Making Muslim Space in North America and Europe Barbara Daly Metcalf, 1996-12-18 Focusing on the private and public use of space this volume explores the religious life of the new Muslim communities in North America and Europe Unlike most studies of immigrant groups these essays concentrate on cultural practices and expressions of everyday life rather than on the political issues that dominate today's headlines The authors emphasize the cultural strength and creativity of communities that draw upon Islamic symbols and practices to define Muslim space against the background of a non Muslim environment The range of perspectives is broad encompassing middle class professionals mosque congregations factory workers in France and the north of England itinerant African traders and prison inmates in New York The truism that Islam is a religion of the word takes on concrete meaning as these disparate communities find ways to elaborate word centered ritual and to have the visual and aural presence of sacred words in the spaces they inhabit The volume includes 46 black and white photographs that illustrate Muslim populations in Edmonton Philadelphia the Green Haven Correction Facility Manhattan Marseilles Berlin and London among other places The focus on space directs attention to the new kinds of boundaries and consciousness that exist not only for these Muslim populations but for people from all backgrounds in today's ever more integrated world

Islam and Space in Europe C.J.J. Moses,Tobias Müller,Adela Taleb,2022-09-05 The role of Islam in public spaces is one of the most prevalent political questions in Europe Contestations around the construction of mosques the ban of Islamic veils and populist rhetoric about problematic neighbourhoods indicate Europe s struggles with the place of its second largest religion This book advocates for an analytical turn in the study of Islam in Europe using space as a central conceptual lens While spatial approaches are gaining traction in the study of religion migration ethnicity race and politics the chapters in this book argue that the critical potential of a spatialised analysis in the field of Islam in Europe remains largely unexplored This volume presents a collection of nine empirical studies that offer insights into how scholars might exploit the category of space when analysing both current political issues and broader conceptual questions in the social sciences And more specifically how does a spatial perspective on Islam contribute to a deeper understanding of the formations of the state ethnicity race secularism gender and colonial structures Rethinking Islam and Space in Europe is a significant new contribution to racial and ethnic studies in Europe and will be a great resource for academics researchers and advanced students of Politics Sociology Social and Political Geography Anthropology and Religious Studies The chapters in this book were originally published as a 2021 special issue of Ethnic and Racial Studies Muslims and Others in Sacred Space

