

The background of the book cover is a painting of a golf course. In the foreground, a green fairway with mowed stripes leads towards a body of water. On the left, a large, dark green tree stands prominently. On the right, a cluster of similar trees is visible. In the middle ground, a small group of people, including a man in a red shirt and a woman in a blue dress, are standing near the water's edge. The sky is light blue with soft, white clouds. The title 'Mrs. Tim Flies Home' is written in a black, elegant script font across the upper portion of the painting. A small, dark silhouette of an airplane is visible in the sky to the right of the title.

Mrs Tim of the Regiment D.E Stevenson,2011-07-01

The classic comic novel based on the author's real experiences as the wife of a British Army officer in the 1920s. The writer's unflagging humour, her shrewd worldly wisdom and her extremely realistic pictures of garrison life make it all good reading. The delightful Times Literary Supplement. Stevenson has spiced this tale of British army life with an unobtrusive effortless wit which often proves deceptively sharp. New York Times _____ Vivacious young Hester Christie tries to run her home like clockwork as would befit the wife of British Army officer Tim Christie. However hard Mrs Tim strives for seamless living amidst the other army wives she is always moving flat out to remember groceries, rule lively children, side step village gossip and placate her husband with bacon, eggs, toast and marmalade. Left alone for months at a time whilst her husband is with his regiment, Mrs Tim resolves to keep a diary of events large and small in her family life. Once pen is set to paper, no affairs of the head or heart are overlooked. When a move to a new regiment in Scotland uproots the Christie family, Mrs Tim is hurled into a whole new drama of dilemmas from settling in with a new set whilst her husband is away to disentangling a dear friend from an unsuitable match. Against the wild landscape of surging rivers, sheer rocks and rolling mists who should stride into Mrs Tim's life one day but the dashing Major Morley, hellbent on pursuit of our charming heroine. And Hester will soon find that life holds unexpected crossroads. _____

Mrs Tim of the Regiment is part of The Bloomsbury Group, a new library of books from the early twentieth century chosen by readers for readers. Mrs. Tim Flies Home Dorothy Emily Stevenson,1952. Mrs Tim flies home from Africa after a prolonged stay with her husband after the war's end. She rents a house in Old Quinings and unravels a mystery about her house and the town schoolteacher. She also traps a human bull by the horns. Hester's children are growing into adults and she discovers that a friend is romantically interested in her daughter Betty. This is the fourth installment of D E Stevenson's pseudo biography character Hester.
