Making Of A Nation In The Balkans:

Making and Remaking the Balkans Robert C. Austin, 2019-01-01 With more than 25 years since the collapse of communism the end of the wars and billions of dollars in aid the Balkans are still characterized by corruption state capture and decidedly unmodern states that are often either weak or authoritarian Taking the contemporary Balkans as a starting point Making and Remaking the Balkans studies the region's history combined with observations based on more than twenty years of field experience Primarily concerned with current issues in the Balkans since 1989 this book explains why the region has endured such a prolonged and fraught transition to democracy and eventual membership in the European Union The young and educated have largely left Governmental crisis and economic stagnation is the norm and much needed regional cooperation has been suppressed by renewed nationalism Wars on corruption have proved to be largely rhetorical Making and Remaking the Balkans offers a systematic study of the issues the entire region faces as it struggles to complete the European integration process at a time when the European Union faces bigger problems elsewhere Humanitarian intervention in the long nineteenth century Alexis Heraclides, Ada Dialla, 2015-07-01 This book is a comprehensive presentation of humanitarian intervention in theory and practice during the course of the nineteenth century Through four case studies it sheds new light on the international law debate and the political theory on intervention linking them to ongoing issues and paying particular attention to the lesser known Russian dimension The book begins by tracing the genealogy of the idea of humanitarian intervention to the Renaissance evaluating the Eurocentric gaze of the civilisation barbarity dichotomy and elucidates the international legal arguments of both advocates and opponents of intervention as well as the views of major political theorists It then goes on to examine four cases as humanitarian interventions the Greek War of Independence 1821-31 the Lebanon and Syria 1860-61 the Bulgarian atrocities 1876-78 and the U S intervention in Cuba 1895-98 Humanitarian intervention in the long nineteenth century will be of benefit to scholars and students of international relations international history international law and international political theory An electronic edition of this book is freely available under a Creative Commons CC BY NC ND licence Imagining Europe Michael J. Wintle, 2008 The authors of this research collection are not so much interested in what Europe thinks of itself but rather what others think of it They take a number of scenarios from recent history and examine how Europe has appeared to people in other parts of the world America China the Arab world for example Nationalism, National Identity and Conflict in Southeast Europe: Towards a Comparative Approach Alexis Heraclides, 2025-07-10 Looking into the intricate relationship between nationalism national identity and conflict this book offers a comparative approach to understanding the enduring tensions in Southeast Europe Alexis Heraclides examines the complex dynamics of five nations Albanians Bulgarians Greeks Macedonians and Turks and four key axis of conflicts Greece and Turkey Greece and Macedonia Bulgaria and Macedonia and Greece and Albania Through in depth analysis the Heraclides explores how historical narratives and the denial of other's identities fuel protracted rivalry and hinder conflict resolution in the region From the roots of national identity formation to the manifestations of us versus them mentalities this work sheds light on the critical interplay between identity and foreign policy This study is essential for scholars and anyone seeking to understand the deep seated nationalisms that continue to shape the political landscape of Southeast Europe Contents Chapter 1 Foreign policy analysis updated towards the nationalist identity and conflict nexus 3 PART I Ethnogenesis Greeks Bulgarians Albanians Turks and Macedonians 13 Chapter 2 Greek nationalism identity and narrative 19 Chapter 3 Bulgarian Nationalism Identity and narrative 39 Chapter 4 Albanian nationalism identity and narrative 59 Chapter 5 Turkish nationalism national identity and narrative 79 Chapter 6 Macedonian nationalism and national identity 95 PART II National Identity and Conflict four case studies 119 Chapter 7 Greece and Turkey a classic conflict of national identities and historical narratives 123 Chapter 8 Greece and Macedonia national identities and narratives and the non acceptance of the Other 157 Chapter 9 Bulgaria and Macedonia non acceptance of the Other and national identities and narratives 195 Chapter 10 Greece and Albania entanglements national identity and historical narrative 229 In lieu of a conclusion 267 Bibliography 271

Normalizing the Balkans Dušan I. Bjelic, 2016-05-23 Normalizing the Balkans argues that following the historical patterns of colonial psychoanalysis and psychiatry in British India and French Africa as well as Nazi psychoanalysis and psychiatry the psychoanalysis and psychiatry of the Balkans during the 1990s deployed the language of psychic normality to represent the space of the Other as insane geography and to justify its military or its symbolic takeover Freud s self analysis influenced by his journeys through the Balkans was a harbinger of orientalism as articulated by Said However whereas Said intended Orientalism to be a critique of the historical construction of the Orient by and in relation to the West for Freud it constituted a medical and psychic truth Freud s self orientalizing became the structural foundation of psychoanalytic language which had tragic consequences in the Balkans when a demonic conjunction developed between the ingrained self orientalizing structure of psychoanalysis and the Balkans own propensity for self orientalizing In the 1990s in the ex Yugoslav cultural space psychoanalytic language was used by the Serb psychiatrist politicians Drs Ra kovic and Karadzic as conceptual justification for inter ethnic violence Kristeva s discourse on abject geography and Zizek s conceptualization of the Balkans as the Real have done violence to the region in an intellectual register on behalf of universal subjectivity Following Gramsci s and Said s discourse geography Bjelic transmutes the psychoanalytic topos of the imaginary geography of the Balkans into the geopolitics inherent in psychoanalytic language itself and takes to task the practices of normalization that underpin the Balkans politics of madness

The Balkans Nevill Forbes, 1915 The Balkans and Caucasus Ivan Biliarsky, Ovidiu Cristea, Anca Oroveanu, 2012-01-17 The overall character of the Black Sea region has been defined over time in various ways For specialists in economy and trade it has represented a region at the crossroads of the trade routes between Europe and Asia for political scientists and historians it has been a space of confrontation between the great terrestrial and naval powers for the scholars attentive to its cultural dimensions it has been a contact zone a space of interaction between different peoples religions and cultures These attempts at a definition all revolve around an essential and ambivalent feature of the Black Sea as a factor of connection a bridge and at the same time a border a dividing line between Europe and Asia between the Baltic and the Mediterranean region In this fluctuation between the two the predominance of one over the other bridge or border has depended on a number of factors first among them the distribution of power relations in the region This volume which originated in a symposium hosted by the New Europe College Institute for Advanced Study in Bucharest brings together contributions coming from scholars within the Black Sea region and outside it in an attempt to look at the Balkans and Caucasus from a comparative and multi disciplinary perspective highlighting their differences as well as their common features The overarching question this volume and the papers included in it address and leave open is to what extent we are dealing with a coherent zone whose past present and future can legitimately be considered as being traversed by meaningful interrelations suggesting a shared destiny The Balkans D. Hupchick, 2002-01-11 The tragedies of Bosnia and Kosovo are often explained away as the unchangeable legacy of centuries old hatreds In this richly detailed expertly balanced chronicle of the Balkans across fifteen centuries Hupchick sets a complicated record straight Organized around the three great civilizations of the region Western European Orthodox Christian and Muslim this is a much needed guide to the political social cultural and religious threads of Balkan history with a clear convincing account of the reasons for nationalist violence
