Making Love Richard Rhodes,1993-08 Breaking taboos and treading on forbidden territories Pulitzer Prize winner Rhodes recounts his teenage sexual experiments with other boys and details his adult thrills and failures The eloquence and humor he brings to his task reconfirm his extraordinary ability to explore hard truths and their wide ranging repercussions

Make Love, Not War David Allyn,2016-05-23 When Helen Gurley Brown's Sex and the Single Girl hit bookstores in 1962 the sexual revolution was launched and there was no turning back Soon came the pill the end of censorship the advent of feminism and the rise of commercial pornography Our daily lives changed in an unprecedented time of sexual openness and experimentation Make Love Not War is the first serious treatment of the complicated events ideas and personalities that drove the sexual revolution forward Based on first hand accounts diaries interviews and period research it traces changes in private lives and public discourse from the fearful fifties to the first tremors of rebellion in the early sixties to the heady heyday of the revolution Bringing a fresh perspective to the turbulence of these decades David Allyn argues that the sexual revolutionaries of the 60s and 70s by telling the truth about their own histories and desires forced all Americans to re-examine the very meaning of freedom Written with a historian's attention to nuance and a novelist's narrative drive Make Love Not War is a provocative vivid and thoughtful account of one of the most captivating episodes in American history Also includes an 8 page insert The War Against Cliche Martin Amis,2014-09-17 NATIONAL BOOK CRITICS CIRCLE AWARD WINNER In this virtuosic career spanning collection Martin Amis one of the most gifted novelists of his generation TIME takes on James Joyce and Elvis Presley Nabokov and English football Jane Austen and Penthouse Forum William Burroughs and Hillary Clinton and more Written with intelligence and ardor and panache Speaks not just to a lifetime of reading but also to a fascination with individual writers The New York Times Here Amis serves up fresh assessments of the classics and plucks neglected masterpieces off their dusty shelves Above all Amis is concerned with literature and with the deadly cliches not only of the pen but of the mind and the heart He tilts with Cervantes Dickens and Milton celebrates Bellow Updike and Elmore Leonard and deflates some of the most bloated reputations of the past three decades On every page Amis writes with jaw dropping felicity wit and a subversive brilliance that sheds new light on everything he touches The Making of the Atomic Bomb Richard Rhodes,2012-06-12 Traces the development of the atomic bomb from Leo Szilard's concept through the drama of the race to build a workable device to the dropping of the bomb on Hiroshima Divine Sex Philo Thelos,2003 This modern re-examination of the Bible's references to sex strips away illegitimate religious tradition to reveal that God views sexual pleasure as a blessing to humanity The Films of Jon Garcia Eric B. Olsen,2017-11-02 In just his first five years of filmmaking acclaimed Portland independent director Jon Garcia was able to produce four feature films Eric B Olsen examines the first four films of Garcia's career in order to provide a deeper understanding of works that transcend the limitations of independent filmmaking and to show how they have attained the status of art Part oral history and part film analysis the book provides a detailed textual commentary on Tandem Hearts 2010 the directors first film The Falls 2011 and The Falls Testament of Love 2013 his most well known films and The Hours Till Daylight 2016 The Films of Jon Garcia 2009 2013 takes an in depth look at a writer director who has earned a reputation as one of the Pacific Northwests premier filmmakers Bound to Please Michael Dirda, 2005 A showcase of one hundred of the world s most significant books offers the author s introductory essays on such writers as James Boswell Colette and Joseph Roth and includes explorations of a range of genres and specific works The New Manhood Steve Biddulph, 2019-08-01 The New Manhood by Australia s world renowned family activist Steve Biddulph is the most influential book written for generations on the lives of men For twenty years Steve Biddulph s groundbreaking book Manhood and the revised edition The New Manhood have had a remarkable impact around the world Thousands of men have reconciled with their fathers become more involved with their children rejuvenated their marriages and made sweeping changes to their lives This book explores every aspect of a man s life in an honest and uplifting way love friendship sex marriage raising children spirituality and finding your true work all in plain language and illuminated with powerful real life stories This is the handbook for men of all ages and for the women who love them now with a new foreword by the author Delivering the Male Steve Biddulph is a spellbinder Charles Wooley 60 Minutes I wish Steve Biddulph had been my dad Sam de Brito author of The Lost Boys and Hello Darkness Read this book and you ll make the world a better place Richard Glover author of The Land Before Avocado The world needs New Men Steve Biddulph is a trustworthy guide Noel Giblett relationship counsellor This landmark work is for those who truly want to understand and nurture the men and boys in their lives and for men who want to understand themselves better Maggie Hamilton author of What Men Don t Talk About God Is Not a Homophobe Philo Thelos, 2004 Homosexuality is perhaps the most volatile topic discussed in today s church and society A war rages that will ultimately determine how much civil liberty can be enjoyed by consenting homosexuals and how much religious equality they will be granted Several books already exist attempting to demonstrate that the Christian Bible does not in fact condemn consenting adult homosexuality But God is Not a Homophobe has a unique perspective in that the author has a lifetime of experience in pastoring hard core fundamentalist churches His former bitter opposition to all forms of homosexuality has given way to a rational unbiased acceptance that the Bible says hardly anything about homosexuality and what it does say cannot honestly be used to condemn consenting same sex unions In God Is Not a Homophobe the author examines in detail every Bible verse and every Bible based argument against homosexuality and concludes with a view radically different from what is offered by the modern church His conclusions will surprise many and will surely aggravate and anger many more But he believes the evidence in this book will stand the test of investigation This unbiased look at homosexuality in the Bible gives much food for thought and hopefully much incentive for change in our attitude toward and treatment of those whose sexual orientation is different Masking Selves, Making Subjects Traise Yamamoto, 1999-01-06 This sophisticated and comprehensive study is the first to situate Japanese American women's writing within theoretical contexts that provide a means of articulating the complex relationships between language and the body, gender and agency, nationalism and identity. Through an examination of post World War II autobiographical writings, fiction, and poetry, Tracie Yamamoto argues that these writers have employed the trope of masking textually and psychologically as a strategy to create an alternative discursive practice and to protect the self as subject. Yamamoto's range is broad, and her interdisciplinary approach yields richly textured, in-depth readings of a number of genres, including film and travel narrative. Looking at how the West has sexualized, infantilized, and feminized Japanese culture for over a century, she examines contemporary Japanese American women's struggle with this orientalist fantasy. Analyzing the various constraints and possibilities that these writers negotiate in order to articulate their differences, she shows how masking serves as a self-affirming discourse that dynamically interacts with mainstream culture's racial and sexual projections.
