Multiculturalism in Art Museums Today Joni Boyd Acuff, Laura Evans, 2014-07-08 Aimed at museum educators Multiculturalism in Art Museums Today seeks to marry museum and multicultural education theories It reveals how the union of these theories yields more equitable educational practices and guides museum educators to address misrepresentation exclusivity accessibility and educational inequality This contemporary text is directive it encourages museum educators to consider the critical multicultural education theoretical framework in their day to day functions in order to illuminate and combat shortcomings at the crux of museum education Museum Educators as Change Agents Inclusion versus Exclusion Collaboration with Diverse Audiences Responsive Pedagogy This book adopts a broad definition of multiculturalism which names not only race and ethnicity as concerns but also gender sexual orientation religion ability age and class While focusing on these various facets of identity the authors demonstrate how museums are social systems that should offer comprehensive diverse educational experiences not only through exhibitions but through other educational activities The authors pull from their own research and practical experiences which exemplify how museums have been and can be attentive to these areas of identity Multiculturalism in Art Museums Today is hopeful and inspiring as it identifies and commends the positive and effective practices that some museum educators have enacted in an effort to be inclusive Museum educators are at the front line interacting with the public on a daily basis Thus these educators can be the real vanguard of change modeling critical multicultural behavior and practices Museums and Their Visitors Eilean

Hooper-Greenhill, 2013-04-15 Museums are at a critical moment in their history In order to ensure survival into the next century museums and galleries must demonstrate their social relevance and use This means developing their public service functions through becoming more knowledgeable about the needs of their visitors and more adept at providing enjoyable and worthwhile experiences Museums and Their Visitors aims to help museums and galleries in this crucial task It examines the ways in which museums need to develop their communicative functions and with examples of case studies explains how to achieve best practice The special needs of a number of target audiences including schools families and people with disabilities are outlined and illustrated by examples of exhibition education and marketing policies The book looks in detail at the power of objects to inspire and stimulate and analyses the use of language in museums and galleries This is the first book to be written to guide museum and gallery staff in the development of provision for their visitors It will be of interest to students of museum heritage and leisure and tourism studies as well as to international museum professionals Civilizing the Museum Elaine Heumann Gurian, 2006-05-17 Written over a thirty five year career the essays in Civilizing the Museum introduce students to the powerful sometimes contested and often unrealized notion that museums should welcome all because they house the collective memory of all Drawing on her experience working in and with museums in the US and throughout the world Author Elaine Heumann Gurian explores the possibilities for making museums more central and relevant to society The twenty two essays are organized around five main themes museum definitions civic responsibility and social service architectural spaces exhibitions spirituality and rationality And these themes address the elements that would make museums more inclusive such as exhibition technique space configurations the personality of the director the role of social service power sharing types of museums the need for emotion humour and spirituality Without abandoning the traditional museum processes Gurian shows how museums can honour tradition whilst embracing the new Enriched by her experience in groundbreaking museums Gurian has provided a book that provokes thought dialogue and action for students and professionals in the field to realize the inclusive potential of museums
