Searching For Truth Lenten Meditations On Science And Faith:

Searching for Truth John Polkinghorne,1996 John Polkinghorne dares to ask the questions that would seem to be too dangerous to ask and he comes up with some answers which are deeply satisfying to both mind and heart The Dialogical Spirit Amos Yong,2015-04-30 Contemporary proposals for Christian theology from post liberalism to Radical Orthodoxy and beyond have espoused their own methodological paradigms Those who have ventured into this domain of theological method however have usually had to stake their claims vis a vis trends in what may be called the contemporary post al age whether of the post modern post Christendom post Enlightenment post Western or post colonial varieties This volume is unique among offerings in this arena in suggesting a way forward that engages on each of these fronts and does so from a particularistic Christian perspective without giving up on Christian theology s traditional claims to universality This is accomplished through the articulation of a distinctive dialogical methodology informed by both Pentecostalism and Evangelicalism one rooted in the Christian salvation history narrative of Incarnation and Pentecost that is yet open to the world in its many and various cultural ethnic religious and disciplinary discourses Amos Yong here engages with twelve different interlocutors representing different ecumenical religious and disciplinary perspectives The Dialogical Spirit thus not only proffers a model for Christian theological method suitable for the twenty first century global context but also exemplifies this methodological approach through its interactions across the contemporary scholarly inter religious and theological landscape Perspectives on Science and Christian Faith ,1997 God and the Scientist Fraser Watts,2016-04-22 This book presents a celebration survey and critique of the theological work of arguably the most important and most widely read contributor to the modern dialogue between science and theology John Polkinghorne Including a major survey by Polkinghorne himself of his life s work in theology this book draws together contributors from among the most important voices in the science theology dialogue today to focus on key aspects of Polkinghorne s work with Polkinghorne providing responses Anybody exploring contemporary aspects of the science religion debate will find this book invaluable Upper Room Bulletin Ann Arbor. Upper Room Bible Class,1915 Index to Book Reviews in Religion ,1999 The Unitarian Advance ,1914 The Christian Science Journal ,1915 The Writers Directory ,2013 Theology in Search of Foundations Randal Rauser,2009-08-20 In the history of Western thought Christian theology was once considered to be the Queen of Sciences Today it has been marginalised by a prevailing scepticism Randal Rauser confronts the problem of developing a public voice for the theologian as engaged in true theological science while not compromising the commitment to the Christian community of faith This book posits a viable account of theological rationality justification and knowledge that avoids the twin pitfalls of modern rationalism and postmodern irrationalism Theology is freshly understood as a rigorous and rational truth seeking discipline that seeks theoretical understanding of divine reality Throughout the modern era the predominant epistemological position has been classical foundationalism a position now widely rejected by philosophers and theologians alike Philosophers recognize that it fails to achieve a plausible account of rationality justification or knowledge while theologians recognize the extent to which classical foundationalist strictures have distorted Christian doctrine In its place many philosophers and theologians alike have adopted a nonfoundationalist epistemology which is in turn often associated with a problematic alethic and metaphysical antirealism Engaging with the ideas of key thinkers from Descartes Locke and Kant to Bruce Marshall and Alvin Plantinga Rauser provides an accessible and provocative survey of the theological terrain of the modern and postmodern era arguing in favour of a return to a moderate foundationalism The Christian Science Journal ,1972 American Book Publishing Record ,2006

Christian College, Christian Calling Steve Wilkens,Paul Shrier,Ralph P. Martin,2005-08-11 Christian colleges have been set up by Christian churches throughout American history But all too often these schools and the groups that support them come into conflict typically over what is being taught in religion and philosophy classes Christian College Christian Calling seeks not so much to resolve this tension between congregation and academy as to explain why it exists and why it might even be fruitful Instructors of philosophy theology church history Biblical studies and ministry from Azusa Pacific University explain the value of their disciplines in down to earth terms not in terms of academic achievement but in terms of the Christian life Looking to get past the stereotypes of liberal faith diluting colleges and conservative unthinking churches Christian College Christian Calling provides an invaluable resource for anyone concerned about the mission and relevance of Christian higher education Surprised by Jesus Tim Stafford,2006-06-23 Tim Stafford takes us behind two dimensional images of Jesus by unearthing the specific historical and cultural situation of Jesus day He claims that what Jesus said and did was profoundly influenced by these factors In fact he says that Jesus meant to change things far more profoundly in his day and ours than we can ever imagine Christian Science Sentinel ,1898 Forthcoming Books Rose Arny,2003

Books & Culture ,1998 Seeking Common Ground Andrew Fiala,Peter Admirand,2021-08-26 Seeking Common Ground is a dialogue between an atheist philosopher and a Catholic theologian It is about religion and nonreligion as well as about dialogue itself The book provides a framework for dialogue grounded in seven key values Harmony Courage Humility Curiosity Honesty Compassion and Honor Unlike typical debates about religion and atheism Fiala and Admirand show that atheists and theists can work together on projects of mutual understanding They explore the terrain of religion and nonreligion discussing a range of sources topics issues and concerns including adventures in interfaith dialogue challenging ethical issues problems interpreting biblical texts the growth of secularism and the importance of ritual and community The authors show that it is possible to disagree about religion while also seeking common ground The book includes a foreword by Rabbi Jack Moline president of the U S Interfaith Alliance Ahiqoḵu Lecture ,1980 Considerations Upon Christian Truths and Christian Duties, Digested Into Meditations for Every Day in the Year... Richard Challoner,1815
