Mozambique Moments:

African Women's Health Meredeth Turshen, 2000 This critical collection engages many of the health problems of greatest concern to most African women today death during pregnancy and the need for assistance in childbirth the spread of the AIDS epidemic mental illness and domestic violence which appears to be increasing along with civil unrest and war the persistence of harmful practices such as female genital mutilation and the impact of structural adjustment programmes on health and access to health care

Portuguese Decolonization in the Indian Ocean World Pamila Gupta, 2018-10-18 Pamila Gupta takes a unique approach to examining decolonization processes across Lusophone India and Southern Africa focusing on Goa Mozambique Angola and South Africa weaving together case studies using five interconnected themes Gupta considers decolonization through the twined lenses of history and ethnography accessed through written oral visual and eyewitness accounts of how people experienced the transfer of state power She looks at the materiality of decolonization as a movement of peoples across vast oceanic spaces demonstrating how it was a process of dispossession for both the Portuguese formerly in power and ordinary colonial citizens and subjects She then discusses the production of race and class anxieties during decolonization which took on a variety of forms but were often articulated through material objects The book aims to move beyond linear histories of colonial independence by connecting its various regions using the theme of decolonization offering a productive and new approach to writing post national histories and ethnographies Finally Gupta demonstrates the value of using different source materials to access narratives of decolonization analyzing the work of Mozambican photographer Ricardo Rangel and including lyrical prose and ethnographical observations Portuguese Decolonization in the Indian Ocean World provides a nuanced understanding of Lusophone decolonization revealing the perspectives of people who experienced it This book will be highly valuable for historians of the Indian Ocean world and decolonization but also those interested in ethnography diaspora studies and material culture

The Enough Moment John Prendergast, Don Cheadle, 2010-09-07 Had Enough Join activists organizations and celebrities to fight human rights crimes in Africa Human rights activist John Prendergast and Oscar nominated actor Don Cheadle bring us an empowering and hopeful new book as they reveal the steps being taken by engaged citizens Upstanders famous and unknown here and abroad to combat genocide rape and child soldierdom in Africa and show how you can be a part of the movement Learn how a high school student in Chicago rallied fellow students all over his city to raise awareness of genocide a former child soldier in Uganda formed a group of others like him to aid in reconciliation and a mother and teacher gang raped by soldiers in Congo found strength to help other survivors John and Don present ways for you to form alliances contact Congress alert the media enlist corporations and use social media to become part of the solution Featuring testimonies and interviews with Ben Affleck Madeleine Albright Emmanuelle Chriqui Sheryl Crow Ann Curry Annie Duke Dave Eggers Mia Farrow Ryan Gosling Mariska Hargitay Emile Hirsch Iman Angelina Jolie Nicholas Kristof Joel Madden Nicole Richie Martin Sheen Robin Wright As well as a number of members of Congress and many others making a difference Why Peacekeeping Fails D. Jett, 2000-03-01

Dennis C Jett examines why peacekeeping operations fail by comparing the unsuccessful attempt at peacekeeping in Angola with the successful effort in Mozambique alongside a wide range of other peacekeeping experiences The book argues that while the causes of past peacekeeping failures can be identified the chances for success will be difficult to improve because of the way such operations are initiated and conducted and the way the United Nations operates as an organization Jett reviews the history of peacekeeping and the evolution in the number size scope and cost of peacekeeping missions He also explains why peacekeeping has become more necessary possible and desired and yet at the same time more complex more difficult and less frequently used The book takes a hard look at the UN's actions and provides useful information for understanding current conflicts The Portuguese Colonial War and the African Liberation Struggles Miguel

Cardina, 2023-09-14 The Portuguese Colonial War and the African Liberation Struggles Memory Politics and Uses of the Past presents a critical and comparative analysis on the memory of the colonial and liberation wars that led to a regime change in Portugal and to the independence of five new African countries Angola Mozambique Guinea Bissau Cape Verde and S o Tom and Pr ncipe Covering more than six decades and based on original archival research and critical analysis of sources and interviews the book offers the first plural account of the public memorialisation of this contested past in Portugal and in former colonised territories in Africa focussing on diachronic and synchronic processes of mnemonic production This innovative exercise highlights the changing and crossed nature of political memories and social representations through time emphasizing three modes of mnemonic intersections the intersection of distinct historical times the intersection between multiple products and practices of memory and the intersection connecting the different countries and national histories The Portuguese Colonial War and the African Liberation Struggles Memory Politics and Uses of the Past a major output of the research developed by CROME Crossed Memories Politics of Silence a project funded by a Starting Grant 715593 from the European Research Council ERC The book advances current knowledge on Portugal and Lusophone Africa and deepens ongoing conceptual and epistemological discussions regarding the relationship between social and individual memories the dialectics between memory power and silence and the uses and representations of the past in postcolonial states and societies The Open Access version of this book available at www.taylorfrancis.com has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution NonCommercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4 0 license Translations on Sub-Saharan Africa

United States. Joint Publications Research Service, 1976 Mozambique's Samora Machel Allen F. Isaacman, Barbara S. Isaacman, 2020-09-08 The precipitous rise and controversial fall of a formidable African leader Samora Machel 1933 1986 the son of small town farmers led his people through a war against their Portuguese colonists and became the first president of the People's Republic of Mozambique Machel's military successes against a colonial regime backed by South Africa Rhodesia the United States and its NATO allies enhanced his reputation as a revolutionary hero to the oppressed people of Southern Africa In 1986 during the country's civil war Machel died in a plane crash under circumstances that remain uncertain Allen and Barbara Isaacman lived through many of these changes in Mozambique and bring personal recollections together with archival research and interviews with others who knew Machel or participated in events of the revolutionary or post revolutionary years
