Going Forward by Looking Back Felix Riede, Payson Sheets, 2020-09-11 Catastrophes are on the rise due to climate change as is their toll in terms of lives and livelihoods as world populations rise and people settle into hazardous places While disaster response and management are traditionally seen as the domain of the natural and technical sciences awareness of the importance and role of cultural adaptation is essential This book catalogues a wide and diverse range of case studies of such disasters and human responses This serves as inspiration for building culturally sensitive adaptations to present and future calamities to mitigate their impact and facilitate recoveries

Looking Back James F. Queenan, 2011-08-11 Judge Queenan tells a very human story of his life family and travels withholding no family secrets Included is an account of his diverse and evolving career as a lawyer who handled business transactions drafted estate plans tried cases and at the end found greatest satisfaction in representing corporations reorganizing under chapter 11 He tells of the losing party in one case sending a bomb in the mail to his client We also learn of the disastrous results of a Ponzi scheme that used ruses similar to those of Bernard Madoff Judge Queenans high values and commitment to due process of law are apparent throughout He is still troubled by the prejudicial effect of the press conferences held by the district attorney in the

Brinks armed robbery case which came before the Supreme Judicial Court of Massachusetts when he was a young law clerk with the court In giving an account of his years on the bench a time when he was also teaching in law school Judge Queenan makes law and trials understandable to the layman He rejects the notion that bankruptcy is a refuge for the dishonest and lazy and he decries the countrys toxic fascination with debt taking special aim at abusive leveraged buy outs of corporations He recalls memorable witnesses and lawyers tells how he determined who was lying and explains what he did to reduce the length of trials Perhaps most informative of all he describes how a judge makes law rather than just grabbing a rule off the shelf A former campaign worker for Robert Kennedy Judge Queenan shows his passion for politics He gives a critique of the Supreme Courts 2000 decision in Bush v Gore which handed the presidency to George W Bush As one who demonstrated against the war in Iraq before the war began he examines the wars terrible consequences and traces its long political fallout that contributed to the election of Barack Obama for whom the judge delivers a unique panegyric Post-war British

The Orange County Fair: A History of Celebration Chris Epting, 2015-07-20 The Orange County Fair is one of Southern California's most anticipated summer events. From its first year in 1890 with a few livestock exhibits and horse races, the fair evolved into what is now a month-long extravaganza of rides, games, and entertainment that still celebrates the importance of local agriculture. Millions of visitors have crowded the grounds over the years to enjoy the spectacle of everything from ostrich races and demolition derbies to its unique Centennial Farm and the time-honored All-Alaskan pig race. Author Chris Epting recounts more than a century of community history and revelry at the OC Fair. Routledge Library Editions: Philosophy of Time Various Authors, 2021-03-05 Reissuing five works originally published between 1937 and 1991, this collection contains books addressing the subject of time from a mostly philosophic point of view but also of interest to those in the science and mathematics worlds. These texts are brought back into print in this small set of works addressing how we think about time, the history of the philosophy of time, the measurement of time, theories of relativity, and discussions of the wider thinking about time and space among other aspects. One volume is a thorough bibliography collating references on the subject of time across many disciplines. An Address Delivered At the Centennial Celebration in Wilton, N.H., Sept. 25, 1839 Ephraim Peabody, 2025-07-26 Reprint of the original first published in 1839. The Antigonos publishing house specialises in the publication of reprints of historical books. We make sure that these works are made available to the public in good condition in order to preserve their cultural heritage. Beyond the Darkness Clarissa Moll, 2022 The Bible says that God is near to the brokenhearted, but what does that look like when you're lost in the darkness of agonizing grief? How do you engage with your sorrow when the world tells you to shoulder through or move on? Award-winning writer and podcaster Clarissa Moll knows this landscape of loss all too well. Her life changed forever in 2019 when her husband Rob died unexpectedly while hiking, leaving her with four children to raise alone. In her debut book Beyond the Darkness, Clarissa offers her powerful personal narrative as well as honest practical wisdom that will gently guide you toward flourishing amidst your own loss.
