Mr Personality Mark Singer, 1990-10-01 Mr. Personality Mark Singer, 1989 Beauty Queens on the Global Stage Colleen Ballerion Cohen, Richard Wilk, Beverly Stoeltje, 2013-09-13

Modern beauty contests were invented by P. T. Barnum in the United States, but in the 20th century pageants and contests have spread across the entire world, from Nepal to Tierra Del Fuego. Why are women, and sometimes men in drag, parading on stage, such a universally appealing spectacle, attracting an audience in the billions? This book is the first global comparison of pageants from different parts of the world, at the ways each contest is both intensely local and unique and simultaneously global and remarkable. The authors use the latest tools of feminist ethnographic and literary scholarship to unpack and interpret one of the greatest and most universal spectacles of modern times.

Fashioning Models Joanne Entwistle, Elizabeth Wissinger, 2013-07-18 The fashion model's hold on popular consciousness is undeniable. How did models emerge as such powerful icons in modern consumer culture? This volume brings together cutting-edge articles on fashion models, examining modelling through race, class, and gender, as well as its structure as an aesthetic marketplace within the global fashion economy. Essays include treatments of the history of fashion modelling, exploring how concerns about racial purity and the idealization of light-skinned black women shaped the practice of modelling in its early years. Other essays examine how models have come to define femininity through consumer culture. While modelling's global nature is addressed throughout, chapters deal specifically with model markets in Australia and Tokyo where nationalist concerns colour what is considered a pretty face It also considers how models glamorize consumption through everyday activities and neoliberal labour forms via reality TV With commentaries from industry professionals who experienced the cultural juggernaut of the supermodels the final essay situates their impact within the rise of brand culture and the globalization of fashion markets since 1990 Accessible and highly engaging Fashioning Models is essential reading for students and scholars of fashion and related disciplines Review of Child Development Research Lois Wladis Hoffman, Martin L.
