Seasons of Mind Roger Bower,1982 A Collection of Poetry for Every Season and Reason Maria M.

Swaringen,2008-09 A great treasure of the French people was brought to New Orleans from France in 1792 by the La Porte family This treasure ultimately ends up in the hands of Waco Baptiste whose mother was a Wichita Indian and whose father was a French trader What Waco does with the treasure will certainly entertain and educate the reader The book is divided into two parts The first covers the period from 1750 to 1876 The second part jumps forward to 1995 through 2005 and follows the footsteps of Sara Wind Cloud a young woman of the Wichita tribe who makes a great discovery during her studies as a history major at Cameron University in Lawton Oklahoma Her discovery ultimately leads her to the treasure of the Wichita which Waco Baptiste swore in an oath of secrecy to his wife Julian La Porte to protect at all costs Waco Baptiste certainly accomplished his mission and Sara Wind Cloud brings closure to the mystery in a manner which the reader should find both fair and honorable to all parties Seasons of a Refractive Mind Glenn Alan Daley,2016-07-11 A wide ranging collection of poems aphorisms and black and white photographs by an American writer and public policy scholar born in California in 1953 and raised in the American South and Pacific Northwest Topics include faith and its loss nature and the environment war social justice friendship teaching chronic pain mental health and the struggle to communicate with others when ordinary words fail The photography emphasizes California and the Northwest but includes images from the American South and from Japan Many of the writings and images convey nautical themes or nature themes Other thematic material includes physics and astronomy auto racing and the Portland Oregon of the 1990s This is a collection that can be read in any order or sampled a little at a time and it can be revisited many times with new insight and delight Poetry and Prose: with a Series of Lessons on the Art of Reading; Being a Supplement to Daily Lesson Book, No. III. Series,1845 The Genres of Thomson's The Seasons Sandro Jung,Kwinten Van De Walle,2018-09-01 Critics since the eighteenth century have puzzled over the form of James Thomson s composite long poem The Seasons 1730 1744 1746 its generically hybrid make up and its relationship to established genres both Classical and modern The textual condition of the work is complicated by the fact that it started as a stand alone poem Winter 1726 but was subsequently expanded as part of a revision process that lasted almost two decades through the addition of three further seasons poems Transforming from primarily devotional poem to georgic account of the role of man s laboring role in the creation the meaning of The Seasons shifted with each addition of new material Each revision introduced diverse subject matter while existing material was reorganized and occasionally moved from one season installment to another The Genres of Thomson s The Seasons is the first collection of essays exclusively devoted to the study of the work s formal heterogeneity polyvocality and polygeneric character All contributions examine the different modes descriptive reflective pastoral hymnal amatory epic georgic dramatic discourses political sentimental scientific and kinds that cooperate to make up the different installments and variants of The Seasons They probe the multifarious interactions between different genres and modes and how a renewed focus on the form of Thomson's long poem will result in an understanding of the processual character of The Seasons as a synthesizing simulacrum of various discourses and theories of composition. The volume's essays map the generic anatomy of the poem in its different incarnations. They shed light on the poet's conception of the descriptive long poem and his engaging with formal traditions that would have enabled contemporaneous readers to conceive of The Seasons as an assimilating and learned work to be read through both the works of the Classics and moderns. Contributions revisit models explaining the structural complexity of The Seasons proposing others in their stead and consider Thomson as the author of a long poem in relation to other poets both English and in a transnational study. Swedish. The poem is furthermore contextualized in terms of sexuality and animal studies.
