Ken Wilber in Dialogue Donald Jay Rothberg, Sean M. Kelly, Sean Kelly, 1998-02-01 A passionate conversation among the best minds in transpersonal studies about the ideas of Ken Wilber the prominent contemporary thinker whose first book The Spectrum of Consciousness published by Quest in 1977 launched the transpersonal psychology movement Transpersonal thinkers taking part in this dynamic dialogue combine Eastern and Western spirituality with mainstream fields such as psychology medicine physics and ecology to map the human drive toward Spirit Contributors include best selling authors Jack Kornfield A Path with Heart Joseph Goldstein Insight Meditation Michael Murphy The Future of the Body Stanislav Grof The Holotropic Mind and Jeanne Achterberg Rituals of Healing Wilber's spirited response to each probing assessment of his ideas and the authors rebuttals give readers ringside seats at an engaging sparring match among intellectual and spiritual Women and Identity Constance Margaret Hall, 1990 This book addresses the issue of change through choice superstars examining ways that women can empower themselves by becoming more aware of their identity values and commitments to action It emphasises priorities and the behavioural consequences of giving primacy to the value of equality of Social Movement Research Jacquelien van Stekelenburg, Conny Roggeband, Bert Klandermans, 2013-07-01 Are the dynamics of contention changing This is the question confronted by the contributors of this volume among the most influential scholars in the field of social movements The answers arriving at a time of extraordinary worldwide turmoil not only provide a wide ranging and varied understanding of how social movements arise and persist but also engender unanswered guestions pointing to new theoretical strands and fields of research The Future of Social Movement Research asks How are the dynamics of contention shaped by globalization By societies that are becoming increasingly more individualized and diverse By the spread of new communication technologies such as social media cell phones and the Internet Why do some movements survive while others dissipate Do local and global networks differ in nature The authors essays explore such questions with reference to changes in three domains of contention the demand of protest changes in grievances and identities the supply of protest changes in organizations and networks and how these changes affect the dynamics of mobilization In doing so they theorize and make empirically insightful how globalization individualization and virtualization create new grievances new venues for action new action forms and new structures of contention The resulting work brought together through engaging discussions and debates between the contributors is interdisciplinary and unusually broad in scope constituting the most comprehensive overview of the dynamics of social movements available today Contributors Marije Boekkooi VU U Amsterdam Pang Ching On Being Unfinished Patrick, Anne E.,2017-11-16 Gathered here for the first time are both published and unpublished writings of Anne E Patrick a leading feminist Catholic voice revered both as a teacher and as a critical scholar of theology ethics literature and the arts Her scholarly publications broke new ground in a number of Catholic theological subdisciplines including feminist ethics liturgy and contemporary expressions of religious life This is an essential resource for anyone seeking to understand post Vatican II theological development in the Catholic Church in the US Whole Earth Thinking and Planetary Coexistence Sam Mickey,2015-07-16 Like never before in history humans are becoming increasingly interconnected with one another and with the other inhabitants and habitats of Earth There are numerous signs of planetary interrelations from social media and international trade to genetic engineering and global climate change The scientific study of interrelations between organisms and environments Ecology is uniquely capable of addressing the complex challenges that characterize our era of planetary coexistence Whole Earth Thinking and Planetary Coexistence focuses on newly emerging approaches to ecology that cross the disciplinary boundaries of sciences and humanities with the aim of responding to the challenges facing the current era of planetary interconnectedness It introduces concepts that draw out a creative contrast between religious and secular approaches to the integration of sciences and humanities with religious approaches represented by the geologian Thomas Berry and the whole Earth thinking of Stephanie Kaza and Gary Snyder and the more secular approaches represented by the geophilosophy of poststructuralist theorists Gilles Deleuze and F lix Guattari This book will introduce concepts engaging with the ecological challenges of planetary coexistence to students and professionals in fields of environmental studies philosophy and religious studies Methods of Social Movement Research Bert Klandermans, Suzanne Staggenborg, 2002 Citing the critical importance of empirical work to social movement research the editors of this volume have put together the first systematic overview of the major methods used by social movement theorists Original chapters cover the range of techniques surveys formal models discourse analysis in depth