Fuertes-Olivera, 2010-03-26

The need for constructing a lexicographical theory with a particular focus on specialised dictionaries for learners is well documented in recent publications This will imply paying attention to at least four basic lexicographic categories learners the learner s situation the learner s needs dictionary assistance In one or other way these categories are analysed in this book whose eleven chapters are grouped into three parts Part 1 reflects on some of the main ideas defended by the function theory of lexicography perhaps the theoretical framework that has paid more attention to specialised lexicography Part 2 presents some proposals that have already being explored in the field of general learner s dictionary and must be incorporated into specialised metalexicography cultural aspects figurative meaning the inclusion of grammatical information the use of corpora Part 3 introduces the state of play regarding specialised dictionaries in China and offers some ideas for coping with the proliferation of terminological glossaries in Internet The book also describes Enrique Alcaraz s academic achievements together with some personal anecdotes and a personal short tribute to his memory

Longman Angol-Magyar business szotar, 1993 Pedagogical Specialised Lexicography Pedro A. Fuertes-Olivera, Ascensión Arribas-Baño, 2008-07-03

This stimulating new book which combines dictionary research and linguistic knowledge analyses the representation of meaning in business dictionaries from a pedagogical perspective By examining in detail the macrostructure mediostructure access structure and microstructure of eight business dictionaries this book presents interesting findings on how the dictionaries studied represent the noun term and on how they cope with the principles of new lexicography that aims at solving the needs of a specific type of user with specific types of problems related to a specific type of user situation This exhaustive study which makes simultaneous contributions to the theory of terminology lexicography and LSP teaching defends a methodological confluence between LSP lexicography and terminology and proposes some guiding principles towards the construction of pedagogically oriented specialised dictionaries that must target students enrolled in LSP courses Business English Business Spanish Business Translation etc
