The Object of My Affection Is in My Reflection Rokelle Lerner, 2010-01-01 In her latest book relationship expert Rokelle Lerner tackles the innerworkings of narcissism and offers compassionate and realistic advice for surviving a relationship with those afflicted with this personality disorder A Narcissist can make life exhilaratingly exciting one minute and sheer hell the next A narcissist has no qualms about taking another's money love admiration body or soul to satisfy their unquenchable hunger They are not inherently evil but unfortunately their wounds compel them to act in ways that are sometimes unconscionable damaging and ultimately tragic Whether a mother in law friend coworker or boss sometimes it's impossible to avoid narcissists so instead of being miserable or taken advantage of Rokelle Lerner shares her insights on the dynamics behind this personality disorder to give readers the tools to cope with narcissists including Learning to see narcissists as they see themselves Creating defense factors to ward them off Maintaining a balanced relationship based on mutual love not one sided narcissism

Patterns of Dissonance Rosi Braidotti, 2013-05-28 This book is a brilliant and timely analysis of the complex issues raised by the relation between women and philosophy It offers a critical account of a wide range of contemporary philosophical and feminist texts and it develops this account into an original project of critical feminist thought Braidotti examines contemporary French philosophy as practised by men such as Foucault and Derrida showing that they rely on a notion of the feminine in order to undermine classical thought which bears no direct relevance to the historical experience of women Braidotti then looks at the attempts of contemporary feminist thinkers in Europe and the United States to show the gendered nature of discursive power games She discusses the contributions of Luce Irigaray and many other feminist theorists to the understanding of sexual difference and of its implications for philosophy and politics This book will be of interest to students and researchers in women's studies feminist theory social theory cultural studies philosophy and literature and anyone interested in contemporary feminism and the relation between feminist theory post structuralism and psychoanalysis

Thinking about

Society: Theory and Practice Ian Jarvie, 2012-12-06 I C Jarvie was trained as a social anthropologist in the center of British social anthropology the London School of Economics where Bronislaw Malinowski was the object of ancestor worship Jarvie's doctorate was in philosophy however under the guidance of Karl Popper and John Watkins He changed his department not as a defector but as a rebel attempting to exorcize the ancestral spirit He criticized the method of participant observation not as useless but as not comprehensive it is neither necessary nor sufficient for the making of certain contributions to anthropology rather it all depends on the problem situation And so Jarvie remained an anthropologist at heart who in addition to some studies in rather conventional anthropological or sociological molds also studied the tribe of social scientists but also critically examining their problems especially their overall rather philosophical problems but not always so a few of the studies included in this volume exemplify his work on specific issues whether of technology or architecture or nationalism in the academy or moviemaking or even movies exhibiting excessive sex and violence These studies attract his attention both on account of their own merit and on account of their need for new and powerful research tools such as those which he has forged in his own intellectual workshop over the last two decades Psychology without Foundations Steve D Brown, Paul Stenner, 2009-08-03 For many years for many people social psychology has been deemed a discipline in crisis This new book proposes a way out of the crisis by letting go of the idea that psychology needs new foundations or a new identity whether biological discursive or cognitive The psychological is not narrowly confined to any one aspect of human experience it is quite literally everywhere The book proposes a strong process oriented approach to the psychological which studies events or occasions Aspects of experience such as communication or embodiment are treated as thoroughly mediated the product of multiple intersecting relationships between the biological the psychic and the social The outcome is an image of a mobile reflexively founded discipline which follows the psychological wherever it takes us from the depths of embodiment to the complexities of modern global politics Research Design and Methods Gary J. Burkholder, Kimberley A. Cox, Linda M. Crawford, John H. Hitchcock, 2019-07-26 Research Design and Methods An Applied Guide for the Scholar Practitioner is written for students seeking advanced degrees who want to use evidence based research to support their practice This practical and accessible text addresses the foundational concepts of research design and methods provides a more detailed exploration of designs and approaches popular with graduate students in applied disciplines covers qualitative quantitative and mixed methods designs discusses ethical considerations and quality in research and provides guidance on writing a research proposal Common Sense in Early 18th-Century British Literature and Culture Christoph Henke, 2014-10-14 While the popular talk of English common sense in the eighteenth century might seem a by product of familiar Enlightenment discourses of rationalism and empiricism this book argues that terms such as common sense or good sense are not simply synonyms of applied reason On the contrary the discourse of common sense is shaped by a defensive impulse against the totalizing intellectual regimes of the Enlightenment and the cultural climate of change they promote in order to contain the unbounded discursive proliferation of modern learning Hence common sense discourse has a vital regulatory function in cultural negotiations of political and intellectual change in eighteenth century Britain against the backdrop of patriotic national self concepts This study discusses early eighteenth century common sense in four broad complexes as to its discursive functions that are ethical which at that time implies aesthetic as well transgressive as a corrective political in patriotic constructs of the nation and repressive of otherness The selection of texts in this study strikes a balance between dominant literary culture Swift Pope Defoe Fielding Johnson and the periphery such as pamphlets and magazine essays satiric poems and patriotic songs
