leaders It also makes extensive use of hitherto unused internal army documents as well as of private correspondence and diaries It is thus able to shed new light on the army s personnel and ethos on its ties with civilian elites on the consequences of military professionalization and on how the army reinvented itself after the collapse of its command structure in the crisis of 1930 a reinvention that allowed the army to become the backbone of the post 1937 dictatorship of Getulio Vargas
