

In the following ways, the French Revolution affected the daily lives of people:

1. Revolutionary notions of equality and liberty remodeled the outfits that the people clothed, the language they talked and texts they study.

2. After the eradication of censorship people were provided with a fundamental right of "the right to speech and expression". Accordingly, this directed to the extension of the conversation and discussions in coffee houses, salons through pamphlets and papers.

3. Art prospered in the form of dramas, paintings, festive parades and poems etc.
