Encyclopedia of Nineteenth-Century Photography John Hannavy, 2013-12-16 The Encyclopedia of Nineteenth Century Photography is the first comprehensive encyclopedia of world photography up to the beginning of the twentieth century. It sets out to be the standard definitive reference work on the subject for years to come. Its coverage is global, an important first in that authorities from all over the world have contributed their expertise and scholarship towards making this a truly comprehensive publication. The Encyclopedia presents new and ground breaking research alongside accounts of the major established figures in the nineteenth century arena. Coverage includes all the key people, processes, equipment, movements, styles, debates, and groupings which helped photography develop from being a solution in search of a problem when first invented to the essential communication tool, creative medium, and recorder of everyday life which it had become by the dawn of the twentieth century. The sheer breadth of coverage in the 1200 essays makes the Encyclopedia of Nineteenth Century Photography an essential reference source for academics, students, researchers, and libraries worldwide.

Alphonse Mucha Photographs Graham Ovenden, 1974 Masters of Photography Daniela Mrázková, 1987 How Do We Look? Fatimah Tobing Rony, 2021-10-18 In How Do We Look, Fatimah Tobing Rony draws on transnational images of Indonesian women as a way to theorize what she calls visual biopolitics: the ways visual representation determines which lives are made to matter more than others. Rony outlines the mechanisms of visual biopolitics by examining Paul Gauguin's 1893 portrait of Anna la Javanaise, a trafficked thirteen-year-old girl found wandering the streets of Paris, as well as US ethnographic and documentary films. In each instance, the figure of the Indonesian woman is inextricably tied to discourses of primitivism, savagery, colonialism, exoticism, and genocide. Rony also focuses on acts of resistance to visual biopolitics in film, writing, and photography. These works, such as Rachmi Diah Larasati's The Dance that Makes You Vanish, Vincent Monnikendam's Mother Dao (1995), and the collaborative films of Nia Dinata, challenge the naturalized methods of seeing that justify exploitation, dehumanization, and early death of people of color. By theorizing the mechanisms of visual biopolitics, Rony elucidates both its violence and its vulnerability.

The Artist as Photographer Marina Vaizy, 1982 Theresienstadt: Film Fragments and Testimonies Lara Pellner, Hans-Georg Soeffner, Marija Stanisavljević, 2024-09-25 In the ghetto, transit, and concentration camp Theresienstadt, film recordings were made with the forced participation of the deportees and became known under the title Theresienstadt: A Documentary from the Jewish Settlement Area. As a particularly perfidious part of National Socialist propaganda, these recordings continue to have an impact to the present day. Deniers of the National Socialist genocide still refer to this film today. In this anthology, the special position of Theresienstadt is examined on various levels. In addition to the analysis of eyewitness interviews, sociological, philosophical, and historiographical reflections on the circumstances, conditions, and peculiarities of Terezin are included.
