Maker Of Saints:

The Saint Makers Joe Drape, 2020-12-01 Part biography of a wartime adventurer part detective story and part faith journey this intriguing book from a New York Times journalist and bestselling author takes us inside the modern day making of a saint The Saint Makers chronicles the unlikely alliance between Father Hotze and Dr Andrea Ambrosi a country priest and a cosmopolitan Italian canon lawyer as the two piece together the life of a long dead Korean War hero and military chaplain and fashion it into a case for eternal divinity Joe Drape offers a front row seat to the Catholic Church's saint making machinery which in many ways has changed little in two thousand years and examines how or if faith and science can co exist This rich and unique narrative leads from the plains of Kansas to the opulent halls of the Vatican through brutal Korean War prison camps and into the stories of two individuals Avery Gerleman and Chase Kear whose lives were threatened by illness and injury and whose family and friends prayed to Father Kapaun sparking miraculous recoveries in the heart of America Gerleman is now a nurse and Kear works as a mechanic in the aerospace industry Both remain devoted to Father Kapaun whose opportunity for sainthood relies in their belief and medical charts At a time when the church has faced severe scandal and damage and the world is at the mercy of a pandemic this is an uplifting story about a priest who continues to an example of goodness and faith Ultimately The Saint Makers is the story of a journey of faith for two priests separated by seventy years for the two young athletes who were miraculously brought back to life with or without the intercession of the divine as well as for readers and the author trying to understand and accept what makes a person truly worthy of the Congregation of Saints in the eyes of the Catholic Church