interviews participant observation case studies network analysis historical methods protest event analysis macro organizational analysis and comparative politics Each chapter includes a methodological discussion examples of studies employing the method an Steering Human Evolution examination of its strengths and weaknesses and practical guidelines for its application Yehezkel Dror, 2020-05-07 Humanity must steer its evolution As human knowledge moves a step ahead of Darwin's theories this book presents the emergence of human made meta evolution shaping our alternative futures. This novel process poses fateful challenges to humanity which require regulation of emerging science and technology which may endanger the future of our species However to do so successfully a novel humanity craft has to be developed main ideologies and institutions need redesign national sovereignty has to be limited a decisive global regime becomes essential some revaluation of widely accepted norms becomes essential and a novel type of political leader based on merit in addition to public support is urgently needed Taking into account the strength of nationalism and vested interests it may well be that only catastrophes will teach humanity to metamorphose into a novel epoch without too high transition costs But initial steps such as United Nation reforms are urgent in order to contain calamities and may soon become feasible Being both interdisciplinary and based on personal experience of the author this book adds up to a novel paradigm on steering human evolution It will be of great interest to scholars and researchers of modern history evolution sciences future studies political science philosophy of action and science and technology It will also be of wide appeal to the general reader anxious about the future of life on Earth Comments on the Corona pandemic add to the book s concrete significance Radical Reform Tariq Ramadan, 2009-02-05 In this new book Tarig Ramadan argues that it is crucial to find theoretical and practical solutions that will enable Western Muslims to remain faithful to Islamic ethics while fully living within their societies and their time He notes that Muslim scholars often refer to the notion of ijtihad critical and renewed reading of the foundational texts as the only way for Muslims to take up these modern challenges But Ramadan argues in practice such readings have effectively reached the limits of their ability to serve the faithful in the West as well as the East In this book he sets forward a radical new concept of ijtihad which puts context including the knowledge derived from the hard and human sciences cultures and their geographic and historical contingencies on an equal footing with the scriptures as a source of Islamic law The Retreat from Organization Elisabeth Armstrong, 2012-02-01 Using books articles unpublished letters political manifestos posters and other such ephemeral remainders The Retreat from Organization offers critical assessments of feminism from the 1960s to the present These materials reveal paths left unexplored and organization efforts still unfinished to suggest new possibilities for present feminist politics Debates about the second wave women s movement revolve around the identity and the identification of the subject of feminism and rarely ask as this book does how feminism operates as a collective movement Armstrong attempts to complicate how we disagree over feminism by asking questions about identity and organization the subject and the movement and ultimately what feminism should be in our present context of passionate indeterminacy Linda Krikos, Cindy Ingold, 2004-08-30 This truly monumental work maps the literature of women's studies covering thousands of titles and Web sites in 19 subject areas published between 1985 and 1999 Intended as a reference and collection development tool this bibliography provides a guide for women s studies information for each title along with a detailed often evaluative review The annotations summarize each work s content its importance or contribution to women s studies and its relationship to other titles on the subject Core titles and titles that are out of print are noted and reviews indicate which titles are appropriate as texts or supplemental texts. This definitive quide to the literature of women s studies is a must purchase for academic libraries that support women s studies programs and it is a useful addition to any academic or public library that endeavors to represent the field A team of subject specialists has taken on the immense task of documenting publications in the area of women's studies in the last decades of the 20th century. The result is this truly monumental work which maps the field covering thousands of titles and Web sites in 19 subject areas published between 1985 and 1999 Intended as a reference and collection development tool this bibliography provides a guide for women s studies information for each title along with a detailed often evaluative review The annotations summarize each work s content its importance or contribution to women s studies and its relationship to other titles on the subject Most reviews cite and describe similar and contrasting titles substantially extending the coverage Core titles and titles that are out of print are noted and reviews indicate which titles