midsummer s evening a young Dublin woman Lucy Dolan prepares for a showdown that will help make sense of a heart breaking and brutal atrocity that happened thirteen years earlier changing her life forever As she waits for the arrival of the charismatic figure who is the key to the mystery she recounts her life story a rich and extraordinary tale spanning two generations of storytellers and deal makers fortune tellers and gamblers businessmen and warlords and the people that feared served and betrayed them With each twist of this tumultuous story Lucy revisits her childhood and early adolescence trying to get her head around the things people do in the name of love and hate greed and desire and she pieces together afresh the events that led to the night that still haunts her

Iranian Culture Nasrin Rahimieh,2015-08-27 Throughout modern Iranian history culture has served as a means of imposing unity and cohesion onto society The Pahlavi monarchs used it to project an image of Iran as an ancient civilisation re emerging as an equal to Western nations while the revolutionaries deployed it to remake the country into an Islamic nation Just as Iranian culture has been continually re interpreted the representations and avocations of Iranian identity vary amongst Iranians across the world Iranian Culture Representation and Identity demonstrates these fissures and the incompatibilities that refuse to be written out of national culture analysing works of literature popular music graphic art and film as well as oral narratives Using works produced before and after the 1979 revolution created both inside and outside of Iran this study reveals neglected complexities and contradictions in the field of Iranian cultural production It considers how contested claims to culture whether they originated in Iran or the Iranian diaspora shape our understanding of this culture and what spaces they create for new articulations of it and in doing so offers an important re examination of our collective concept of culture This book would be an excellent resource for students and scholars of Middle East Studies and Iranian Studies specifically Iranian culture including film and contemporary literature and the Iranian diaspora
