Paul Landacre, a Life and a Legacy Anthony L. Lehman, 1983 Bohemian Los Angeles Daniel Hurewitz, 2008-04-30

Historian Hurewitz brings to life a vibrant and all but forgotten milieu of artists leftists and gay men and women whose story played out over the first half of the twentieth century and continues to shape the entire American landscape In a hidden corner of Los Angeles the personal first became the political the nation's first enduring gay rights movement emerged and the broad spectrum of what we now think of as identity politics was born Portraying life over more than forty years in the hilly enclave of Edendale now part of Silver Lake Hurewitz considers the work of painters and printmakers looks inside the Communist Party's intimate cultural scene and examines the social world of gay men He discovers why and how these communities inspiring both one another and the city as a whole transformed American notions of political identity with their ideas about self expression political engagement and race relations From publisher description Material Dreams Kevin Starr, 1990-04-12 Kevin Starr is the foremost chronicler of the California dream and indeed one of the finest narrative historians writing today on any subject The first two installments of his monumental cultural history Americans and the California Dream have been hailed as mature well proportioned and marvelously diverse and diverting The New York Times Book Review and rich in details and alive with interesting and sometimes incredible people Los Angeles Times Now in Material Dreams Starr turns to one of the most vibrant decades in the Golden State's history the 1920s when some two million Americans migrated to California the vast majority settling in or around Los Angeles In a lively and eminently readable narrative Starr reveals how Los Angeles arose almost defiantly on a site lacking many of the advantages required for urban development creating itself out of sheer will the Great Gatsby of American cities He describes how William Ellsworth Smyth the Peter the Hermit of the Irrigation Crusade the self educated Irish engineer William Mulholland who built the main aqueducts to Los Angeles and George Chaffey who diverted the Colorado River transforming desert into the lush Imperial Valley brought life supporting water to the arid South He examines the discovery of oil the boosters and land developers the evangelists such as Bob Shuler the Methodist Savanarola of Los Angeles and Aimee Semple McPherson and countless other colorful figures of the period There are also fascinating sections on the city's architecture the impact of the automobile on city planning the Hollywood film community the L A literati and much more By the end of the decade Los Angeles had tripled in population and become the fifth largest city in the nation In Material Dreams Starr captures this explosive growth in a narrative tour de force that combines wide ranging scholarship with captivating prose Paul Landacre, Prints and Drawings Paul Landacre, 1983 The Collected Letters of Robinson Jeffers, with Selected Letters of Una Jeffers James Karman, 2011-10-12 The 1930s marked a turning point for the world Scientific and technological revolutions economic and social upheavals and the outbreak of war changed the course of history The 1930s also marked a turning point for Robinson Jeffers both in his career as a poet and in his private life The letters collected in this second volume of annotated correspondence document Jeffers rising fame as a poet his controversial response to the turmoil of his time his struggles as a writer the growth and maturation of his twin sons and the network of friends and acquaintances that surrounded him The letters also provide an intimate portrait of Jeffers relationship to his wife Una including a full account of the 1938 crisis at Mabel Dodge Luhan s home in Taos New Mexico that nearly destroyed their marriage American Printmakers of the Twentieth Century Donald E. Smith,2004 LA's Early Moderns Victoria Dailey,Natalie Shivers,Michael Dawson,2003 Galka Scheyer Walter and Louise Arensberg Richard Neutra Rudolph Schindler Will Connell Lloyd Wright Norman Bel Geddes Edward Weston John Cage Anais Nin Jake Zeitlin Merle Armitage Harriet and Sam Freeman and several dozen other artists and designers this was a circle not just a loose network of acquaintances The modernist pioneers of Los Angeles art and architecture made statements in their work and legacies but they were every bit as much a community as they were individual satellites of expression These people gathered in solidarity they met as friends and lovers and they shared excitement over their important breaks with tradition In modest but lasting ways they changed Los Angeles forever There is history in that and there is inspiration as well This book is about a secret Los Angeles a Los Angeles filled with optimism about a different kind of city of the future Brave New Worlds Miami-Dade Community College.
