A Bibliography of Modern Arthuriana (1500-2000) Ann F. Howey, Stephen Ray Reimer, 2006 Annotated bibliography of the Arthurian legend in modern English language fiction not only in literary texts but in television music and art The legend of Arthur has been a source of fascination for writers and artists in English since the fifteenth century when Thomas Malory drew together for the first time in English a variety of Arthurian stories from a number of sources to form the Morte Darthur It increased in popularity during the Victorian era when after Tennyson's treatment of the legend not only authors and dramatists but painters musicians and film makers found a source of inspiration in the Arthurian material This interdisciplinary annotated bibliography lists the Arthurian legend in modern English language fiction from 1500 to 2000 including literary texts film television music visual art and games It will prove an invaluable source of reference for students of literary and visual arts general readers collectors librarians and cultural historians indeed by anyone interested in the history of the ways in which Camelot has figured in post medieval English speaking cultures ANN F HOWEY is Assistant Professor at Brock University Canada STEPHEN R REIMER is Associate Professor at the University of Alberta Canada

The Fiction of Ruth Rendell Barbara Fass Leavy, 2012-08-31 A study of the role of family ancient Greek narratives and the psychological theories of Freud and Jung in the mystery novels of Ruth Rendell Aside from Ruth Rendell's brilliance as a fiction writer and her appeal to mystery lovers her books portray a compelling universal experience that her readers can immediately relate to the intra familial stresses generated by the nuclear family Even those who experience the joys as well as pains of family life will find in Rendell the conflicts that beset all who must navigate their way through the conflicts that beset members of the closest families Barbara Fass Leavy analyzes the multi leveled treatment of these themes that contributes to Rendell's standing as a major contemporary novelist Rendell who also writes as Barbara Vine draws on ancient Greek narratives and on the psychological theories Sigmund Freud and Carl Jung derived from them to portray the disturbed family relationships found throughout her work Leavy's analysis considers what distinguishes mysteries as popular entertainment from crime fiction as literary art The potential for rereading even when the reader remembers whodunit will be the basis for this distinction Leavy also looks closely at the Oedipus and Electra complexes and how they illuminate Rendell's portrayals of the different pairings within the nuclear family for example mother and daughter and considers the importance of gender differences In addition Leavy corrects a widespread error that Freud formulated the Electra complex when in fact the formulation was Jung's as he challenged Freud's emphasis on the Oedipus story as the essential paradigm for human psychological development
