Asia since 1945, 2023-08-28 During the second half of the twentieth century the countries of East Asia saw one of the most remarkable transformations in human history from relatively poor societies to global powerhouses of accumulation proletarianisation and mega urbanisation This volume features Marxist scholars from East Asia and Europe who are pioneering a new approach to this transformation using the theory of state capitalism The essays analyse the histories of countries on either side of the Cold War divide within the broader framework of twentieth century global capitalist expansion while at the same time offering a sophisticated critique of Developmental State Theory Contributors are Tobias ten Brink Gareth Dale Jeong Seongjin Michael Haynes Kim Ha young Kim Yong uk Lee Jeong goo and Owen Miller Kim Il Sung, Selected Works □□□, 1976 Revolution and Socialist Construction in Korea Sung Kim Il, 1971 Mass Dictatorship and Modernity M. Kim, M. Schoenhals, 2013-11-13 Mass Dictatorship and Modernity is the second volume in the Mass Dictatorship series A transnational academic research venture it interrogates mass dictatorship in a broad historical context focusing on the emergence of modernity through interactions of center and periphery empire and colony and democracy and dictatorship on a global scale Kim Jong-il's Leadership of North Korea Jae-Cheon Lim, 2008-11-24 Kim Jong Il came to power after the death of his father Kim Il Sung in 1994 Contrary to expectations he has succeeded in maintaining enough political stability to remain in power Kim Jong Il's Leadership of North Korea is an examination of how political power has been developed transmitted from father to son and now operates in North Korea Using a variety of original North Korean sources as well as South Korean materials Jae Cheon Lim pieces together the ostensibly contradictory and inconsistent facts into a conceptual coherent framework This book considers Kim and his leadership through an analytical framework composed of four main elements i Kim as a leader of a totalitarian society ii as a politician iii as a Korean and iv as an individual person This illuminating account of what constitutes power and how it is used makes an important contribution to the understanding of an opaque and difficult regime It will be of interest for upper level undergraduate postgraduates and academics interested in North Korean politics and also those in Political theory North Korea and the Geopolitics of Development Kevin Gray, Jong-Woon Lee, 2021-04-15 Kevin Gray and Jong Woon Lee focus on three geopolitical moments that have been crucial to the shaping of the North Korean system colonialism the Cold War and the rise of China to demonstrate how broader processes of geopolitical contestation have fundamentally shaped the emergence and subsequent development of the North Korean political economy They argue that placing the nexus between geopolitics and development at the centre of the analysis helps explain the country's rapid catch up industrialisation its subsequent secular decline followed by collapse in the 1990s and why the reform process has been markedly more conservative compared to other state socialist societies As such they draw attention to the specificities of North Korea's experience of late development but also place it in a broader comparative context by understanding the country not solely through the analytical lens of state socialism but also as an instance of post colonial national development Catalog of Copyright Entries.
