Moving In Cities:

Moving Cities - Contested Views on Urban Life Lúcia Ferro, Marta Smagacz-Poziemska, M. Victoria Gómez, Sebastian Kurtenbach, Patrícia Pereira, Juan José Villalón, 2017-08-03 The texts of the book focus on the problems and challenges of urban change especially in Europe in the contemporary context of intense mobility The main topics are mobility urban social structure migrations urban inequalities urban activism community neighbourhood life uses of public spaces and methodological approaches to urban life such as ethnography

Moving People Peter Cox, 2010-03-11 The local and global environmental impacts of transport are more apparent than ever before Moving People provides an attention grabbing introduction to the problems of transport and the development of sustainable alternatives focusing on the often misunderstood issue of personal mobility as opposed to freight Re assessing the value and importance of non motorized transport the author raises questions about mobility in the face of climate change and energy security particularly for the developing world Featuring original case studies from across the globe this book is essential for anyone studying or working in the area of environmental sustainability and transport policy

Moving People Louise Spilsbury, 2006 It might be hard for most of us to imagine but the first people on Earth did not have a place to call home They followed herds of animals that they hunted for meat and fur They ate fruit and leaves that they gathered along the way They lived in temporary shelters such as caves and never stayed in one place for long Read this title to find out more about where people live in the world and why some people move from one place to another

Unsettling Cities John Allen, Doreen Massey, Michael Pryke, 2005-08-12 This text examines the global nature of cities cities whose openness has shaped their dynamism and character It explores cities as sites of movement migration and settlement where different peoples cultures and environments combine Unsettling Cities explores the mix of proximity and difference that exists in the rich and diverse texture of city life The contributors reveal the association between the changing fortunes of cities and the power and influence of global networks

OECD Regional Outlook 2021 Addressing COVID-19 and Moving to Net Zero Greenhouse Gas Emissions OECD, 2021-05-05 The COVID 19 crisis has revealed the close relationship between environmental risks and those to the foundations of human well being and the cascading effects on the economy and society It has also highlighted the importance of anticipation and early action These are also key to integrating climate policy into regional development albeit on a larger scale
