Seato The Failure Of An Alliance Strategy:

SEATO, the Failure of an Alliance Strategy Leszek Buszynski, 1983 SEATO Leszek Buszynski, 1983 Conflict and Confrontation in South East Asia, 1961-1965 Matthew Jones, 2001-09-06

In the early 1960s Britain and the United States were still trying to come to terms with the powerful forces of indigenous nationalism unleashed by the Second World War. The Indonesia Malaysia confrontation a crisis which was as Macmillan remarked to Kennedy as dangerous a situation in Southeast Asia as we have seen since the war was a complex test of Anglo American relations. As American commitment to Vietnam accelerated under the Kennedy and Johnson administrations Britain was involving herself in an end of empire exercise in state building which had important military and political implications for both nations. In this book Matthew Jones provides a detailed insight into the origins outbreak and development of this important episode in international history using a large range of previously unavailable archival sources he illuminates the formation of the Malaysian federation Indonesia's violent opposition to the state and the Western Powers attempts to deal with the resulting conflict.

The Southeast Asia Treaty Organisation Ang Cheng Guan, 2021-09-09

A History of the Manila Pact and the Southeast Asia Treaty Organisation SEATO from its establishment in 1954 until its dissolution in 1977. The Southeast Asia Treaty Organization SEATO has received meagre scholarly attention in comparison to other key events and global developments during the duration of the Cold War due to its perceived failure early in its existence. However there has been a renewed interest in the academic study of the organization. Some scholars have argued that SEATO was not an outright failure. New literatures have also shed in detail the workings of SEATO such as operational level contingency plans and counter insurgency plans. This book aims to reconstruct a comprehensive life cycle of SEATO using declassified archival documents which were unavailable to scholars studying the organization from the 1950s through the 1980s and provide a nuanced assessment of it. In addition in recent years there is also an emerging interest in the possibility of a multilateral military alliance in Asia for instance the Quadrilateral Security Dialogue morphing into an Asian NATO. As such it is therefore crucial to study how previous multilateral alliances in the context of Asia were formed how they functioned and subsequently dissolved. A groundbreaking reference on a key element of the United States Cold War strategy in Asia which will be a valuable resource to scholars of twentieth century diplomatic history.