Margaret Cormack,2013-01-10 This collection of seven essays offers wide ranging and in depth studies of locations sacred to Muslims of the histories of these sites real or imagined and of the ways in which Muslims and members of other religions have interacted peaceably in sacred times and spaces The volume begins with a discussion by David Damrel of the official hostile Muslim attitude toward practices at shrines in South Asia Lance Laird then presents a case study of a shrine holy to Palestinian Christians who identify its patron as St George as well as to Palestinian Muslims who believe that its patron is al Khadr Ethel Sara Wolper illustrates how al Khadr s patronage was used also to show Muslim connections to Christian sites in Anatolia and JoAnn Gross s essay explores oral and written traditions linking shrines in Tajikistan to traditional Muslim locations and figures A chapter by the late Thomas Sizgorich examines how Christian and Muslim authors used monastic settings to reimagine the relationship between the two religions and Alexandra Cuffel offers a study of attitudes towards the mixing of religious groups in religious festivals in eleventh to sixteenth century Egypt Finally Eric Ross shows how the Layenne Sufi order incorporates a singular combination of Christian and Muslim figures and festivals in its history and practices Muslims and Others in Sacred Space will be an invaluable resource to anyone interested in the complex meanings of sacred sites in Muslim history Sites and Politics of Religious Diversity in Southern Europe Ruy Blanes, José Mapril, 2013-07-11 In recent years the Southern borders of Europe have become landmarks for the mediatic and academic verve regarding the migration and diasporas towards and beyond Schengen Europe In these debates religion is acknowledged as playing a central role in the recognition of major societal changes in the continent being object of political concern and attention from the recognition of plural forms of Christianity to the debates on a European Islam Yet in this respect what goes on around the borders of Portugal Spain Italy or Greece is still largely uncharted and un debated With the contribution of renowned anthropologists sociologists and religious studies scholars this book critically presents and discusses case studies on the sites and politics of religious diversity in Southern Europe including the impact of migrant religiosity in national and EU politics Contributors include Anna Fedele Barbara Bertolani Clara Saraiva Cristina Sanchez Carretero Ester Gallo Eugenia Roussou Fabio Peroco Inam Leghari Jos Mapril Katerine Seraidari Maria Del Mar Grieria Manuela Canton Delgado Nora Repo Ramon Sarr Ruy Blanes Sandra Santos Silvia Sai Trine Staunig Willert and Virtudes Tellez Delgado Muslim Networks and Transnational Communities in and Across Europe Stefano Allievi, Jørgen S. Nielsen, 2003 This collection of twelve papers provides case studies and thematic reflections on the growing transnational networking of European Muslims and their involvement with contemporary global Islam The volume pays particular attention to the mechanisms and significance of this phenomenon Muslims at the Margins of Europe Tuomas Martikainen, José Mapril, Adil Hussain Khan, 2019-07-29 This volume focuses on Muslims in Finland Greece Ireland and Portugal representing the four corners of the European Union today It highlights how Muslim experiences can be understood in relation to a country's particular historical routes political economies colonial and post colonial legacies as well as other factors such as church state relations the role of secularism and urbanisation This volume also reveals the incongruous nature of the fact that national particularities shaping European Muslim experiences cannot be understood independently of European and indeed global dynamics This makes it even more important to consider every national context when analysing patterns in European Islam especially those that have yet to be fully elaborated The chapters in this volume demonstrate the contradictory dynamics of European Muslim contexts that are simultaneously distinct yet similar to the now familiar ones of Western Europe's most populous countries Muslim American City Alisa Perkins, 2020-07-07 Explores how Muslim Americans test the boundaries of American pluralism In 2004 the al Islah Islamic Center in Hamtramck Michigan set off a contentious controversy when it requested permission to use loudspeakers to broadcast the adh n or Islamic call to prayer The issue gained international notoriety when media outlets from around the world flocked to the city to report on what had become a civil battle between religious tolerance and Islamophobic sentiment The Hamtramck council voted unanimously to allow mosques to broadcast the adh n making it one of the few US cities to officially permit it through specific legislation Muslim American City explores how debates over Muslim Americans use of both public and political space have challenged and ultimately reshaped the boundaries of urban belonging Drawing on more than ten years of ethnographic research in Hamtramck which boasts one of the largest concentrations of Muslim residents of any American city Alisa Perkins shows how the Muslim American population has grown and asserted itself in public life She explores for example the efforts of Muslim American women to maintain gender norms in neighborhoods mosques and schools as well as Muslim Americans efforts to organize public responses to municipal initiatives Her in depth fieldwork incorporates the perspectives of both Muslims and non Muslims including Polish Catholics African American Protestants and other city residents Drawing particular attention to Muslim American expressions of religious and cultural identity in civil life particularly in response to discrimination and stereotyping Perkins questions the popular assumption that the religiosity of Muslim minorities hinders their capacity for full citizenship in secular societies She shows how Muslims and non Muslims have through their negotiations over the issues over the use of space together invested Muslim practice with new forms of social capital and challenged nationalist and secularist notions of belonging

Multifaith Spaces Terry Biddington,2020-09-21 Multifaith spaces reflect the diversity of the modern world and enable a connection between individuals from different religious backgrounds These spaces also highlight the complex and sensitive areas of political and social debates regarding the emergence of densely urbanised populations They hold the potential to encourage connection and dialogue between members of different communities promoting empathy community and shared activity for the betterment of society This book explores the history development design and practicalities of multifaith spaces from the early shared religious buildings that had to cater for two or more faiths to the shared multifaith spaces of modern secular locations such as universities airports and hospitals Terry Biddington looks at the architectural theological social legal and practical complexities that arise from the development and use of such spaces The book also draws together research to enable further development of multifaith spaces
