Making Of The President 197:

Arthur J. Goldberg David Stebenne, 1996-05-30 This book is the first biography ever written of Arthur J Goldberg the former labor lawyer Secretary of Labor under Kennedy and Supreme Court justice which post he resigned at the request of Lyndon Johnson to become U S Ambassador to the United Nations who played a leading role in American political life from World War II until the end of the 1960s Goldberg who never wrote memoirs himself shared his thoughts about his life and work with Stebenne in a series of conversations which took place occasionally from the fall of 1981 through to Goldberg s death in 1990 He also allowed Stebenne access to his papers including those held under seal in presidential libraries and at the Library of Congress Based upon these unique sources and written to be accessible to a wide audience Arthur J Goldberg is both the story of a leading American liberal and a history of modern American liberalism The President, the State and the Cold War James Bilslund, 2015-02-11 US foreign policy during the Cold War has been analysed from a number of perspectives generating large bodies of literature attempting to explain its origins its development and its conclusion However there are still many questions left only partially explained In large part this is because these accounts restrict themselves to a single level of analysis either the international system or the structure of the state and society The first level of analysis focusing on the role of individuals has largely been excluded This book argues that structural theories and any approach that limits itself to one level of analysis are inadequate to explain the development of US foreign policy Instead it is necessary to incorporate the first level of analysis in order to bring human agency back and provide a more detailed explanation of US foreign policy Bilslund proposes an analytical framework which incorporates presidential agency into a multi level analysis of US foreign policy during the Cold War constructing a multi level case study comparison of the foreign policies of Presidents Truman and Reagan He argues that the worldview of the president is central to agenda setting in US foreign policy making and that the management style of the president influences both decision making and the implementation of US foreign policy Evidence to support this is drawn from detailed empirical analysis of Truman s foreign policy of containment in Korea and Reagan s foreign policy of rollback in Nicaragua This work will be of interest to students and scholars of US Foreign Policy US History and International Relations Campaigning for President 2016 Dennis W. Johnson, Lara Brown, 2017-07-18 Coming out of one of the most contentious elections in history Dennis Johnson and Lara Brown have assembled an outstanding team of authors to examine one of the fiercest and most closely fought presidential elections of our time Like the 2008 and 2012 editions of Campaigning for President the 2016 edition combines the talents and insights of political scientists who specialize in campaigns and elections together with seasoned political professionals who have been involved in previous presidential campaigns Campaigning for President is the only series on presidential campaigns that features both political scientists and professional consultants This book focuses on the most important questions of this most unusual presidential campaign What was the appeal of Donald Trump Has Twitter and social media become the dominant means of communicating How did fake news WikiLeaks and the Russians factor in this election What happened to the Obama coalition and why couldn t Hillary Clinton capitalize on it Hundreds of millions of Super PAC dollars were raised and spent and much of that was wasted What happened Is the wild west of online media the new norm for presidential contests These and many other questions are answered in the provocative essays by scholars and practitioners The volume also is packed with valuable appendixes a timeline of the presidential race biographical sketches of each candidate a roster of political consultants the primary and general election results exit polls and campaign spending New to the 2016 Edition The 2016 presidential contest brings a completely new set of players policies and electoral challenges Like the 2008 and 2012 editions the authors probe the strategies and tactics of the candidate campaigns and the outside organizations The chapters focus on Donald Trump and Hillary Clinton but also look at the Bernie Sanders insurgency the collapse of the mainstream Republican candidates and the dynamics of the general election Chapters also analyze the changes in campaign finance new technologies the role of social media and how fake news and subterfuge might become the new realities of presidential campaigning