Reliability and Alliance Interdependence Iain D. Henry, 2022-05-15

In Reliability and Alliance Interdependence Iain D Henry argues for a more sophisticated approach to alliance politics and ideas of interdependence. It is often assumed that if the United States failed to defend an ally then this disloyalty would instantly and irrevocably damage US alliances across the globe. Henry proposes that such damage is by no means inevitable and that predictions of disaster are dangerously simplistic. If other allies fear the risks of military escalation more than the consequences of the United States abandoning an ally then they will welcome encourage and even praise such an instance of disloyalty. It is also often assumed that alliance interdependence only constrains US policy options but Henry shows how the United States can manipulate interdependence to set an example of what constitutes acceptable allied behavior Using declassified documents Henry explores five case studies involving US alliances with South Korea Japan the Republic of China the Philippines Australia and New Zealand Reliability and Alliance Interdependence makes a substantial contribution to our understanding of how America s alliances in Asia function as an interdependent system Malaysia Army Weapon Systems Handbook Volume 1 Strategic Information and Weapon Systems IBP, Inc., Whose Ideas Matter? Amitav Acharya, 2011-07-22 Asia is a crucial battleground for power and influence in the international system It is also a theater of new experiments in regional cooperation that could redefine global order Whose Ideas Matter is the first book to explore the diffusion of ideas and norms in the international system from the perspective of local actors with Asian regional institutions as its main focus There s no Asian equivalent of the EU or of NATO Why has Asia and in particular Southeast Asia avoided such multilateral institutions Most accounts focus on U S interests and perceptions or intraregional rivalries to explain the design and effectiveness of regional institutions in Asia such as SEATO ASEAN and the ASEAN Regional Forum Amitav Acharya instead foregrounds the ideas of Asian policymakers including their response to the global norms of sovereignty and nonintervention Asian regional institutions are shaped by contestations and compromises involving emerging global norms and the preexisting beliefs and practices of local actors Acharya terms this perspective constitutive localization and argues that international politics is not all about Western ideas and norms forcing their way into non Western societies while the latter remain passive recipients Rather ideas are conditioned and accepted by local agents who shape the diffusion of ideas and norms in the international system Acharya sketches a normative trajectory of Asian regionalism that constitutes an important contribution to the global sovereignty regime and explains a remarkable continuity in the design and functions of Asian regional institutions Divided Allies Thomas K. Robb, David James Gill, 2019-11-15 By directly challenging existing accounts of post World War II relations among the United States of America the United Kingdom Australia and New Zealand Divided Allies is a significant contribution to transnational and diplomatic history At its heart Divided Allies examines why strategic cooperation among these closely allied Western powers in the Asia Pacific region was limited during the early Cold War Thomas K Robb and David James Gill probe the difficulties of security cooperation as the leadership of these four states balanced intramural competition with the need to develop a common strategy against the Soviet Union and the new communist power the People s Republic of China Robb and Gill expose contention and disorganization among non communist allies in the early phase of containment strategy in Asia Pacific In particular the authors note the significance of economic racial and cultural elements to planning for regional security and they highlight how these domestic matters resulted in international disorganization Divided Allies shows that amidst these contentious relations the antipodean powers Australia and New Zealand occupied an important role in the region and successfully utilized quadrilateral diplomacy to advance their own national interests such as the crafting of the 1951 ANZUS collective security treaty As fractious as were allied relations in the early days of NATO Robb and Gill demonstrate that the post World War II Asia Pacific was as contentious and that Britain and the commonwealth nations were necessary partners in the development of early global Cold War strategy The Battle for Asia Mark T. Berger, 2004-03-01 Asia has long been an ideological battleground between capitalism and communism between nationalism and Westernisation and between the nation state and globalization This book is a history of the Asian region from 1945 to the present day which delineates the various ideological battles over Asia s development Subjects covered include theories of development decolonization US political and economic intervention the effects of communism the end of the Cold War the rise of neo liberalism Asia after the crisis Asia in the era of globalisation Broad in sweep and rich in theory and empirical detail this is an essential account of the growth of Asian miracle and its turbulent position in the global economy of the twenty first century The Pacific Basin since 1945 Roger C. Thompson, 2014-09-25 The nations of the Pacific Basin in East and Southeast Asia Australasia the Pacific islands and the Americas make up the world s largest economic zone and its most culturally diverse region In recent years its Asian Tiger Economies have suffered economic collapse and unfinished business from the Cold War has produced continuing conflict and instability The new edition of this pioneering book traces the postwar inter relationships of all the rim and island nations It gives a unique impression of the make up of the region and the tensions within it The book integrates a wide range of information from books and articles from published and unpublished sources including recently opened Russian and American archives and from the first hand experiences of participants including those of the author in Pacific Basin affairs Vigorously written and strongly argued no other account brings together all the threads of the development of international relations in this complex and fascinating region National and International Security Michael Sheehan, 2018-01-18 This title was first published in 2000 This series brings together significant journal articles appearing in the field of comparative politics over the past 30 years The aim is to render accessible to teachers researchers and students an extensive range of essays to provide a basis for understanding the established terrain and new ground This volume introduces the undergraduate to a significant body of the periodical literature on the subject of national and international security History as Policy Ron Huiskens, Meredith Thatcher, 2007-12-01 The fortieth anniversary of the Strategic and Defence Studies Centre s founding provided the opportunity to assemble many of Australia s leading analysts and commentators to review some of the more significant issues that should define Australian defence policy The papers collected in this volume are not informed by a common view of where Australia should focus its defence policy but all address themes that should figure prominently in this difficult but essential task Provided by publisher Asia in the 21st Century Michael D. Bellows, 1995-10 Part I Grand Strategy U S goals China s grand strategy Japan s grand strategy Russian strategy ASEAN national security Part II Economic Dimensions challenge of geoeconomics interdependence on Northeast Asia Part III Regional Military Strategy Japanese self defense forces Korean military forces Russia s new military doctrine China s strategic concepts Part IV Regional Strategic Structures in the 21st Century post cold war security structures and strategic architecture for the Pacific The Architecture of Security in the Asia-Pacific Ronald Huisken, 2009-10-01 We cannot expect in East Asia over the foreseeable future to see the sort of conflation of sovereign states that has occurred in Europe We must anticipate that for the foreseeable future the requirement will be for the sensible management and containment of competitive instincts The establishment of a multilateral security body in East Asia that includes all the key players and which the major powers invest with the authority to tackle the shaping of the regional security order remains a critical piece of unfinished business Unresolved Border, Land and Maritime Disputes in Southeast Asia Alfred Gerstl, Mária Strašáková, 2016-11-14 Unresolved Border Land and Maritime Disputes in Southeast Asia edited by Alfred Gerstl and Mária Strašáková sheds light on various unresolved and lingering territorial disputes in Southeast Asia and their reflection in current inter state relations in the region The authors academics from Europe and East Asia particularly address the territorial disputes in the South China Sea and those between Vietnam and Cambodia and Thailand and Cambodia They apply International Relations theories in a wider regional and comparative perspective The empirical analyses are embedded in a concise theoretical discussion of the principles of sovereignty territorial integrity and borders Furthermore the book discusses the role of the Association of Southeast Asian Nations ASEAN and other multi track mechanisms in border conflict mediation Contributors are Petra Andlová Alica Kizekova Filip Kraus Josef Falko Loher Padraig Lysaght Jörg Thiele Richard Turcsányi Truong Minh Vu and Zdeněk Křížek America and the Pacific Rim Gerald L. Houseman, 1995 Recognizing the dawning of the Pacific century and its implications for the United States this textbook explores the economic political and social development of the countries of the Asia Pacific and analyzes past present and future U S policy responses Houseman compares and contrasts various levels of development within the region emphasizing especially trade security and human rights issues He concludes with recommendations for U S policymaking acknowledging the realities of shrinking political and economic influence in the post Cold War era A Special Relationship Daniel Fineman, 1997-01-01 The development of the Thai American alliance from 1947 to 1958 dramatically transformed both countries involvement in Southeast Asia Bounded by two important political events in Thailand an army coup in 1947 and the military's assumption of complete control of government in 1958 the period witnessed both the entrenchment of authoritarian military government in Thailand and a revolution in U S Thai relations During these years the modern Thai political system emerged and the United States established its interest and influence in mainland Southeast Asian affairs The developments of the period made possible American's later more extensive involvement in Indochina A Special Relationship provides the most comprehensive analysis of this critical founding period of the Thai American alliance It reveals surprising new information on joint covert operations in Indochina American support for suppression of government opponents and CIA involvement in Thai domestic politics Organizing the World Galia Press-Barnathan, 2004-06 This book offers a conceptual framework that explains when and why a great power would choose to cooperate with smaller states via regional cooperation forums rather than in a bilateral setting Asia's New Multilateralism Michael J. Green, Bates Gill, 2009

