Moving Places A Life At The Movies:

Moving Places Jonathan Rosenbaum, 1995-03-24 I would number Moving Places among a handful of truly classic books about film James Naremore author of Acting in the Cinema Placing Movies Jonathan Rosenbaum, 2023-09-01 Jonathan Rosenbaum longtime contributor to such publications as Film Quarterly Sight and Sound and The Village Voice is arguably the most eloquent insightful film critic writing in America today Placing Movies the first collection of his work gathers together thirty of his most distinctive and illuminating pieces Written over a span of twenty one years these essays cover an extraordinarily broad range of films from Hollywood blockbusters to foreign art movies to experimental cinema They include not just reviews but perceptive commentary on directors actors and trends and thoughtful analysis of the practice of film criticism It is this last element Rosenbaum s reflections on the art of film criticism that sets this collection apart from other volumes of film writing Both in the essays themselves and in the section introductions Rosenbaum provides a rare insider s view of his profession the backstage politics the formulation of critical judgments the function of film commentary Taken together these pieces serve as a guided tour of the profession of film criticism They also serve as representative samples of Rosenbaum s unique brand of film writing Among the highlights are memoirs of director Jacques Tati and maverick critic Manny Farber celebrations of classics such as Gentlemen Prefer Blondes and The Manchurian Candidate and considered reevaluations of Orson Welles and Woody Allen Jonathan Rosenbaum longtime contributor to such publications as Film Quarterly Sight and Sound and The Village Voice is arguably the most eloquent insightful film critic writing in America today Placing Movies the first collect The Cult Film Reader Mathijs, Ernest, Mendik, Xavier, 2007-12-01 An invaluable collection for anyone researching or teaching cult cinema The Cult Film Reader is an authoritative text that should be of value to any student or researcher interested in challenging and transgressive cinema that pushes the boundaries of conventional cinema and film studies Science Fiction Film and Television A really impressive and comprehensive collection of the key writings in the field The editors have done a terrific job in drawing together the various traditions and providing a clear sense of this rich and rewarding scholarly terrain This collection is as wild and diverse as the films that it covers Fascinating Mark Jancovich Professor of Film and Television Studies University of East Anglia UK It s about time the lunatic fans and loyal theorists of cult movies were treated to a book they can call their own The effort and knowledge contained in The Cult Film Reader will satisfy even the most ravenous zombie s desire for detail and insight This book will gnaw scratch and infect you just like the cult films themselves Brett Sullivan Director of Ginger Snaps Unleashed and The Chair The Cult Film Reader is a great film text book and a fun read John Landis Director of The Blues Brothers An American Werewolf in London and Michael Jackson s Thriller Excellent overview of the subject and a comprehensive collection of significant scholarship in the field of cult film Very impressive and long overdue Steven Rawle York St John University UK Whether defined by horror kung fu sci fi sexploitation kitsch musical or weird world cinema cult movies and their global followings are emerging as a distinct subject of film and media theory dedicated to dissecting the world's unruliest images. This book is the world's first reader on cult film. It brings together key works in the field on the structure, form, status, and reception of cult cinema traditions. Including work from key established scholars in the field such as Umberto Eco, Janet Staiger, Jeffrey Sconce, Henry Jenkins, and Barry Keith Grant, as well as new perspectives on the gradually developing canon of cult cinema, the book not only presents an overview of ways in which cult cinema can be approached, it also reassesses the methods used to study the cult text and its audiences. With editors' introductions to the volume and to each section, the book is divided into four clear thematic areas of study: The Conceptions of Cult, Cult Case Studies, National and International Cults, and Cult Consumption, to provide an accessible overview of the topic. It also contains an extensive bibliography for further related readings. Written in a lively and accessible style, The Cult Film Reader dissects some of the biggest trends, icons, auteurs, and periods of global cult film production. Films discussed include Casablanca, The Rocky Horror Picture Show, Eraserhead, The Texas Chainsaw Massacre, Showgirls, and Ginger Snaps. The Films of Fritz Lang Tom Gunning, 2019-07-25 In this volume, Tom Gunning examines the films of Fritz Lang not only as a stylistically coherent body of work but as an attempt to portray the modern world through cinema. The world of modernity, in which systems replace individuals, is conveyed by Lang's mastery of cinematic set design, composition, and editing. Lang presents not only a decades-long vision of cinematic narrative, which can be compared to that of Alfred Hitchcock or Jean Renoir, but a view of modernity that relates strongly to the ideas of Adorno, Brecht, Benjamin, and Kracauer. From the sweeping allegorical films of the 20s to the chilly and abstract thrillers of the 50s, Lang's films, Gunning claims, are among the most precious records of the twentieth century. The Films of Fritz Lang immeasurably enriches our understanding of a great artist and, in so doing, reimagines what a film artist is: an author who fades away even in being recognised and interpreted, an enigmatic figure at the junction of aesthetics, history, biography, and theory.

