

A photograph of a large crowd of people, mostly young adults, seated in a church sanctuary. The view is from the back of the sanctuary, looking down the pews. The text "The Spirit of Revival at Asbury" is overlaid in a white, cursive font. The sanctuary has wooden walls and a balcony with more people seated above. The lighting is warm and the atmosphere appears to be one of a significant religious gathering.

INTRODUCTION In a day when unprecedented numbers of people have a form of religion while at the same time the church seems unable to stem the rising tide of degeneracy that threatens the land the question might be raised Why this paradox Should not the church have influence for righteousness in proportion to her numbers However one may seek to answer this question it is obvious that what we need is not more religion but more power In short we need real revival For this reason the account after spontaneous revivals at Asbury College in 1950 and 1958 is very timely and provocative of thought It shows what God can do when given a chance The particular manifestations of these visitations of God may differ from others for no two revivals are exactly alike However basic principles are reflected here which recur in all genuine spiritual awakenings The sense of need effectual prayer confession and repentance imparting of new life infilling of the Holy Spirit and compulsion to tell the good news to others these are relevant to every age The authors of these stories are well qualified to speak having experienced the events which they describe Henry C James an alumnus was himself converted during the revival of 1950 and Paul Rader student leader on the Asbury campuses was an active participant in the 1958 awakening They are thus enabled through their close association with these revivals to transmit much of the moving drama of those days It is my hope that those who read these pages will catch something of the spirit which motivated its writing But even more I trust that many will be inspired to pray to work and to believe God for revival today The power of God is the same The conditions for revival have not changed

We are the only variable factors in experiencing greater things than described in these pages Trusting that this book will be used to open our eyes I join the Psalmist in praying Wilt thou not revive us again that thy people may rejoice in thee Psalms 85 6 Robert E Coleman PhD Sollie E McCreless Professor of Evangelism Asbury Theological Seminary CONTENTS

Introduction Preface 1 My People 2 A Needy People 3 A Praying People 4 A Spirit Possessed People 5 A Witnessing People 6 Transformed Persons 7 Patterns and Problems 8 Evaluation 9 Sequel The Power of Surrender Michael Catt, 2010-02

Michael Catt senior pastor of Sherwood Baptist Church and executive producer of hit films Facing the Giants and Fireproof believes the word revival has been used in so many ways as to lose its meaning altogether The Power of Surrender his third book in the ReFRESH series after The Power of Desperation and The Power of Persistence reminds the church that revival really means 1 focusing on confession and cleansing 2 making repentance and restoration a priority and 3 walking in the fullness of the Holy Spirit and abiding in Christ Surrender is the key to revival which is the key to spreading the gospel Catt has witnessed the fruits of these disciplines at his congregation firsthand We are now seeing people walk through the baptismal waters People are being saved Members are inviting their lost friends and unchurched neighbors Attendance shot up Why Revival produces evangelism Mountaintop Moments Ed Robb, 2019-08-06 Mountaintop moments those moments when we experience the power love and grace of God in a way difficult to capture with words They give us a sense of God's presence in our lives and often change our perspective of who God is and who we are In this book Dr Ed Robb connects personal mountaintop experiences in our spiritual life with the mountains in the Old and New Testament and the events related to this sacred places Additional components for a six week study include a DVD featuring Dr Ed Robb and special guest as well as a comprehensive Leader Guide Rivers of Revival Neil T. Anderson, Elmer Towns, 2019-06-18 Since the Day of Pentecost seasons of revival and awakening have brought refreshing to the spiritually dry life to the spiritually dead and miraculous encounters with the Holy Spirit In this timely and prophetic volume two bestselling generals of the faith Dr Elmer Towns and Dr Neil T Anderson offer collective wisdom insight A History of the Methodist Episcopal Church: V. 1 '44 Nathan Bangs, 1840 A History of the Methodist Episcopal Church Nathan Bangs, 1839 A History of the Methodist Episcopal Church ... Third Edition, Etc Nathan BANGS, 1845 The Great Revival John B. Boles, 2021-12-14

Drawing upon the religious writings of southern evangelicals John Boles asserts that the extraordinary crowds and miraculous transformations that distinguished the South's First Great Awakening were not simply instances of emotional excess but the expression of widespread and complex attitudes toward God Converted southerners were starkly individualistic interested more in gaining personal salvation in a hopelessly evil world than in improving society As Boles shows in this landmark study the effect of the Revival was to throw over the region a conservative cast that remains dominant in contemporary southern thought and life The Garden of American Methodism William Henry Williams, 1984
