groundbreaking voice of Sanora Babb Dunkle follows Babb from her impoverished childhood in eastern Colorado to California. There she befriended the era's literati including Ray Bradbury and Ralph Ellison entered into an illegal marriage and was blacklisted by the House Un American Activities Committee. It was Babb's field notes and oral histories of migrant farmworkers that Steinbeck relied on to write his novel. But this is not merely a saga of literary usurping on her own merits. Babb's impact was profound. Her life and work feature heavily in Ken Burns's award-winning documentary The Dust Bowl and inspired Kristin Hannah in her bestseller The Four Winds. Riding Like the Wind reminds us with fresh awareness that the stories we know and who tells them can change the way we remember history.

Garland of the Buddha's Past Lives (Volume 1) Aryashura, 2017-04-01 The Garland of Past Lives is a collection of thirty-four stories depicting the miraculous deeds performed by the Buddha in his previous rebirths. Composed in the fourth century C.E. by the Buddhist monk Aryashura, the text's accomplished artistry led Indian aesthetic theorists to praise its elegant mixture of verse and prose. The twenty stories in this first volume deal primarily with the virtues of giving and morality. Ascetics sacrifice their lives for hungry tigers, kings open their veins for demons to drink their blood, helmsmen steer their crew through perilous seas and quail chicks quench forest fires by proclaiming words of truth. The experience is intended to arouse astonishment in the audience, inspiring devotion through the future Buddha's transcendence of conventional norms in his quest to acquire enlightenment and save the world from suffering. The importance of such stories of past lives in traditional Buddhist culture throughout Asia and up to today cannot be overestimated.