Movie Mutations Jonathan Rosenbaum, Adrian Martin, 2019-07-25 The idea of cinephilia is a crucial one for students of the cinema, but it is often associated with a bygone arthouse era. At the beginning of the twenty-first century, corporatism, public relations, and bottom-line accounting seem to govern mainstream film-making. Formula-driven Hollywood blockbusters dominate the world marketplace. In times like these, can the love of cinema still flourish? In fact, contemporary cinema is stunningly varied and rich. From Taiwan and Iran to Brazil and the Baltic states, it is flourishing and constantly mutating. Directors like Abbas Kiarostami, Hou Hsiao-hsien, and Tsai Ming-liang are making extraordinary films that are the equal of the great classics previously unrecognised works from the past are being discovered and new definitions and boundaries of genres are being formulated Even when this work is not widely distributed it is seen at film festivals on every continent and available on DVD and it is being discussed in a proliferating number of print and web publications Those who follow and share such work as contributors from around the world demonstrate in this book are forming new kinds of critical communities that enable significant exchanges between cultures at a time when other forces seem bent on keeping them mutually isolated In contrast to any talk of the death of cinema Movie Mutations pronounces the art form alive well and still developing in new and unforeseen directions In weaving together transnational discussions and debates Movie Mutations shows why the idea of cinephilia is just as relevant today as it ever was Exhibition, the Film Reader Ina Rae Hark, 2002

From the kinoscope used by one viewer at a time to the lavish movie palaces of Hollywood's golden era the experience of watching films has varied enormously across film Exhibition The Film Reader traces the emergence of a culture of moviegoing exploring the range of venues in which films have been shown and following the fluctuating status of film and the continuing struggle over audiences Teaching Sound Film R. J. Cardullo, 2016-10-26 Teaching Sound Film A Reader is a film analysis and criticism textbook that contains 35 essays on 35 geographically diverse historically significant sound films The countries represented here are France Italy England Belgium Russia India China Cuba Germany Japan Russia Romania Czechoslovakia Brazil Taiwan Austria Afghanistan South Korea Finland Burkina Faso Mexico Iran Israel Colombia and the United States The directors represented include Jean Renoir Orson Welles Akira Kurosawa Federico Fellini Woody Allen Aki Kaurismäki Ken Loach Tomás Gutiérrez Alea Abbas Kiarostami Michael Haneke and Hong Sang-soo Written with university students and possibly also advanced high school students in mind the essays in Teaching Sound Film A Reader cover some of the central films treated and central issues raised in today's cinema courses and provide students with practical models to help them improve their own writing and analytical skills These essays are clear and readable that is sophisticated and meaty yet not overly technical or jargon heavy This makes them perfect introductions to their respective films as well as important contributions to the field of film studies in general Moreover this book's scholarly apparatus features credits images bibliographies for all films discussed filmographies for all the directors a list of topics for writing and discussion a glossary of film terms and an appendix containing three essays respectively on film acting avant garde cinema and theater vs film

Cinematic Encounters 2 Jonathan Rosenbaum, 2019-05-30 Eschewing the idea of film reviewer as solitary expert Jonathan Rosenbaum continues to advance his belief that a critic's ideal role is to mediate and facilitate our public discussion of cinema Portraits and Polemics presents debate as an important form of cinematic encounter whether one argues with filmmakers themselves on behalf of their work or with one's self Rosenbaum takes on filmmakers like Chantal Akerman Richard Linklater Manoel de Oliveira Mark Rappaport Elaine May and Bela Tarr He also engages implicitly and explicitly with other writers arguing with Pauline Kael and Wikipedia over Jacques Demy with the Hollywood Reporter and Variety reviewers of Jarmusch's The Limits of Control with David Thomson about James L. Brooks and with many American and English film critics about misrepresented figures from Jerry Lewis to Yasujiro Ozu to Orson Welles. Throughout, Rosenbaum mines insights, pursues pet notions, and invites readers to join the fray. Goodbye Cinema, Hello Cinephilia Jonathan Rosenbaum, 2010-10-15 1 Position Papers 2 Actors Actors Writers Directors Filmmakers 3 Films 4 Criticism American Film Now James Monaco, 1984
