Sercombe,Bernard Sellato,2008-03-18 Borneo with its tales of White Rajahs and tribes of headhunters has long excited the Western imagination Today however there is another green imagination at work Mention of the island is more likely to evoke images of tropical deforestation and concern about the cruel dispossession and displacement of indigenous peoples who once lived in relative harmony with their environment It is perhaps not suprising then that most books dealing with the nomadic hunter gatherers of Borneo have principally been pictorial studies There is indeed a dearth of scholarship regarding these peoples a situation that this first ever comprehensive review of nomadic groups in the Borneo rain forest aims to rectify Presenting a wealth of new research contributed by an international team of scholars the volume covers all of those parts of Borneo where nomads called Penan Punan or by various other names are or were known to exist and provides a comparative historical ecological study of these groups The study is primarily concerned with issues of modernization including the monetary economy formalized institutions centralized power structures contractual relationships and extraction activities and development policies The impact of these policies is analyzed with special regard to the natural environment inhabited by these small scale societies as well as the use of its resources The book has no stiff theoretical orientation but informs ongoing debates about changing forms of ethnicity relations between minorities and the state minorities rights and survival native discourse the sustainability of tropical forest use and the neo romantic environmentalist myth of so called wise traditional peoples The Encyclopaedia of Iban Studies: Appendices, checklist, bibliography, indexes, notes on editors Vinson H. Sutlive,Joanne Sutlive,2001

Nomads of the Borneo Rainforest Bernard Sellato, 1994-08-01 The Punan societies of Borneo traditionally nomadic rainforest hunters and gatherers have undergone a transformation over the past centuries As downriver farming peoples expanded upstream and their cultures and technologies diffused the Punan gradually abandoned their nomadic existence for a more sedentary life of trade related activities and subsistence agriculture But the culture that has emerged from these changes is still based on the enduring ideological premises of nomadism This study historical in perspective examines the many factors ecological economic commercial political social cultural and ideological that have played a part in this continuing transformation Foreword by Georges Condominas international scholars this volume seeks to define literature as a core expressive form and an essential constitutive element of newly reformulated understandings of humanism While the value of humanism has recently been dominated by anti humanist and post humanist perspectives which focused on the flaws and exclusions of previous definitions of humanism this volume examines the human problems dilemmas fears and aspirations expressed in literature as a fundamentally humanist art form and activity Divided into three overarching categories this companion will explore the histories developments debates and contestations of humanism in literature and deliver fresh definitions of the new humanism for the humanities This focus aims to transcend the boundaries of a world in which human life is all too often defined in terms of restrictions political economic theological intellectual and lived in terms of obedience conformity isolation and fear The Routledge Companion to Humanism and Literature will provide invaluable support to humanities students and scholars alike seeking to navigate the relevance and resilience of humanism across world cultures and literatures Changing Pathways Tuck-Po Lye,2004-01-01 The Batek are hunter gatherers who live in the lowland tropical forests of northeastern Peninsular Malaysia Over the past few decades as more and more of their forest home is degraded they are developing an acute sensitivity to what this means for them and for the broader world In fact they would like the world to know about their worries and their critiques of the causes of degradation Changing Pathways was inspired by that need Beyond a straightforward recounting of Batek environmental concerns this book examines the cosmological basis for those concerns the changing focus of the cosmology the stories and histories through which the Batek express their place in the world and suggests how environmental degradation might affect their knowledge perception and politics Changing Pathways is an invaluable resource not only for environmental anthropologists and hunter gatherer specialists but applied resource managers around the world Malaysia Official Year Book Malaysia,1968 The Sea Dyaks and Other Races of Sarawak ,1963 The Iban and Their Religion Erik Jensen,1974 The Saturday Review of Politics, Literature, Science and Art ,1866 The Dragon and the Rainbow Robert Blust,2023-08-21 Modernization and conversion to world religions are threatening the survival of traditional belief systems leaving behind only mysterious traces of their existence This book based upon extensive research conducted over a period of nearly four decades brings scientific rigor to one of the questions that have always attracted human curiosity that of the origin of the dragon The author demonstrates that both dragons and rainbows are cultural universals that many of the traits that are attributed to dragons in widely separated parts of the planet are also attributed to rainbows and that the number and antiquity of such shared traits cannot be attributed to chance or common inheritance but rather to common cognitive pathways by which human psychology has responded to the natural environment in a wide array of cultures around the world Two Years in the Jungle William Temple Hornaday,1885
