Look At Me Fashion And Photography In Britain 1960 To The Present:

Look at Me Val Williams, 1998 Her World, Women and Fashion in Singapore 1974-1989 Nadya Wang, 2025-07-24

Between 1974 and 1989 significant changes were taking place in the lives of Singaporean women and in their local fashion industry. These shifts were not only reflected in but actively shaped by the magazine Her World. In Her World Women and Fashion in Singapore Nadya Wang uses dress as a lens through which to view fragments of the magazine over 15 years. Advocating for a new and decentred understanding of the evolution of the Singapore woman, Wang's writing also traces the creation of a fashion industry that pivoted from seeking validation from global fashion cities to establishing itself as the lead of a Southeast Asian fashion community. Visual analysis of archival materials is combined with oral history interviews to demonstrate how the women of Singapore engaged with local and global ideas, fashion and beauty commodities and imagery of models and beauty queens in their self-fashioning. Challenging existing understandings of their agency, this book attests to the creativity and adaptability of Singapore women and Singapore fashion designers.

Photography Liz Wells, 2004. This seminal text for photography students identifies key debates in photographic theory, stimulates discussion and evaluation of the critical use of photographic images and ways of seeing. This new edition retains the thematic structure and text features of its predecessors but also expands coverage on photojournalism, digital imaging techniques, race and colonialism. The content is updated with additional international and contemporary examples and images throughout, and the inclusion of colour photos. Features of this new edition include: Key concepts and short biographies of major thinkers; Updated international and contemporary case studies and examples; A full glossary of terms; a comprehensive bibliography; Resource information including guides to public archives and useful websites.

Look at Me British Council, 1998. Published to accompany touring exhibition.

Fashion Media Djurdja Bartlett, Shaun Cole, Agnès Rocamora, 2013-12-19. The fashion media is in the midst of deep social and technological change. Including a broad range of case studies from fashion plates to fashion films and from fashion magazines to fashion blogs, this ground-breaking book provides an up-to-date examination of the role and significance of this field. Winner of the PCA/ACA Ray and Pat Browne Award for Best Edited Collection. Fashion Media includes chapters written by international scholars covering topics from historic magazine cultures and contemporary digital innovations to art and film, exploring themes such as gender, ethnicity, design, taste and authorship. Highlighting the complexity of processes that bind design, design technology, society and identity together, Fashion Media will be of essential reading for students of fashion studies, cultural studies, visual culture studies, design history, communications and art and design practice and theory.

The British Journal of Photography, 2006 Fashion at the Edge Caroline Evans, Caroline Edwards, 2003-01-01. Caroline Evans analyses the work of experimental designers, the images of fashion photographers and the spectacular fashion shows that developed in the final decade of the twentieth century to arrive at a new understanding of fashion's dark side and what it signifies. Drawing on a variety of literary and theoretical perspectives.
