Report Literature ,2003-06 Making War on Bodies Baker Catherine Baker,2020-03-02 This vibrant collection of essays reveals the intimate politics of how people with a wide range of relationships to war identify with and against the military and its gendered and racialised norms It synthesises three recent turns in the study of international politics aesthetics embodiment and the everyday into a new conceptual framework This helps us to understand how militarism permeates society and how far its practices can be re appropriated or even turned against it Imprints of Revolution Lisa B. Y. Calvente,Guadalupe García,2016-05-02 What is the significance of the visual representation of revolution How is history articulated through public images How can these images communicate new histories of struggle Imprints of Revolution highlights how revolutions and revolutionary moments are historically constructed and locally contextualized through the visual It explores a range of spatial and temporal formations to illustrate how movements are articulated reconstituted and communicated The collective work illustrates how the visual serves as both a mobilizing and demobilizing force in the wake of globalization Radical performances cultural artefacts architectural and fashion design as well as social and print media are examples of the visual mediums analysed as alternative archives that propose new understandings of revolution The volume illustrates how revolution remains significant in visually communicating and articulating social change with the ability to transform our contemporary understanding of local national and transnational spaces and processes Republicanism, Communism, Islam John T. Sidel,2021-05-15 In Republicanism Communism Islam John T Sidel provides an alternate vantage point for understanding the variegated forms and trajectories of revolution across the Philippines Indonesia and Vietnam a perspective that is de nationalized internationalized and transnationalized Sidel positions this new vantage point against the conventional framing of revolutions in modern Southeast Asian history in terms of a nationalist template on the one hand and distinctive local cultures and forms of consciousness on the other Sidel s comparative analysis shows how in very different decisive and often surprising ways the Philippine Indonesian and Vietnamese revolutions were informed enabled and impelled by diverse cosmopolitan connections and international conjunctures Sidel addresses the role of Freemasonry in the making of the Philippine revolution the importance of Communism and Islam in Indonesia s Revolusi and the influence that shifting political currents in China and anticolonial movements in Africa had on Vietnamese revolutionaries Through this assessment Republicanism Communism and Islam tracks how these forces rather than nationalism per se shaped the forms of these revolutions the ways in which they unfolded and the legacies which they left in their wakes Indian and Slave Royalists in the Age of Revolution Marcela Echeverri,2016-04-25 Marcela Echeverri draws a picture of the royalist region of Popay n modern day Colombia that reveals deep chronological layers and multiple social and spatial textures She uses royalism as a lens to rethink the temporal spatial and conceptual boundaries that conventionally structure historical narratives about the Age of Revolution Revolutionary Egypt Reem Abou-El-Fadl,2015-06-05 In 2011 the world watched as Egyptians rose up against a dictator Observers marveled at this sudden rupture and honed in on the heroes of Tahrir

Square Revolutionary Egypt analyzes this tumultuous period from multiple perspectives bringing together experts on the Middle East from disciplines as diverse as political economy comparative politics and social anthropology Drawing on primary research conducted in Egypt and across the world this book analyzes the foundations and future of Egypt's revolution Considering the revolution as a process it looks back over decades of popular resistance to state practices and predicts the waves still to come It also confidently places Egypt's revolutionary process in its regional and international contexts considering popular contestation of foreign policy trends as well as the reactions of external actors It draws connections between Egyptians struggles against domestic despotism and their reactions to regional and international processes such as economic liberalization Euro American interventionism and similar struggles further afield Revolutionary Egypt is an essential resource for scholars and students of social movements and revolution comparative politics and Middle East politics in particular Middle East foreign policy and international relations

Anarchism, Revolution, and Reaction

Angel Smith, 2007 The period from 1898 to 1923 was a particularly dramatic one in Spanish history it culminated in the violent Barcelona labor wars and was only brought to a close with the coup d'état launched by the Barcelona Captain General Miguel Primo de Rivera in September 1923 In his detailed examination of the rise of the Catalan anarchist syndicalist led labor movement the author blends social cultural and political history in a novel way He analyses the working class from below and the policies of the Spanish State towards labor from above Based on an in depth usage of primary sources the author provides an unrivalled account of Catalan labor and the Catalan anarchist syndicalist movement and thus makes an important contribution to our understanding of early twentieth century Spanish history

Egypt's Long Revolution Maha Abdelrahman, 2014-08-07 The millions of Egyptians who returned to the heart of Cairo and Egypt's other major cities for 18 days until the eventual toppling of the Mubarak regime were orderly without an organisation inspired without a leader and single minded without one guiding political ideology This book examines the decade long of protest movements which created the context for the January 2011 mass uprising It tells the story of Egypt's long revolutionary process by exploring its genealogy in the decade before 25 January 2011 and tracing its development in the three years that have followed The book analyses new forms of political mobilisation that arose in response to ever increasing grievances against authoritarian politics deteriorating living conditions for the majority of Egyptians as a consequence of neo liberal policies and the machinery of crony capitalism and an almost total abandoning by the state of its responsibilities to society at large It argues that the increasing societal pressures from different quarters such as labour groups pro democracy movements and ordinary citizens during this period culminated in an intensifying culture of protest and activism that was vital in the lead up to the dramatic overthrow of Mubarak It also argues that the features of these new forms of activism and political mobilisation have contributed to shaping the political process since the downfall of Mubarak Based on research undertaken since 2002 Egypt's Long Revolution is an essential resource for scholars and researchers with an interest in social movements comparative
