Making Of Elite Women:

Cultural Diversity in the Armed Forces Joseph L. Soeters, Jan Van der Meulen, 2007-01-24 This book addresses the different ways in which armed forces around the world respond to the cultural diversity of their parent societies ethnicity and gender in particular in order to enhance their quality and legitimacy

Qualitative Analysis in the Making Daniella Kuzmanovic, Andreas Bandak, 2014-10-10 How do scholars transform qualitative data into analysis What does making analysis imply What happens in the space in between data and finalized analysis is notoriously difficult to talk about In other parts of the research process scholars and students are aided by method books that describe the technicalities of generating processing and sorting through data handbooks that teach academic writing and scholarly works that offer meta level theoretical perspectives Yet the path from qualitative data to analysis remains a black box Qualitative Analysis in the Making ventures into this black box The volume provides a means of speaking about how analyses emerge in the Humanities Contributors from disciplines such as anthropology history and sociology of religion all employ an analytical double take They revisit one of their analyses analyzing how this particular analysis came into being Such analyses of an analysis are neither confessions nor step by step recounts of what happened Rather the volume argues that speaking of the space in between requires analytical displacement and the employment of fresh analytical takes This approach contributes to demystifying the path from qualitative data to finalized analysis It invites novel epistemological reflections among scholars and assists students in improving their analytical skills

Make Me a Man! Sikata Banerjee, 2012-02-01 Make Me a Man argues that ideas about manhood play a key role in building and sustaining the modern nation It examines a particular expression of nation and manliness masculine Hinduism This ideal which emerged from India s experience of British imperialism is characterized by martial prowess muscular strength moral fortitude and a readiness to go to battle Embodied in the images of the Hindu soldier and the warrior monk masculine Hinduism is rooted in a rigid us versus them view of nation that becomes implicated in violence and intolerance Masculine Hinduism also has important connotations for women whose roles in this environment consist of the heroic mother chaste wife and celibate masculinized warrior All of these roles shore up the us versus them dichotomy and constrict women s lives by imposing particular norms and encouraging limits on women s freedom Sikata Banerjee notes that the nationalism defined by masculine Hinduism draws on a more general narrative of nation found in many cultures If the outcomes of this narrative are to be resisted the logic of masculinity armed manhood and nation need to be examined in diverse contexts

The Making of a Market Juliette Levy, 2012-01-01 During the nineteenth century Yucatán moved effectively from its colonial past into modernity transforming from a cattle ranching and subsistence farming economy to a booming export oriented agricultural economy Yucatán and its economy grew in response to increasing demand from the United States for henequen the local cordage fiber This henequen boom has often been seen as another regional and historical example of overdependence on foreign markets and extortionary local elites In The Making of a Market Juliette Levy argues instead that local social and economic dynamics are the root of the region's development. She shows how credit markets contributed to the boom before banks and bank crises existed and how people borrowed before the creation of institutions designed specifically to lend. As the intermediaries in this lending process, notaries became unwitting catalysts of Yucatán's capitalist transformation. By focusing attention on the notaries' role in structuring the mortgage market rather than on formal institutions such as banks, this study challenges the easy compartmentalization of local and global relationships and of economic and social relationships. Making Do in Damascus Sally K.

Gallagher, 2012-10-10 Drawing on fieldwork that spans nearly twenty years, Making Do in Damascus offers a rare portrayal of ordinary family life in Damascus, Syria. It explores how women draw on cultural ideals around gender, religion, and family to negotiate a sense of collective and personal identity. Emphasizing the ability of women to manage family relationships creatively within mostly conservative Sunni Muslim households, Gallagher highlights how personal and material resources shape women's choices and constraints concerning education, choice of marriage partner, employment, childrearing, relationships with kin, and the uses and risks of new information technologies. Gallagher argues that taking a nuanced approach toward analyzing women's identity and authority in society allows us to think beyond dichotomies of Damascene women either as oppressed by class and patriarchy or as completely autonomous agents of their own lives. Tracing ordinary women's experiences and ideals across decades of social and economic change, Making Do in Damascus highlights the salience of collective identity, place, and connection within families, as well as resources and regional politics in shaping a generation of families in Damascus. Polygamy Miriam Koktvedgaard Zeitzen, 2020-06-15

Forms of plural marriage or polygamy are practiced within most of the world's cultures and religions. The amazing variation, versatility, and adaptability of polygamy underscore that it is not just an exotic, non-Western practice but also exists in modern Western societies. Polygamy: A Cross-cultural Analysis provides an examination and analysis of historical and contemporary polygamy. It outlines polygamy's place in anthropological theory and its rich sociocultural diversity in countries ranging from the USA and UK to Malaysia, India, regions of Africa, and Tibet. Polygamy also addresses often difficult and controversial issues facing modern polygamists, such as prejudice, HIV/AIDS, and women's emancipation. Polygamy: A Cross-cultural Analysis offers an anthropological overview of the fascinating yet often misunderstood institution of polygamy. Imagining Law: Dale Stephens, Paul

Babie, 2016-10-24 By any measure, Judith Gardam has accomplished much in her professional life and is rightly acknowledged by scholars throughout the world as an expert in her many fields of diverse interest, including international law, energy law, and feminist theory. This book celebrates her academic life and work with twelve essays from leading scholars in Gardam's fields of expertise. The Oxford Handbook of Gender and Conflict Fionnuala Ní Aoláin, Naomi R. Cahn, Dina Francesca

Haynes, Nahla Valji, 2018 The authors focus on the multidimensionality of gender in conflict, yet they also prioritise the experience of women, given both the changing nature of war and the historical de-emphasis on women's experiences. Fifty
