21st Century Girls Sue Palmer,2013-03-07 An absolute must have parenting guide to raising girls in the 21st century An excellent book Vanessa Feltz Required reading for all parents teachers and grandparents DAILY MAIL There can be no keener revelation of a country s soul than the way it treats its children Nelson Mandela Childhood as a stage in human development has been steadily eroded Children today are introduced to 21st century adult values and behaviour at an increasingly early age long before they are developmentally ready to cope with them We expend immense time and effort attending to their material needs while simultaneously neglecting their developmental needs In this important polemic Sue Palmer believes that if we do not get a grip on this problem soon the increase in developmental disorders behavioural difficulties and mental health problems recorded by experts over recent decades will soon spiral out of control Sue discusses challenges faced in the 21st century including the problems facing parents in an age of materialism the way gender wars have intensified those problems the debate about the female brain the reasons why contemporary culture can be so damaging for children especially girls the challenges involved in detoxifying family life Every parent grandparent teacher and carer of girls needs to read this book

Children's English in Singapore Sarah Buschfeld, 2019-12-06 Combining the World Englishes framework with First Language Acquisition methodology this book investigates children's acquisition of L1 English in the context of multilingual Singapore one of the traditional Kachruvian Outer Circle or ESL countries The book investigates language choice use and dominance in Singaporean families identifies common linguistic characteristics of L1 Singapore English as well as the acquisitional route that Singaporean children take It discusses characteristics at the different levels of language organization i.e. phonological morphosyntactic lexical and pragmatic features drawing on a variety of systematically elicited data and Praat based acoustic analyses Comparing the results to similar data obtained from children living in England both mono and bi multilingual the book also sheds light on how the acquisitional steps taken by Singaporean children differ from or are similar to traditional native speakers of English and children from immigrant families in England The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license
