Patterns Of Variation In Colloquial Javanese:

Patterns of Variation in Colloquial Javanese Stuart O. Robson, 1991 Patterns of Variation in Colloquial Javanese Stuart O. Robson, 1991 The Historical Construction of Southeast Asian Studies Park Seung Woo, Victor T King, 2013-06-17

At a time when Southeast Asian Studies is declining in North America and Europe this book serves to remind us of the fresh constructive and encouraging view of the field from Asia On behalf of Taiwan's Southeast Asian research community I sincerely congratulate Professors Park and King for making such a great and timely contribution to the making of Southeast Asian Studies in Asia Hsin Huang Michael Hsiao Director of Institute of Sociology Academia Sinica and former President of Taiwan Association of Southeast Asian Studies The Historical Construction of Southeast Asian Studies Korea and Beyond is an important and long overdue step in the task of bringing Southeast Asian Studies to where it rightfully belongs the Asian region At the same time it avoids being narrowly regionalistic and instead views Southeast Asia as an open system that transcends national units or fixed territorial categories and welcomes the contributions of both Asian and non Asian scholars in crafting a fresh post colonial approach to the study of the region's societies and peoples Eduardo Climaco Tadem Professor of Asian Studies University of the Philippines Diliman An insightful and systemic analysis of the intriguing trajectories evolving themes and multi lingual scholarship of Southeast Asian Studies in Asia and beyond this book serves as an important foundation in setting future research agendas as well as for closer global collaborations in knowledge production in Asian Studies Liu Hong Tan Kah Kee Professor and Chair School of Humanities and Social Sciences Nanyang Technological University Singapore Australian National Bibliography: 1992 National Library of Australia, 1988 Global Perspectives on Youth Language Practices Cynthia Groff, Andrea Hollington, Ellen Hurst-Harosh, Nico Nassenstein, Jacomine Nortier, Helma Pasch, Nurenzia Yannuar, 2022-02-07

Most journal articles edited volumes and monographs on youth language practices deal with one specific variety one geographical setting or with one specific continent This volume bridges these different studies and it approaches youth language from a much broader angle A global framework and a diversity of methodologies enable a wider perspective that gives room to comparisons of youth's manipulations and linguistic agency transnational communicative practices and language contact scenarios The research presented addresses structural features of everyday talk and text youth identity issues related to specific purposes and contexts and sociocultural emphases on ideologies and belonging Combining insights into sociolinguistic and structural features of youth language the volume includes case studies from Asia Indonesia Australia and Oceania Arnhem Land New Ireland South America the Amazon Chile Argentina Europe Germany Spain and Africa Uganda Nigeria DR Congo Central African Republic South Africa It expands on existing publications and offers a more comparative and global approach without a division of youth's strategies in terms of geographical space or language family This collection including a conceptual introduction is of interest to scholars from several linguistic subfields working in different regional contexts as well as sociologists and anthropologists working in the field of adolescence and youth studies

Unpacking Discourses on Chineseness Shuang Gao,Xuan Wang,2021-09-09 This book examines the complexity of Chineseness in China and the Chinese diaspora Using critical sociolinguistic and discourse analytical approaches the chapters reveal the power dynamics and ideologies underlying the varied ways Chineseness is performed represented and contested Together they highlight four perspectives on Chineseness the multiplicity of Chineseness aspirational Chineseness chronotopes of Chineseness and the cultural politics of Chineseness It is argued that Chineseness is best understood as an ideologically constructed variable the articulation of which is deeply embedded within the dynamics of neoliberal globalization rising nationalism persistent Western hegemony and shifting global geopolitics

The Social Dynamics of Pronominal Systems Paul Bouissac,2019-07-15 Personal pronouns have a special status in languages As indexical tools they are the means by which languages and persons intimately interface with each other within a particular social structure Pronouns involve more than mere grammatical functions in live communication acts They variously signal the gender of speakers as parts of utterances or in their anaphoric roles They also prominently indicate with a range of degrees the kind of social relationships that hold between speakers from intimacy to indifference from dominance to submission and from solidarity to hostility Languages greatly vary in the number of pronouns and other address terms they offer to their users with a distinct range of social values Children learn their relative position in their family and in their society through the correct use of pronouns When languages come into contact because of population migrations or through the process of translation pronouns are the most sensitive zone of tension both psychologically and politically This volume endeavours to probe the comparative pragmatics of pronominal systems as social processes in a representative set from different language families and cultural areas

Caraka ,1983 Southeast Asia Collection National Library (Singapore),1991

Communication across Cultures Heather Bowe,Kylie Martin,Howard Manns,2014-10-23 Communication across Cultures explores how cultural context affects the use and mis interpretation of language It provides an accessible and interdisciplinary introduction to language and language variation in intercultural communication by drawing on both classic and cutting edge research from pragmatics discourse analysis sociolinguistics linguistic anthropology and politeness studies This new edition has been comprehensively updated to incorporate recent research with an emphasis on the fluid and emergent practice of intercultural communication It provides increased coverage of variation in language within and between cultures drawing on real world examples of spoken and written communication The authors review classic concepts like face politeness and speech acts but also critique these concepts and introduce more recent approaches Each chapter provides a set of suggested readings questions and exercises to enable the student to work through concepts and consolidate their understanding of intercultural communication This is an excellent resource for students of linguistics and related disciplines
