Herodotean Inquiries S. Benardete, 2012-12-06 Herodotus has so often been called since ancient times the father of history that this title has blinded us to the question Was the father of history an historian Everyone knows that the Greek word from which history is derived always means inquiry in Herodotus His so called Histories are inquiries and by that name I have preferred to call them His inquiries partly result in the presentation of events that are now called historical but other parts of his inquiry would now belong to the province of the anthropologist or geographer Herodotus does not recognize these fields as distinct they all belong equally to the subject of his inquiry but it is not self evident what he understands to be his subject the notorious difficulties in the proemium are enough to indicate this If his work presents us with so strange a mixture of different fields we are entitled to ask Did Herodotus understand even its historical element as we understand it Without any proof everyone as far as I am aware who has studied him has assumed this to be so *Aimard's Indian tales, ed. by P.B.
