Fysh, J. Wolfreys, 2003-01-31 While most analyses of the French National Front NF see it as a threat to democracy the exact nature of this threat has never been clearly defined Drawing on interviews with leading far right figures and access to internal party documents this book identifies the NF as a modern fascist party The authors produce an uncompromising assessment of attempts to confront the NF and explain how it emerged as the leading challenger to a discredited mainstream in the 2002 presidential election Migration and the International Labor Market 1850-1939 Tim Hatton, Jeffrey Williamson, 2005-08-12 This book focuses on the reasons for international migration during the era of mass migrations and examines the resulting economic effect Race, Nation, Class Étienne Balibar, Immanuel Wallerstein, 2020-05-05 Forty years after the defeat of Nazism and twenty years after the great wave of decolonization how is it that racism remains a growing phenomenon What are the special characteristics of contemporary racism How can it be related to class divisions and to the contradictions of the nation state And how far in turn does racism today compel us to rethink the relationship between class struggles and nationalism This book attempts to answer these fundamental questions through a remarkable dialogue between the French philosopher Etienne Balibar and the American historian and sociologist Immanuel Wallerstein Each brings to the debate the fruits of over two decades of analytical work greatly inspired respectively by Louis Althusser and

Fernand Braudel Both authors challenge the commonly held notion of racism as a continuation of or throwback to the xenophobias of past societies and communities They analyze it instead as a social relation indissolubly tied to present social structures the nation state the division of labor and the division between core and periphery which are themselves constantly being reconstructed Despite their productive disagreements Balibar and Wallerstein both emphasize the modernity of racism and the need to understand its relation to contemporary capitalism and class struggle Above all their dialogue reveals the forms of present and future social conflict in a world where the crisis of the nation state is accompanied by an alarming rise of nationalism and chauvinism

Nationalism, Labour and Ethnicity 1870-1939 Angel Smith, Stefan Berger, 1999 This text looks at the inter relationships between labour nationalist movements and ethnicity during the Age of Imperialism Two of the most debated contemporary issues focus on the decline of labour particularly socialist ideologies and the rise of nationalism It is sometimes assumed that the demise of one led to the triumph of the other It is also thought that labour as an internationalist movement underestimated and misunderstood the power of nationalism This text links these historical phenomena and sets the debate in more accurate historical context

The Immigrant Threat Leo Lucassen, 2005 The Immigrant Threat is an exploration of the common threads in the long term integration experience of migrants past and present The geographic sources of the threat have changed and successfully incorporated immigrants of the past have become invisible in national histories

The Politics of Immigration in France, Britain, and the United States M. Schain, 2012-06-18 Updated through 2012 with all new material in every chapter Schain's book provides a detailed comparative look at the policies that drive and inform immigration politics in three Western countries and shows how immigration policy has political sources far beyond labor market needs

Chinese Transnational Networks Chee-Beng Tan, 2006-10-19 This innovative volume examines both China and Chinese overseas in relation to qiaoxiang The clearly presented chapters from a team of international contributors provide essential insights into Chinese culture and society

The Development of the French Economy 1750-1914 Colin Heywood, 1995-09-14 Understanding French economic development in the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries has always proved a formidable challenge for historians This concise 1995 survey for students is designed to make clear the areas of controversy among historians and to guide the reader through the complexities of the debate The author provides succinct surveys of findings on the pattern of development and on the underlying causes of that pattern He addresses questions such as was France a latecomer or an early starter in industrialisation Did long periods of protectionism help or hinder development And was the peasantry an obstacle to change in the economy He argues that France was not the backward economy it was often thought to be instead it provides a quietly successful case of economic development avoiding the massive social upheaval experienced elsewhere in Europe