are appropriate as texts or supplemental texts Taking up where the previous volume by Loeb Searing and Stineman left off this is the definitive guide to the literature of women's studies It is a must purchase for academic libraries that support women s studies programs and a welcome addition to any academic or public library that endeavors to represent the field The Arden Research Handbook of Contemporary Shakespeare Criticism Evelyn Gajowski, 2020-10-15 The Arden Research Handbook of Contemporary Shakespeare Criticism is a wide ranging authoritative guide to research on critical approaches to Shakespeare by an international team of leading scholars It contains chapters on 20 specific critical practices each grounded in analysis of a Shakespeare play These practices range from foundational approaches including character studies close reading and genre studies through those that emerged in the 1970s and 1980s that challenged the preconceptions on which traditional liberal humanism is based including feminism cultural materialism and new historicism Perspectives drawn from postcolonial gueer studies and critical race studies besides more recent critical practices including presentism ecofeminism and cognitive ethology all receive detailed treatment In addition to its coverage of distinct critical approaches the handbook contains various sections that provide non specialists with practical help an A Z glossary of key terms and concepts a chronology of major publications and events an introduction to resources for study of the field and a substantial annotated bibliography Essays on the Evolution of the Post-Apartheid State Mcebisi Ndletyana, 2015-02-01 This book critically examines the challenges successes and failures of the post 1994 South African state against the humane values enshrined in its constitution nonracial democracy and respect for all generations of human rights civil political social economic resources and the environment and gender and communication The book sheds light on the difficulties faced by the State when trying to bring together a diverse society comprised of traditional South African Western based and other African immigrant cultures into a cohesive nation with a common South African identity The views of the essays may not be entirely consistent and the issues they raise may be contentious. This merely affirms the truism that the State is a contested terrain The aim of this book is to deepen the search for an understanding of the theory of the State as it applies to a transforming society such as ours and to trudge the dividing line between theory and practice so they can feed into each other in a progressive spiral towards the desired end state Feminism's Queer Temporalities Sam McBean, 2015-07-16 Despite feminism's uneven movements it has been predominantly understood through metaphors of generations or waves Feminism's Queer Temporalities builds on critiques of the limitations of this linear model to explore alternative ways of imagining feminism's timing It finds in feminism's literary and cultural archive narratives of temporality that might now be diagnosed as gueer where gueer designates modes of being historical that exceed the linear and the generational Few theorists have looked to popular feminist figures literature and culture to theorize feminism s timing Through methodologically creative readings McBean explores non generational anti linear and asynchronous time in the figure of Antigone Marge Piercy s Woman on the Edge of Time the film Ladies and Gentlemen The Fabulous Stains Valerie Solanas and SCUM Manifesto and Alison Bechdel s Fun Home The first to substantially bring together the ways in which time has come to matter in both feminist and queer disciplines this book will appeal to students and scholars of feminist queer and gender studies cultural studies and literary studies The Women's Movement In Latin America Jane Jaquette, 2018-03-09 For those interested in democratic transition and consolidation social movements and gender politics this volume is the most comprehensive up to date and probing analysis available of how women s groups are helping to reshape Latin America The contributors document and assess the remarkable wave of women s political participation in Latin America over the past two decades The first five case studies on Brazil Argentina Uruguay Chile and Peru examine the origins evolution and goals of women's organizations as they worked together to end authoritarian rule and elaborate how women's groups have adapted in the 1990s to the day to day realities of democratic politics. In the 1990s the challenge has shifted from mobilizing opposition to the very different task of working with parties and government bureaucracies in order to maintain and implement their agendas. The chapters on Nicaragua and Mexico broaden our understanding of political transitions. Seven case studies vividly illustrate the variety of women's movements in the region ranging from the communal kitchens movements to human rights groups Each author discusses the strategies and debates of the feminist movements in question and records their political successes and failures Jaquette's introductory and concluding essays provide a comparative framework highlighting the innovative ways in which Latin American women are making gender a political issue