Traditionally stability in Asia has relied on America's bilateral alliances with Japan Australia and the Republic of Korea Yet in recent years emergent and more active multilateral forums such as the Six Party Talks on North Korea and the East Asia Summit have taken precedence engendering both cooperation and competition while reflecting the local concerns of the region Some are concerned that this process is moving toward less inclusive bloc based talking shops and that the future direction and success of these arrangements along with their implications for global and regional security and prosperity remain unclear The fifteen contributors to this volume all leading scholars in the field provide national perspectives on regional institutional architecture and their functional challenges They illuminate areas of cooperation that will move the region toward substantive collaboration convergence of norms and strengthened domestic institutions They also highlight the degree to which institution building in Asia a region composed of liberal democracies authoritarian regimes and anachronistic dictatorships has become an arena for competition among major powers and conflicting norms and assess the future shape of Asian security architecture Indonesia's Foreign Policy under Suharto Leo Suryadinata, 2022-01-24 The book which was first published in 1996 examines Indonesia's foreign policy under Suharto It not only details Indonesia's foreign policy behaviour vis vis Indonesia's neighbours and major powers but also places it in the context of foreign policy analysis Today the book remains as the only full length study on Indonesia's foreign policy under Suharto It is now reprinted with a new postscript which discusses the post Suharto era from B J Habibie to Joko Widodo Indonesia under Suharto had attempted to become a regional power to lead Southeast Asian states and beyond As the largest country and also the richest in terms of natural resources Suharto's Indonesia was held in deference by the ASEAN states However due to its limited capabilities its lack of military strength advanced technology and economic strength the political influence of Jakarta was in fact quite limited During the economic crisis Suharto was forced to step down He was succeeded by B J Habibie who was largely preoccupied with domestic issues who in turn was followed by weak presidencies such as Abdurrahman Wahid Gus Dur and Megawati Only after the ex general Susilo Bambang Yudhoyono assumed presidency did he manage to stabilize the situation and attained economic growth He even became known as the Foreign Policy President Nevertheless he was constrained by the harsh Indonesian reality limited resources a weak military and absence of political influence His successor Joko Widodo has been more concerned with economic matters and domestic politics Indonesian regional leadership declines further
